

K. of C. Procession To Start Convention In Milwaukee, Wis

Milwaukee, July 5.—Arrangements for a procession on Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee's main thoroughfare, in which all delegates, thousands of visitors and distinguished guests will participate, have been completed for the supreme convention of the Knights of Columbus in Milwaukee, August 20th, 21st and 22d.

The procession will start from the residence of Archbishop Sebastian G. Messmer and will terminate at the Milwaukee Auditorium, where a pontifical High Mass will officially open the convention, Tuesday morning, August 20th. The celebrant will be a high dignitary of the church, probably a cardinal.

A speaker of national reputation, yet to be selected, will address the civic reception at the Auditorium, Monday night, August 19th. Plans for the reception also include a musical program in which twelve visiting bands and glee clubs will take part. This program is being arranged by John Leicht, distinguished Milwaukee musician.

St. Augustine's School Graduates Sixty-seven Pupils

Sixty-seven pupils were graduated from St. Augustine's Parochial School, June 23. The exercises were held in the Church, and there were many people present.

The Rev. John H. O'Brien prize for Christian Doctrine had 22 eligible students. It was awarded to Dorothy Schaefer. The Rev. John H. O'Brien prize for scholarship excellence was awarded to Warren Nallor. The Mr. and Mrs. M. H. O'Brien prize for excellence in arithmetic had eight eligible students. It was awarded to Charles Hebling. The prize for English, by the same donors, went to William Shaughnessy. The Mr. and Mrs. George Schaefer prize for seventh grade arithmetic was awarded to John Gomes.

The prize in gold, donated by Rev. John H. O'Brien for perfect attendance, had 33 eligible students. It was drawn by Gerald Shaughnessy.

The Rev. Patrick J. Mcardle of Scottsville gave the address to the class, and his talk was a most excellent one. The Rev. John H. O'Brien, rector of St. Augustine's Church, also spoke to the class, and expressed sincere gratitude to the Sisters of St. Joseph for their splendid work in the school the past year. The Stella Maris Camp for Boys Opens on July 8th

Camp Stella Maris, founded by the late Max Russar at Conesus Lake, for Catholic boys, will open for the season on July 8th. Bookings for the camp may be made through the office of the Propagation of the Faith Society, 1035 Lincoln-Alliance Bank Bldg., Stone 4212. Cards with full particulars will be mailed to all applicants.

The camp will be conducted this year, as in the past, by well-trained students of St. Bernard's Seminary, some of whom are registered Red Cross life savers. Boys are expected to attend for two weeks. The first period will be from July 8th to 20th; second period, July 22d to August 3rd; third period, August 5th to 17th; fourth period, August 19th to 31st, when the camp will close.

The camp is beautifully located, and all boys who attend will be carefully supervised and will have a busy and delightful two weeks. The boys are divided into groups of ten, and each group is in charge of a counselor. Sports, hiking, woodcraft and swimming are featured at the camp.

Catholic Women Plan Their Annual Cruise To Cobourg, July 8

Announcement is made by the Catholic Women's Club that the Ontario II has been chartered for the exclusive use of its members and families and friends for the Club's annual cruise to Cobourg on Thursday, July 8th. Arrangements have been made to leave Rochester at 10 A. M., and return by moonlight. The cruise, as in former years, will be in the nature of a big basket picnic.

There will be games and contests, with prizes, and a special program for the children. Mrs. Daniel W. Sullivan is general chairman in charge of arrangements, and tickets may be secured at the Clubhouse and from the members of Mrs. Sullivan's committee.

Weekly Calendar

Sunday, July 7.—St. Pantaeus, Father of the Church, flourished in the second century. He was a Sicilian by birth and a Stoic philosopher by profession. Converted to the Faith, he was placed at the head of a Christian school in Alexandria. Later he left his school and went to preach the Gospel to the Eastern nations. He died in 216.

Monday, July 8.—St. Elizabeth of Portugal, was the daughter of Pedro III of Arragon and a niece of St. Elizabeth of Hungary. At the age of twelve she was given in marriage to the King of Portugal. After her husband's death she took the habit of the Third Order of St. Francis and spent the rest of her life in austerities and alms-giving.

Tuesday, July 9.—St. Ephram, deacon, was known as the light and glory of the Syrian Church. He entered the religious life but his humanity led him to refuse the dignity of the priesthood. He was noted as a preacher and teacher and his hymns soon won the hearts of the people that he is known to this day in the Syrian liturgy as the "Harp of the Holy Ghost." He died at Edessa in 378.

Wednesday, July 10.—The seven brothers and St. Follicitas, their Mother, because of their refusal to sacrifice to the pagan gods, were subjected to torture and finally put to death during the reign of the Emperor Antoninus.

Thursday, July 11.—St. James, Bishop, was a native of Nablus in Mesopotamia. He chose the highest mountain for his abode, sheltering himself in a cave in the winter and the rest of the year living in the woods continually exposed to the open air. Many sought him to ask for his prayers and spiritual advice. When Sapor II, King of Persia, besieged Nablus his army was routed by a vast multitude of gnats in response to the prayers of the Saint. St. James died in 350.

Friday, July 12.—St. John Gualbert, was born at Florence in 929 and for a time pursued the profession of arms. After becoming reconciled with a relative with whom he had carried on a feud, he abandoned the world and entered the religious life. He established the monastery St. Salvi and died in 1005.

Saturday, July 13.—St. Eugenius, Bishop of Carthage, refused to obey the order of King Huneric that he exclude the vandals, some of whom were Catholics, from the Church. This led to persecution of the Catholics. Eugenius was banished but was recalled by Huneric's successor. Later he was again banished and died in exile in 505.

Sunday, June 28th. Prizes were awarded and luncheon served. Mrs. August Pappert acted as chairman, assisted by Mrs. R. Schneider, Mrs. A. McNamee, Mrs. M. Wall, Mrs. L. McNamara, Mrs. J. Trompeter, Mrs. E. Spiegel, and Mrs. J. Thoms. The party was a great success.
