

Paris Inspired

In a precise Parisian manner our Mr. Ernest and his foreign trained assistants bring about this most pleasing of all waves—the French-Art permanent! Requires no hair waving and will last indefinitely.

PHONE—MAIN 2008 2009

MAISON-RICH ART HAIRDRESSING 106 Main Street East

WAYNE Electric Refrigerator. Full 5 Cubic Feet. Box $175.00. Discount to Builders. C. A. KENNING. Distributor 425 MAIN ST. East. Phone 4268.

SALTED NUTS. No Longer at Luxury Prices. LARGE JUMBO SHELLED. SALTED PEANUTS. 20 Cents Lb. FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, at Rochester Coated and Salted Nuts. 757 West Main St. Phone GENESEE 6945.

HART'S. 131 HOME TOWN GROCERY STORES SELLING FOR LESS. PRICE CUTTERS.

Twenty-Five Cent TAXI Stone 15. To 4 People. Within Boundary. Appearing Cars. Phone 405. 75c SERVICE.

Recent Rochester Deaths

"It Is, Therefore, a Holy and Wholesome Thought to Pray for the Dead, That They May be Loosed From Their Sins"

II. Mach. XIII; 43-46

Sgt. L. P. Murray, On Police Force 36 Years, Dead

On Wednesday morning this week the funeral of a fine citizen and good Christian, Sergt. Lawrence P. Murray, was held from his home, 51 Culver Road, and at 9 o'clock in the Blessed Sacrament Church. There was a large attendance of friends, including delegations from the Rochester Police Department, the Locust Club and the Knights of Columbus.

Sergeant Murray had been a member of the police force for 36 years. His health caused his retirement on May 1, 1927. He was a fine officer, well respected by everybody who knew him, and trusted by his superiors.

Sergeant Murray leaves his widow, Mrs. Mary Murray; two sons, William F. Murray of San Francisco, and James G. Murray of the Rochester Fire Department; two daughters, Bessie H. Murray and Mrs. George H. Merkel; a brother, John Murray, and a sister, Mrs. Thomas McGraw, all of Rochester; also eight grandchildren.

MRS. IDA V. MARYMAN. Ida V. Maryman, aged 68 years, died on May 1, at her home, 486 Plymouth Avenue South. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Bertha L. Wagner and Mrs. George E. Roberts; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; two brothers, Alex and Warren Norris and one sister, Mrs. Margaret Bowles.

The funeral was held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from Immaculate Conception Church. Interment at Holy Sepulcher Cemetery.

JOSEPH MOREAU. Joseph Moreau died at his home, 141 Shelter Street, on May 2. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Della Moreau; one son, Henry J. Moreau of Rochester; two brothers, Henry M. of Ware, Mass.; Peter of Marblehead, Mass.

His funeral was held Monday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Monica's Church. Interment at Ware, Mass.

MRS. PATRICK-NASH. Mrs. Mary E. Nash, widow of Patrick Nash of No. 128 Ontario Street, died Thursday evening, May 2. She leaves three sons, John A., Thomas H. and Patrick Nash, all of this city; two granddaughters, Marlon E. and Dorothy M. Nash. Mrs. Nash was a member of the Rosary Society of Corpus Christi Church. Member of the L. C. B. A. and a member of Ladies' Maccabees No. 30, Active Maria.

The funeral was held Monday morning at 9 o'clock from Corpus Christi Church. Burial at Holy Sepulcher Cemetery.

DAVID G. O'BRIEN. David G. O'Brien died in this city, Wednesday morning, May 1. Besides his widow, Carrie Gayette O'Brien, he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Fred Loewenguth; one son, Percy C. O'Brien; three brothers, William, Frank and John O'Brien.

The funeral was held from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Loewenguth, 71 Magee Avenue, Saturday morning, and at 9 o'clock at the Sacred Heart Church. Interment Holy Sepulcher Cemetery.

ALICE H. WHYLEY. Alice H. Whyley died Thursday evening, May 2, at the family home, 299 Jefferson Avenue. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Mary Whyley, and two sisters, Miss Eva J. Whyley and Mrs. Fred H. Damon.

The funeral was held Monday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Peter and Paul's Church. Interment in Holy Sepulcher Cemetery.

K. of C. Choral Society Plans Annual Concert. Splendid Musical Program Will Be Given in the Columbus Auditorium May 30. MAY PARTY TO BE HELD AFTER THE CONCERT. Capacity Audience Is Expected to Attend Event—Mezzanine Reserved for Patrons.

The annual concert by the Knights of Columbus Choral Society, one of the best trained organizations of male singers in the city, will be held on Monday evening, May 20, in the Auditorium of the Columbus Building. Tickets will soon be issued, and the concert gives every promise of being one of the best ever given by the society.

The mechanics of the balcony will be reserved for patrons of the concert. These choice seats will give patrons an unusual opportunity to see and hear the singers, and it is expected that every seat will be taken.

The Choral Society has been rehearsing for a number of weeks for this concert, under the direction of Professor Frederick C. Pohl, and with excellent results. The program will be a well-balanced one, and at its close a May party will be held, with dancing. Excellent music will be provided for this part of the evening's entertainment.

The officers of the Choral Society are: President, George M. Foss; vice president, Andrew Dembs; secretary, Walter Wentworth; assistant secretary, Edward Rizzo; treasurer, Hubert M. Call; librarian, Al. Miller; assistant librarian, Frank Bill; director, Professor Frederick C. Pohl; assistant director, Paul Predmore.

Convention of K. of C., May 30 At Lake Placid. Annual Meeting of State Body Will Be Held in Heart of the Adirondacks. ROCHESTER KNIGHTS WILL BE REPRESENTED. Motor Trip to K. of C. Sanatorium at Gabriels Will Be Made by Delegates.

The annual state convention of the Knights of Columbus will be held this year at Lake Placid, beginning May 30 and continuing through the next two days. Meetings will be held at the Stevens House. Although not officially opened for the season it will be opened for the convention and everything will be in readiness to care for delegates and guests.

Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, will be represented by two delegates at the convention. Daniel F. Fitzgerald, the grand knight of the council, and Charles R. Barnes, past grand knight. A large number of other members of the Council will motor to the convention from this city.

The annual grand ball of the convention will be held on Friday evening, May 31st, in the Stevens House. There will be a number of other social events, arranged under the direction of the Lake-Placid Knights.

The State Council of the Knights of Columbus maintains a splendid sanatorium for tubercular members, with free treatment for them, at Gabriels. A motor trip to Gabriels, and through other parts of the Adirondacks, will be made on Saturday, June 1st, and the delegates and visiting members will have an opportunity to inspect the Sanatorium and its work.

Where Quality MEATS come from FAHY MARKET 54 Andrews St.

Aquinas Alumni Held Reception For Bishop O'Hern. The Alumni of Aquinas Institute tendered a reception on Thursday evening of this week to the Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester. The affair was a most pleasant one, and members of the association gave the Bishop a most cordial and sincere greeting, pledging their loyalty and fealty to him, and offering their services in every good work in which they might help.

Catholic Women Annual Dinner Set for May 23. Event Will Be Held in the Columbus Building—The Committee in Charge. The annual dinner of the Catholic Women's Club, always a pleasant social event, will be held on Thursday evening, May 23rd in the ball room of the Columbus Building. The Rt. Bishop of Rochester, will be a guest of honor. The hour of the dinner will be 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles W. Mayer is chairman of the dinner. Mrs. Frank E. Deavenport has charge of the tickets. The following ladies are on the committee: Mrs. Louis A. Whalen, Mrs. Frank T. Curran, Mrs. M. H. Keogh, Miss Cecelia M. Yawman, Miss Francis A. Fox, Miss Alice Kirk, Miss Marie Blackwood, Mrs. Leo F. Simpson, Mrs. P. D. Kane, Mrs. Wendell E. Andrews, Mrs. Charles Hery, Mrs. John E. McKenna, Mrs. Charles Byrom, Mrs. John G. Magin, Mrs. William J. Smythe, Mrs. Joseph Ochs.

Notre Dame Student Wins Oratory Honors. Notre Dame, Ind., May 9.—The greatest honor that can come to a student in the field of national collegiate oratory has crowned the famous efforts of James Charles Roy of Fort Wayne, Ind., who has just been crowned national champion in the national collegiate competition at Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

Owen L. "Donnie" Bush. Pittsburgh has a valuable player in "Donnie" Bush, a good batter, a good player, and up with the best of them in the early race for the pennant.

Arthur P. Kelly In Brokerage Firm. Well-Known Former Eastman Theater Official, and Prominent Knight of Columbus.

Arthur P. Kelly, for six years director of public relations for the Eastman Theater and the Eastman School of Music, has become associated with the new stock brokerage firm of H. O. Babcock and Company.

ARTHUR P. KELLY

Mr. Kelly has been very active in many affairs of a public nature throughout the city. He is a capable, dependable and well-liked business man, and patrons of the H. O. Babcock Company will find him helpful and courteous at all times. He and his partners are well known, and their friends will wish them the best of good fortune in their business.

Community Chest Campaign Monday. Letter from Bishop O'Hern, Urging Catholic People, to Contribute, Will Be Read Sunday.

The twelfth annual campaign for the Rochester Community Chest, which provides financial support for all charities of the city, will open at the Chamber of Commerce Building Monday evening and will be continued for one week. In common with all other city charities, the Catholic charitable institutions receive generous allotments from the Chest each year. The Community Chest is so broad in its work and so generous in its charities that it appeals to all people of Rochester.

New York Giants To Play St Bona

St. Bonaventure, May 9.—John McGraw, New York's famous little Napoleon will make another home coming to his Alma Mater on May 31st, when he brings his collection of diamond stars to Olean to meet the St. Bona's College nine. McGraw is a St. Bona alumnus and was a prominent member of the famous baseball teams back in the late 90's.

Away from his Alma Mater for more than 30 years the New York pilot has never forgotten the early days of his career, and has always held St. Bona's high in his esteem. The college thinks well of her son, and two weeks ago McGraw was presented a beautiful alumni ring as a gift of the student body of the Franciscan institution.

Tommy Gibbons To Build Church In Minnesota

Tommy Gibbons, retired light-heavyweight boxer, wanted to do something for the town of Osakis, Minnesota, where he has his summer home. Being a fine Catholic American and a Fourth Degree Knight of Columbus, Tommy could think of nothing finer to do than build a church, and so Osakis will soon have "The Church of the Immaculate Conception", a fifty-thousand-dollar structure to be erected from funds provided by Gibbons.

Tommy is the father of six fine sons, two of whom are at present in a Catholic boarding school.

C. D. of A. Closes Its Convention

The Catholic Daughters of America closed their biennial State convention at the Hotel Seneca last Sunday-afternoon. More than two hundred delegates were present, and they pronounced the convention one of the best ever held by the organization.

The convention opened on Friday morning, with a Pontifical Mass in St. Patrick's Cathedral, the Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, pontificating. The sermon was preached by the Rt. Rev. William J. Hafey, D.D., Bishop of Raleigh, N. C.

Business sessions were held at the Hotel Seneca, Friday and Saturday, and the delegates attended the 8:30 Mass in a body at the Cathedral on Sunday, Bishop O'Hern celebrating the Mass and giving an inspiring talk.

The Funeral Service, Inc. 31 LAKE AVENUE. Service Is The Keystone Of Our Business. Joseph J. Buckley, Pres. Rochester, N. Y.

LITTLE BITS OF NEWS

Mrs. James M. Mangan of Hawthorn Street is home after spending a week in New York City.

Mrs. Ross Erwin of Trafalgar Street entertained Friday evening in her studio in Clinton Avenue South for Miss Virginia O'Brien of Seneca Parkway.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cunningham of Goodman Street will leave town the middle of May for a trip of several weeks to California.

Mrs. Fred W. Magill of 363 Jefferson Avenue is a member of the reception committee for the annual card party of Loreto Circle held today in St. Patrick's Orphan Asylum.

Harry C. D'Annunzio was chairman and Cesare Scoffetti, Italian consul, toastmaster of a committee of prominent Italian citizens of Rochester who entertained Beniamino Gigli, famous tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Co., at Leonardo's Restaurant on Monday evening. The affair was a delightful one.

Police Lieutenant Edward Fisher is a patient at St. Mary's Hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis on Monday. His friends—and he has a world of them—will wish him a safe and speedy recovery, with renewed health and strength.

Monuments—Mausoleums. Statuary. T. H. MARRION & CO. Mark Every Grave. 478 State St. Main 7522. Rochester, New York.

CHAS. SCHIED SONS, Inc. DEALERS IN Marble and Granite Monuments. 1142 Mt. Hope Ave. Rochester, N. Y.

Edward Haubner Sarto W. Stallrecht. John C. Rossenbach FUNERAL DIRECTORS. Genesee 300 Genesee 2648. Office and Residence, 828 Jay St.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE CATHOLIC COURIER AND JOURNAL.

Ryan & McIntee. 78 LEO McINTEE FUNERAL DIRECTORS. 207 CHESTNUT ST. STONE 1804.

Hedges & Hoffman Funeral Directors. John M. Hedges. Main 141 Scio St. Main 620.

C. F. Scheuerman Son's Funeral Directors. 230 Brown St. opp. Allen St. Phone—Genesee 428.

THOMAS H. MOONEY'S FUNERAL DIRECTORS. HARRY D. HARRISON, President. MAIN 127. 93 Edinburgh Street.

Established 1872. L. W. Maier's Sons UNDERTAKERS. 870 Clinton Avenue North. Phone, Genesee 608.