U. S. Missionary Is Murdered By Chinese Bandits

Cologne, June 13.—The Mission House of the Sacred Heart of Jesus at Hiltrp, near Muenster, has just received word of the murder in China of Father Joseph Winkelmann, M.S.C., whose body has been found with those of three other missionaries between Kweichow and Hunan. Father Winkelmann has been missing since the end of November. Leaving his station at Shihstien he went to Shanghai to confer with his provincial and conduct three younger missionaries to Kweichow. They were evidently killed by bandits. Father Winkelmann was thirty-two years of age. The German missions in China are said to be in a pitiful state. Many of the stations have been plundered and the missionaries taken prisoners and held for ransom. A number have been killed.

Pope Discusses Wireless Station With Marconi

Vatican City, June 13.—Pope Pius gave an extended audience on Tuesday to Senator William Marconi, with whom he had a long talk over the possibility of construction of a wireless station on the Vatican grounds. The Pontiff asked a number of questions, showing a surprising technical knowledge of the problem and thanked the distinguished inventor warmly for putting his services at the disposal of the Holy See. He imparted a special blessing to the Senator.

Pagan Chinese Aids Nuns In Instructing Dying Man In Faith

Shanghai, June 13.—The Sisters of a Catholic hospital in China relate the following story of one of their patients, a Chinese student of the Aurora University in Shanghai, which is conducted by the French Jesuits. A sick pagan was recently brought to the hospital in a dying condition, and desired religious instruction, but the catechist was absent. The Sisters had recourse to the student, who consented willingly and showed great aptitude in the task. After the dying man had been baptized, the Sister Superintendent said to the student: "You belong to a family which has been Christian for several generations?" "No," answered the young man. "Are all your relatives Christians?" continued the nun. Again, the answer was "No." "Then you are the only Christian in your family?" "I am not a Christian," answered the young Chinese, "but I am a student at the Aurora University."

Death of St. Anthony To Be Commemorated

Rome, June 13.—Preparations are already under way for the celebration of the seventh centenary of the death of St. Anthony of Padua which will occur in 1931. A committee has been named to prepare the program and a review, Il Santo, established in which everything pertaining to the Paduan saint from the point of view of religion, literature and art will be published.

Rev. Thomas F. Brennan Says His First Mass In The Cathedral

The Rev. Thomas F. Brennan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Brennan of 89 Selye Terrace, ordained to the priesthood Saturday morning, celebrated his first mass Sunday at St. Patrick's Cathedral, the church in which he received his early training. Assisting Father Brennan were the Rev. John Burke, deacon; the Rev. Joseph Sullivan, subdeacon; and the Rev. Wilfred Craugh, assistant priest. The Rev. Charles F. Shay, rector of St. Patrick's, preached the sermon.

Canada's Champion Orator, a Catholic

Toronto, Can., June 14.—For the second year in succession, a Catholic student has been declared champion orator of the Dominion and will represent Canada in the International Oratorical Contest to be held in Washington, D. C., against the best speakers of the United States and Europe. The championship of Canada has just been awarded to Roche Plard, of Joliet Seminary, Quebec, after a jury here had listened to the forensic efforts of Canada's best student speakers, one from each province. Last year, William Fox, Jr., of De La Salle Collegiate, London, Ont., was acclaimed champion of the Dominion. This year's winner is 18 years old. He delivered his winning oration in French. All of the other contestants spoke in English, except Miss Madeleine Brunet, of St. Adolph Convent, Manitoba, the only girl entered.

Weekly Calendar

Sunday, June 16.—St. John Francis Reata was a member of the Society of Jesus, who during the twelve years in which he preached the gospel brought many thousands to the Faith. He died in 1641.

Monday, June 17.—St. Avitus, a native of Orleans, retired into Auvergne and took the monastic habit in the Abbey of Menat. Later he became abbot of Misy but resigned to gain greater seclusion. He lived for a time as a recluse in Dunols where a church was built for him and his companions by King Clovis. The Saint died about the year 530.

Tuesday, June 18.—Sts. Marcus and Marcellianus, martyrs, twin brothers of an illustrious family in Rome, were killed during the persecution under Diocletian. While in prison awaiting execution they succeeded in converting their parents and their wives together with several public officials.

Wednesday, June 19.—St. Juliana Falconieri received the habit of the Servants of Mary, from the hands of St. Philip Benizi. Her sanctity attracted many novices and for their guidance she was bidden to draw up a rule. This she became foundress of the "Mantellate." She died in 1340 after a lingering and painful illness.

Thursday, June 20.—St. Silverius, Pope and martyr, was the son of Pope Hormisdas who had been married before he entered the priesthood. Chosen Pope on the death of St. Agapetus, Silverius was driven from Rome through the enmity of the Empress Theodora. He was banished to Patara in Lycia where the Bishop received him with great honor and interceded for him with the Emperor. The latter ordered him restored to Rome but through the machinations of his enemies the Saint was landed on a desert island where he died in 538.

Friday, June 21.—St. Aloysius Gonzaga, son of Ferdinand Gonzaga, Marquis of Castiglione, at the age of nine made a vow of perpetual virginity and by a special grace was ever exempted from temptations against purity. He entered the Society of Jesus and during his last year of theology when a fever broke out in Rome offered himself for service to the sick. He contracted the disease and died after an illness of three months.

Saturday, June 22.—St. Paulinus of Nola, was one of the foremost men of his time. He withdrew into Spain, distributed his great wealth and was ordained to the priesthood. When the Vandals made a descent upon Campania the Saint, then Bishop of Nola, devoted all he had to redeeming his people from slavery. Finally he offered himself in place of the son of a poor widow. When the Vandal King learned of this he set the Saint free together with his townspeople. The Saint died in 431.

Private Audience For Rochesterians Given By Pope Pius

The Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D. D., Bishop of the Dioecese, received a cablegram Monday from former Supreme Court Justice and Mrs. Arthur E. Sutherland, telling him that they had been granted a private audience by Pope Pius XI. When Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland left Rochester for Europe, Bishop O'Hern arranged with Cardinal Gasparri so special consideration was given them in arranging an audience with the Pope. The cablegram was an acknowledgment of his kindness.

Mercy Hospital Campaign, Auburn, Goes Over Top With Total of $351,445

(Continued from Page One) final inning of the drive. Each team announcement was applauded vigorously. 19,329 Subscribers Gave Doctor O'Neill announced the grand total as $351,445 and the total number of subscriptions as 10,329. The announcement was followed by a cheer. Words from the leaders were then in order. Those upon whom Doctor O'Neill called were Lithgow Osborne who spoke for the Memorial Committee; Miss Isabel Goss, for the women's organization; Mrs. Frederick K. Rich, for the allied towns group; Henry T. Sherman for the men's organization; Hart B. Hill, campaign director, and Louis H. Schmits, general chairman of the effort. All spoke enthusiastically of the glorious victory and expressed their gratitude to the campaigners and subscribers for all that they had done in achieving the goal. Each speaker was cheered to an echo.

Doctor O'Neill publicly thanked the auditors for their splendid work, the hotel management for its excellent service, the newspapers for their printed efforts and all who in any way had contributed to the success of the venture. High praise was paid Mr. Hill and his organization, the Hill, Folsom & Smith Company, of New York City, for the excellent manner in which they operated the campaign machinery.

At the conclusion of the meeting the gathering burst into song. With John J. Breslin as leader, it sang a number of songs of a stirring, victorious nature. The final figures showed that the men's team raised $77,793; the women's teams, $106,690; the allied towns' teams, $39,591, and the memorial committee, $127,771. A total of $351,445. It is believed this figure will be increased considerably by donations that will yet be received.

Sisters of Mercy Grateful The Sisters of Mercy, in charge of the hospital later issued, through Sister M. Antonio, the superintendent, a sincere expression of thanks to all people who helped make the campaign a success. In conclusion, the statement of Sister M. Antonio said: "To the more than 10,000 individuals who have contributed so generously of their means toward the fulfillment of an ideal of service to humanity, must come the satisfaction of a noble response to a great cause.

"To one and all, the worker and the giver, we acknowledge our deep indebtedness, which can only be fully realized as time goes on and the fruition of your achievements becomes apparent. "May the Giver of gifts recommend each act of helpfulness, each deed of love done in His Name. "Sisters of Mercy Hospital."

League of Prayers Formed in France For Fallen Away

Paris, June 13.—A League of Prayers has just been founded among the young Catholics of France to obtain the return to the Church of their errant brothers. This idea was given birth at Rome during the course of the pilgrimage of French youths at Easter time. The adherents are grouped in three degrees of membership: Members of the first degree obligate themselves to recite each day an Our Father and a Hail Mary and to receive Communion once a month for the return of the wanderers. Members of the second degree promise to recite each day a decade of the rosary and to receive Communion weekly. Members of the third degree, in addition to reciting a decade of the rosary and receiving Holy Communion weekly, obligate themselves to recite each day a prayer to St. Teresa of the Child Jesus which the Carmelites of Lisieux have published for this intention.
