Geneva Church Planning Its 25th Anniversary Celebration on July 7th

St. Stephen's Church Will Observe Silver Jubilee In Fitting Manner—$25,000
Memorial Fund to Rev.
S. V. McPadden

Geneva, June 6.—St. Stephen's Church in this city will celebrate its silver jubilee on Sunday, July 7th. Elaborate plans are being made for the event. The Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, will celebrate a Pontifical High Mass, and will address the people of the church that day.

memory of the first pastor of the church, the late Rev. Stephen V. McPadden. It is planned to launch this campaign about June 19. A committee of parishioners will canvass the parish for subscriptions. The pastor of the church, the Rev. William McPadden, and his people are enthusiastic in their plans for an appropriate celebration of the event, and it is certain to be a great success.

CALEDONIA Sister of Priest Buried on Tuesday

Caledonia, June 6.—Margaret Jane Kennedy sister of Rev. James E. Kennedy, pastor of St. Columba's Church, Caledonia, died Sunday at the parental residence in Caledonia after a brief illness.

Besides Father Kennedy, she leaves a sister, Mrs. Helen Breen of Central Islip, L. I., another brother, Michael Kennedy of Geneva; a sister-in-law, Mrs. John Kennedy of Canandaigua, and two nieces, Celia and Mary Kennedy of Canandaigua. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at Caledonia with interment in St. Theresa's Cemetery, Stanley.

ELMIRA John M. Connelly Beloved Citizen

Elmira, June 6.—The funeral of John M. Connelly, first president of the Elmira Chamber of Commerce, and one of the best beloved residents of this city, was held in St. Mary's Church at 10 o'clock Monday morning. Many priests were present, city and county officials, and a great gathering of personal friends. Interment was made in St. Peter & Paul's Cemetery. Mr. Connelly died on Thursday last week, after an illness of two months.

Mr. Connelly was instrumental in bringing many industries to Elmira when he was president of the Chamber of Commerce. He was active all his life in every work that was for the betterment of Elmira and its people. He was a trustee of the Steele Memorial Library, a member of the Elmira Country Club, and of Elmira Council, No. 229, Knights of Columbus.

Besides his widow, who was formerly Miss Katherine Sheehan, Mr. Connelly is survived by a son, Harold; two daughters, Miss Catherine Connelly of Elmira and Mrs. P. E. Trouche of Charleston, S. C.; three brothers, Thomas and Cornelius of Elmira and Hubert of New York City, and two sisters, Miss M. L. Connelly and Mrs. George P. Ransom, both of Elmira one grandson, Paul Edwin Trouche, 3rd.

Marlin J. Golden, assistant sales manager of the Gallagher Motor Company, will be married next Monday morning in St. Augustine's Church to Miss Rena Weider. The couple will have the congratulations and good wishes of many friends.

William M. Smith, Supreme Trustee of the Loyal Order of Moose, will be honored by the Rochester Moose this evening when a class of candidates will be initiated under his auspices at the Moose Club.

Miss Marion Brennan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah M. Brennan, 119 Rosedale Street, will be graduated June 10 from the College of New Rochelle.

Joseph E. Gore, president of the Rochester Association of Purchasing Agents, took an airplane trip to Buffalo last Sunday with several associates to attend the National convention of purchasing agents. Mr. Gore was honored by being chosen chairman of the Convention Committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Carr, who recently moved into their new home on West High Terrace, were entertained at dinner last Thursday evening at The Sagamore by a group of friends.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Gerace of Mt. Morris for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Vincenza Anna Gerace, of this city, to Joseph Anthony Bonjorno, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bonjorno of Reynolds Street, on June 15th, at Assumption Church, Mt. Morris.

Mrs. James P. Callahan of Menlo Place entertained the Chadwick Choral Club at cards at her home last Friday evening.

Mary has indeed chosen this sacred spot as her favorite to answer prayers and grant petitions.

Last year the crowds making the Novena were large so that two separate services had to be held. Even greater attendance is anticipated this year. The services will be in charge of the Rev. Jos. F. Sofka, C. S. S. R., missionary attached to St. Joseph's.

Petitions and donations for vigil lights, masses and prayers can be forwarded to the Rectory, 108 Franklin St. All not already enrolled are urged to join the Archconfraternity of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

St. Joseph's Church
Novena to Our Lady, June 14th

Great interest is already being manifested from various quarters in Rochester and vicinity in the coming annual solemn Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help, which opens on Friday, June 14th, in St. Joseph's Church, corner of Franklin and Clinton Sts., North. There will be two public services daily, in the afternoons at 3, and in the evenings at 7:45.

Of the many shrines popular in Rochester, this beautiful place dedicated to Our Lady of Perpetual Help in St. Joseph's Church, can readily be termed the most popular. The crowds attending the weekly public devotions have been growing steadily and there is hardly a moment of any day when one cannot see fervent souls kneeling here before Mary in humble prayer. Such devotion manifests too clearly that
