A National Shrine to St. Anthony

For the past seventeen years a statue of Anthony of Padua, with the Christ Child in his arms, has stood in the Gospel Corner of the Monastery Church at Graymoor, fifty miles north of New York City, amid the Highlands of the Hudson. The fame of this humble shrine of the Wonder-Worker of Padua has spread far and wide throughout the United States and Canada, owing to the endless stream of Novenas to St. Anthony conducted by the Graymoor Fathers, a new one being every Tuesday. Meanwhile the number of Religious, Students for the Priesthood and pilgrims to the Mountain have so greatly increased, that the present Monastery Church is no longer large enough to contain the worshippers. It is therefore, proposed in anticipation of the 700th Anniversary of St. Anthony's death, June 15, 1931, to erect a Church three times the size of the present one, and which is to bear his name.

The Friars of the Atonement are making a public Appeal to the Clergy of St. Anthony to erect this New Shrine in his honor. Having faith in the innumerable prayers of the Wonder-Worker that they will build on the Atonement a so beautifully situated, a Church worthy to be named in America's Memorial to the most invoked Saint of Christendom, Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph being always excepted. The quarrying of the granite stone for this National Shrine of St. Anthony has already begun. Every one sending an offering of at least one dollar for the erection of St. Anthony's Church will receive a handsome picture of the Franciscan Wonder-Worker imported from France, provided they mention having seen notice in The Catholic Courier and Journal.

Address all offerings, also petitions to be presented to the Monastery of St. Anthony's Perpetual Novenas to
