No More Foot Troubles If You See Kienzle

If there is anything wrong about your feet, if the arches are weak, or if the toes do not adjust themselves to the shoe, see Joseph Kienzle, 741 Monroe Avenue. When a person's feet are sore, or cause a pain, the whole system is out of gear. What the distributor, or timer, is to the automobile, the feet are to the human body, and it is needless to let your feet bother you in any way as long as Kienzle's services are available. There is no foot ailment, or disease, that Kienzle and his experts do not know. They are feet doctors as well as shoe salesmen. Orthopedic shoes, the kind that make you feel comfortable, are their specialties. Our advice is to take your old shoes to Kienzle's store to see if they can be repaired to fit your feet, scientifically.

Never neglect your footwear. Like a stitch in time saves nine, the prevention or cure of a deformity by using Kienzle's orthopedic shoes will save you distress and money. There is more science in buying the right pair of shoes than there is in buying the right suit for the Easter fashion parade. All foot troubles fly out the window when Kienzle opens the door.

Gay Breakfast Coat of Black Satin and Wool

The inspiration of this negligee was a lovely flower design straight from Vienna. Coming or going, this black crepe-back satin breakfast-coat is gorgeous. Up against the left shoulder on the back grows a great gay exotic blossom with petals of blue and coral tones and long decorative leaves in shades of green—all worked in wool.

A blue and coral bud with its foliage adorns the lower front of the negligee. The border facing is a soft, blue-green crepe de chine and where that joins the black satin a long and short stitch of rosy coral wool makes an intervening bit of color.

The crepe of the black satin forms the only lining needed. Woman's Home Companion.

Eskimo Children Have Toys of Rare Beauty

Eskimo youngsters possess tiny spears and fish hooks cut from walrus bones, small croquet mallets with ivory-tipped arrows, beautiful little kayaks about a foot long, cleverly fashioned from skins and manned with carved ivory hunters. Each one holds a pad of bone, a bone harpoon, a wee float of seal skin and delicate hide harpoons.

Little sleds of ivory, only a few inches long, yet perfectly formed, with several ivory dogs hitched with reindeer hide harness, are treasured possessions of Eskimo boys. Deer, whales, bears, seals—all sorts of queer fish and birds—are carved from pure ivory and given to the children at Xuletide. Beautiful little ivory birds of the Far North, peugun and the murra, are cut so delicately from ivory as to astonish the examiner.

There are ivory thimbles for the girls, tiny ivory pins for their coarse, black hair, toggles or clasps for fur belts, shopping bags of white fur from the Arctic here.

Some boys have a marvelous drum made of a thin strip of walrusbone bent to form a circle. Both sides are covered with tightly stretched shark skin. Two little walrus bones are drum sticks and no snow igloo can contain the noise that radiates from the instrument.

Many of these toys reach American cities but are sold in curio shops and are far too expensive for Santa Claus to distribute. -Boston Herald.

Materialistic

Mrs. J. had become weary of the noise that accompanied the play of her two young sons, especially since there seemed to be indications that a slight quarrel was developing.

"Boys," she cried in desperation, for she had been troubled with a head ache all day, "if you do not stop quarreling, mother may get sick and die, and then what will you do?"

"The boys stopped suddenly to consider the effects of such a tragedy. "I know what I should do," volunteered Jim. "I should go to Aunt Jane's, because she has such good peach preserves."

"I shouldn't," disagreed Charles. "I should go to Aunt Helen's, for I like strawberry jam better."

Tell Age by Scars

In the Botanic gardens, Regent's park, London, is a remarkable tree known as the "Kalm Bred" plant. More than 1,000 years old, it is not, however, a native of Great Britain, having been imported from South Africa a few years ago. Nor is it very big. At its widest point the trunk is only 15 inches in girth, and the tree is barely ten feet high, yet it is known by the formidable name of Eucalyptus altissima.

How can its age be told? This is done by comparing the number of leaf scars which cover the trunk with the number of fronds produced each year.

Kuchens Baked To Please Everybody

Hot coffee and Kuchen. A feast for a king. When the pater familias shows his legs beneath the breakfast table, and inhales the aroma of his favorite coffee, and sees before him the kind of Kuchen he enjoys, it means a running start for a happy day for him and for his wife and their children. Nothing appeals to the average man more than the kind of breakfast he wants and gets. Such a breakfast is made possible by serving those delicious kuchen made by the Arnett Bakery, 344 Arnett Boulevard. The entire 19th ward knows of these kuchen, and now we intend to acquaint the remainder of the city with the fact that not only are kuchen, but all baked goods, made and sold by his bakery. It is the home of all that is attractive in the baked goods line.

A cinnamon Kuchen, or an apple Kuchen, or a cherry Kuchen, or any other kind of Kuchen is a breakfast in itself. How those kids do relish it, and it's a treat for the parents to see the youngsters get all they want, and, more. Mother's breakfast problem is solved by serving one of the Arnett Bakery's kuchen with coffee. Those kuchen have a flavor all their own, and they are so popular that many women are holding Kuchen parties the same as they used to hold strawberry festivals. The Arnett Bakery specializes in baked goods orders for parties, so if you want to avoid the tiresome work of preparing for guests, just give Genesee 1293 a ring, and your luncheon, or meal, will be delivered promptly at your door.

ARCHBISHOP MESSMER REPORTED GRAVELY ILL

Milwaukee, March 22.—The Most Rev. Sebastian G. Messmer, Archbishop of Milwaukee, who has been confined to his bed since Christmas with bronchitis and influenza, is reported today to be in a grave condition. The last sacrament was administered to His Grace, Sunday, according to Msgr. Bernard G. Traudt, vicar general of the Archdiocese. Archbishop Messmer is reported to be in a coma most of the time. He is 81 years old.

Oil Painting Of Bishop O'Hern Given Seminary

A fine oil painting of Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D. D., Bishop of Rochester, has been presented to St. Bernard's Seminary by members of the Bishop's own class at the Seminary, the class of 1901. The painting has been hung in the corridor of the Seminary. It was done by the Kavanagh Studios of New York City, and is a splendid likeness. The gift is greatly appreciated by the Seminary.

The likeness of another Bishop, Rt. Rev. Thomas Walsh, D. D., of Newark, N. J., will soon be presented to the Seminary by members of his class, and will be hung in the corridor.

12,000 Daily Attend Novena At St. Louis

St. Louis, March 21.—The Novena of Grace, conducted in the St. Francis Xavier (College) Church, came to a close on Tuesday. So great were the crowds attending the devotions that an overflow had to be sent away. The original intention of conducting but eight services a day had to be changed and additional exercises given.

There was an average daily attendance of 12,000 and on Sunday 15,000 persons were present. Never before has this universally popular Novena of Grace proved more appealing to St. Louisans than this year. It was conducted by Rev. Thomas J. Matherway, S. J., Associate Professor of Dogmatic Theology at St. Louis University, Rev. William F. Robison, S. J., and Rev. Joseph A. Gschwend, S. J.
