House That Will Appeal to Those
Who Don't Care for Faddish Designs

By W. A. RADFORD
Mr. William A. Radford will answer questions and give advice FREE OF COST on all subjects pertaining to practical home building, for the readers of this paper. On account of his wide experience as editor, author and manufacturer, he is, without doubt, the highest authority on all these subjects. Address all inquiries to William A. Radford, No. 1827 Prairie avenue, Chicago, Ill., and only inclose two-cent stamp for reply.

Recent years have seen extensive improvements and variations in home design. Many of these are highly desirable in getting away from monotony and lack of artistic effect. Others, however, have gone to extremes and are of a faddish sort. As their newness wears off, their value will depreciate rapidly. There are many home builders of a more conservative in-hallway gives access to the stairs and also the dining room at the rear. Also in the rear portion is the kitchen with a breakfast room off it. This breakfast room also serves as a passage to the basement stairs.

On the second floor we find two bedrooms and a smaller room designated as a playroom. This room, like the bedroom, is provided with a good closet which makes it available as an additional bedroom should occasion require. There is another closet, for linens, in the upstairs hall and a small closet in the bathroom which will be found most convenient.

Announcement is made that the spacious billiard room of the Columbus Building, on the second floor, will be reserved exclusively for the members of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, and with the adjoining card rooms will be fitted up as cozy lounging and club rooms for the Knights. This will fill a long-felt want and will provide the Knights with most excellent private rooms, something long desired by the members.

Billiard Room of Columbus Building Will be Reserved Exclusively for Knights of Columbus

The Rochester Knights of Columbus will hold a smoker on the evening of May 22, in the Columbus building, on the second floor. Charles F. Raymond has been appointed chairman of the event, and he is busy arranging an entertainment that will knock the dust of winter off the walls of the building.

Weekly Calendar
Sunday, April 28.—St. Paul of the Cross, enlisted in a Crusade against the Turks, but warned by heaven, abandoned this work and founded the Passionist Monastery of Monte Argentario. His life was modeled on the Passion of Christ and he died while the passion was being read to him.

Monday, April 29.—St. Hugh Abbot, was a prince related to the sovereign house of the Dukes of Burgundy. When sixteen years old he made his profession in the religious life and when only twenty-five he succeeded to the government of the great Abbey of Cluny. He died in 1109 and was canonized twelve years later by Pope Calixtus II.

Tuesday, April 30.—St. Catherine of Siena travelled through Italy bringing back rebellious cities to obedience to the Holy See. She brought Gregory XI back from Avignon to Rome and was councillor of Urban VI. She died in Rome at the age of thirty-three in 1380.

Wednesday, May 1.—Sts. Philip and James, Apostles. Philip was one of the first chosen by Christ and St. James (the Less) was the author of an inspired epistle. According to St. Paul, St. James was favored with a special apparition of Christ after the Resurrection.

Thursday, May 2.—St. Athanasius, Bishop, was born in Egypt and defended the faith against the heresy of Arius. For forty-six years he fought, well nigh alone, for true Faith. He is honored as one of the greatest of the Doctors of the Church. He died in 373.

Friday, May 3.—The Discovery of the Holy Cross. Commemorates the finding of the relic by St. Helen, the mother of the Emperor Constantine.

American Donors Present Magnificent Memorial to the Spanish People STANDS 114 FEET-HIGH
Overlooking the Spot from Which Columbus Sailed for America 437 Years Ago

Palos, Spain, April 25.—Four hundred and thirty-seven years ago Christopher Columbus set sail in the name of God, half an hour before sunrise, on the morning of August 3, 1492, on that memorable voyage which resulted in the discovery of the American continent.

Last Sunday a mammoth statue of Columbus, towering 114 feet above the very harbor from which the great Admiral set sail for the new world, was unveiled in this city—a magnificent memorial from the American people to the Spanish people. Many thousands of people attended the unveiling ceremony, and a great celebration marked the event.

U. S. Ambassador Hammond pulled the cord that released the draperies from the statue, and the giant figure of Christopher Columbus, gazing far out to sea over the very route he took more than four centuries ago, was revealed to the gaze of admiring thousands.

The statue, seventy feet high, and resting upon a pedestal forty-four feet high, towers above the harbor of Palos. It was donated to the Spanish people by the Columbus Memorial Fund, Inc., of America, and the sculptor was Mrs. Gertrude Vanderbilt-Whitney. The directors of the fund include R. A. C. Smith, Alexander P. Moore, James A. Flaherty, Frederick H. Allen, Miss Annie Morgan, Adolph S. Ochs, William H. Page, Rear Admiral H. O. Stickney and Morgan J. O'Brien.

tending to the people of Spain, in the name of the citizens of the United States, an expression of friendly good wishes and assurances of the abiding esteem felt in the States for that nation through whose generosity the great discovery of Christopher Columbus was made possible.

In 328. After the Cross together with the two crosses used in the execution of the two thieves, had been found, the character of the one upon which the Saviour suffered was established by a miracle.

Saturday, May 4.—St. Monica, the mother of St. Augustine was born in 332 and after a girlhood of singular innocence was given in marriage to Patricius, a pagan. When her son, Augustine, went astray in his youth he was brought back to the Faith through her prayers.

English Catholics
Open Church in St. Augustine, Fla.
London, April 25.—The Rev. Fr. John J. Wynne, S. J., of the Universal Knowledge Foundation here, has just dispatched the following telegram to Brother Dutton, the world famous hero of the leper colony in Molokai:

At this moment we are as Catholics of the Reformers.

There are many churches in the world, but the only one that is truly Catholic is the one that is founded on the rock of St. Peter. We are proud to be members of the English Catholic Church in St. Augustine, Florida.
