Rev. J. E. Bayer of Geneseo Drowned in Canandaigua Lake Wednesday; Pope Pius XI Leaves Vatican, First Exit of any Pontiff Since 1870

Priest Falls in Lake, Due to Heart Attack, While Fishing in Boat

Rector of St. Mary's Church, Geneseo, Meets Sudden Death Near Naples—Body Recovered Quickly, But Efforts to Revive Him Were in Vain—Death Widely Mourned by Parishioners and Friends

OFFICE OF THE DEAD SUNDAY EVENING AND FUNERAL WILL BE HELD 10 A. M. MONDAY

The Rev. J. Edward Bayer, Ph.D., S.T.B., rector of St. Mary's Church, Geneseo, N. Y., and of St. Raphael's Church at Piffard and St. Lucy's Church at Retsof, was stricken with an epileptic seizure or heart attack while fishing from a boat in Canandaigua Lake at Woodville, four miles from Naples, about 6:45 o'clock Wednesday afternoon this week, and he fell from the boat into the lake. He was dead when his body was recovered 10 minutes later.

Father Bayer was accompanied by Teddy Hill, the 14-year-old stepson of his sister, Mrs. Ida Hill of Corning. About 15 feet away, fishing from another boat, was the Rev. Charles Riefer, formerly of St. Andrew's Seminary, Rochester, and recently appointed pastor of the Sacred Heart Church at Perkinsville. Father Riefer rowed quickly to the place, but Father Bayer, either unconscious or dead when he fell into the water, sank immediately.

Several cottagers witnessed the accident and rowed to the place which was not far from the shore. The body was recovered by a man named Pierce after he had dived for it several times. Not more than 10 minutes had elapsed when the body was taken to the shore, and Boy Scouts and cottagers worked unceasingly in resuscitation efforts for one hour and forty minutes. But to no avail.

Bishop of Rochester

The Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., in his episcopal robes, leading the procession into Holy Sepulchre Cemetery last Sunday for the annual Field Mass for the dead of the Cemetery. He is being escorted by 500 uniformed Knights of St. John. Bishop O'Hern celebrated a pontifical Mass, and more than 3,000 people were present at the service.

Autos Allowed to Enter the Cemetery At Certain Hours

The Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, announced at the annual field Mass of the Knights of St. John in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery last Sunday that automobiles will be allowed to enter Holy Sepulchre Cemetery daily from 11 a. m. to 7 p. m., except Saturdays, Sundays, legal holidays and holy days. "We have confidence," said Bishop O'Hern, "that in giving this privilege to the public, it will not be abused; that every automobile which comes to Holy Sepulchre will be careful to avoid accidents and to conform to the general rules governing admission to the cemetery."

Meet the Hierarchy

ARCHBISHOP CURLEY

When he received the news of his appointment as Bishop of St. Augustine, Florida, Father M. J. Curley, now Archbishop of Baltimore, was downed in overalls and was working in his orchard. He had to travel some distance to reach the telephone. The orchard was started to help meet the upkeep of his missionary parish. From St. Augustine, Bishop Curley was transferred to Baltimore to succeed the beloved Cardinal Gibbons as head of the oldest archdiocese in the United States. He is an energetic and capable leader and is beloved by all people in his Diocese.

Great Throng Greeted The Supreme Pontiff In St. Peter's Square

More Than 250,000 People from All Parts of the World Crowded Great Square in Greeting to the Pope on This Historic Occasion—Solemn Procession with the Blessed Sacrament

BELLS OF ALL THE CHURCHES IN ROME WERE RUNG FOR THIS HISTORIC EVENT

Vatican City, July 25.—Pope Pius XI, carrying the Blessed Sacrament in a solemn religious procession, entered St. Peter's Square to-day, the first Pontiff to leave the walls of the Vatican since the destruction of the Papal State in 1870. He was greeted reverentially by a mammoth crowd of more than 250,000 people as he entered the great square—proof to the world that the Pope is no longer "the prisoner of the Vatican."

The exit of the Pope was the crowning feature of the international pilgrimage of seminary students to Rome. The Holy Father presided at the solemn Eucharistic procession in connection with this event. Heralded by silver trumpets, by the ringing of the bells of St. Peter's, and the bells of all the churches in Rome, the procession—a revival of the traditional and most solemn Eucharistic procession which, before 1870, the Pope carried out every year on the feast of Corpus Christi—left the walls of the Vatican, passed through the Borghini portico and around St. Peter's Square, which was packed to capacity by the dense throng of humanity.

Annual Convention Of Central Verein Is Held in Oregon

Sessions Held in Conjunction With Meetings of National Catholic Women's Union; Willibald Eibner Is Re-Named President

Salem, Oregon, July 25.—The 73d national convention of the Catholic Central Verein of America and the 13th annual convention of the National Catholic Women's Union, probably the largest Catholic gathering in the history of this State, closed here yesterday. Willibald Eibner of New Ulm, Minn., was re-elected president of the Central Verein.

Other officers of the Central Verein elected were: First vice-president, Henry D. Delmann, Texas; second vice-president, Joseph C. Adler, New York; third vice-president, Frank Saalfeld, Oregon; fourth vice-president, Mrs. Sophia Wavering, Illinois; financial secretary, F. J. Dockendorf, Wisconsin; assistant secretary, William A. Hennecke, Pennsylvania; treasurer, George Korke, Missouri; marshal, Michael Weiskopf, Minnesota; trustee, Joseph Brockland, Missouri; William A. Siefen, Connecticut; John A. Roehl, Wisconsin.

Head of Hosts

Resolutions adopted by the convention covered a wide variety of topics. Hope that the farm legislation passed by the special session of Congress would aid agriculture was not strongly entertained. Rather, it was declared, "the farmer must continue to rely on his own initiative, his knowledge of farming and industry, which together with businesslike management of his affairs are, after all, the essential factors determining either success or failure."

The evil influence of "modern feminism" and their so-called "modern freedom" was decried in resolutions adopted by the Women's Union. "By their ideas and practices they are undermining the foundation of Christian moral standards," the resolution declared. "The sanctity of marriage is attacked; birth control is unblushingly preached from the house-tops; the incomparably well-organized machinery for lobbying and propaganda purposes is driving the Presidents of the United States to virtual dictatorship, Calvin Coolidge intimated in an article entitled 'The President Lives Under a Multitude of Eyes,' appearing today in the American Magazine.

Because they fear the consequences of displeasing these fanatical minority groups, the former President takes a stand even upon party platform issues and the President is compelled to assume the entire responsibility. The result, he said, is the weakening of the power of political parties, the loss of confidence in Congress and corresponding growth of presidential power.

Of intimidation of Congressmen by fanatical minorities, the former President writes: "It is because in their hours of timidity the Congress becomes subservient to the importunities of organized minorities that the President comes more and more to stand as the champion of the rights of the whole country. Organizing such minorities has come to be a well recognized industry at Washington. They are sometimes led by persons of great ability, who display much skill in bringing their influences to bear on the Congress. They have ways of securing newspaper publicity, deluging Senators and Representatives with petitions and overwhelming them with imprecations that are oftentimes decisive in securing the passage of bills. "While much of this legislation is not entirely bad, almost all of it is excessively expensive. If it were

Fanatical Groups Control Congress, Coolidge Declares

Well-Organized Minorities Intimidate Legislators And Are Forcing Presidents Into Virtual Dictatorship, He Says In Article in American Magazine

Washington, July 25.—The intimidation of Congressmen by fanatical minority organizations with powerfully organized machinery for lobbying and propaganda purposes is driving the Presidents of the United States to virtual dictatorship, Calvin Coolidge intimated in an article entitled "The President Lives Under a Multitude of Eyes," appearing today in the American Magazine.

Father Marquette's Grave Being Marked As a Public Shrine

Detroit, July 25.—The site of the final resting place of Father Jacques Marquette, the Jesuit explorer and missionary, will be enclosed, improved and opened to public veneration, the Rev. John P. McNichols, S.J., president of the University of Detroit, has revealed upon his return from St. Ignace. Construction work already has been begun and will be completed at an early date.

The chapel where reposed the bones of Father Marquette was destroyed by fire in 1706, and with the passage of years the site became obliterated. Father Edward Jaker discovered the site in St. Ignace, and excavations proved the correctness of the location. In time, the property was deeded to the University of Detroit, as it was planned that the Society of Jesus would carry out the work of restoration. To this end, the University decided to enclose the site and to erect a monument to Father Marquette.

Japanese Catholic Sends Poem To Governor Smith

Tokyo, Japan, July 25.—Through the Rt. Rev. Alexander Berlioz, F.F.M., who as Bishop of the Japanese Diocese of Hakodate has several times visited the United States, Dr. J. B. Masatani, President of the Catholic Society on Toyama, has sent to the Hon. Alfred E. Smith, Ex-Governor of New York State, a Japanese poem entitled "The King of Kings," accompanied by a letter. "Encouraged by the kindly lines of His Eminence, the Cardinal Secretary of State of Pope Pius XI, the undersigned ventures to present you with a copy of the very modest work which has gained for him the attention of the Holy See," the letter says. "We, the latest born of Holy Church, feel the need of finding a support in those who have the Faith before us, and in whom generations of that venerable Faith have fixed immovably the truths of Religion."

Funeral Masses Said For Rev. Thomas Duggan In Rochester and Elmira

Assistant Rector of Blessed Sacrament Church Dies Suddenly After Short Illness—Tribute by Bishop O'Hern at Funeral Here

The Rev. Thomas E. Duggan, assistant rector of the Blessed Sacrament Church, died suddenly in St. Mary's Hospital last Saturday, after an illness of only two weeks, and following an emergency operation.

REV. THOMAS E. DUGGAN

Ulcers of the stomach were the cause of death. He was 29 years old, and had been a priest only nine years. The Rev. Thomas F. Connors, rector of Blessed Sacrament Church, was on his way to California when Father Duggan died. He returned at once, and served as one of the officiating ministers at the funeral here.

One week ago the cities of Elmira and Rochester paid tribute to the Rev. Joseph J. Ruby at funeral masses celebrated in each city for Father Ruby. This week the same Christian spirit was evidence in the case of Father Duggan. The funeral mass in Rochester was celebrated for Father Duggan in the Blessed Sacrament Church on Tuesday morning, and the one in Elmira in St. Patrick's Church on Wednesday morning. Interment was made in St. Peter and Paul's Cemetery in Elmira, where sleep his parents who preceded him in death. Bishop O'Hern Pontificated. The Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., pontificated at the funeral of Father Duggan in the Blessed Sacrament Church at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning. The church was filled to the doors for the funeral, and there were more than 100 people in the sanctuary, and a large number of Sisters. With Bishop O'Hern in person, the officiating ministers were: Assistant priest, Rev. Thomas E. Connors and Rt. Rev. Monsignor William J. Nolan, deacons of Blessed Sacrament, Rev. Leo Moore, pastor of St. Mary's, Rev. Monsignor Andrew J. Bergan, assistant secretary of the Holy Name Society, Rev. James Meyer, bookbearer; Rev. James Meyer, candle bearer; Rev. James Manley, mitre bearer; Rev. James Manley, processional cross bearer; Rev. Norman Delaney of Albany, and Rev. John Bohannon.

Hawaii Legislators Thank Bro. Dutton, Apostle To Lepers

Honolulu, T. H., July 25.—The House of Representatives of the Territory of Hawaii has adopted the following measure with reference to the heroic ministrations of Brother Joseph Dutton, Catholic apostle in the leper colony of Molokai: "Resolved, That this House desires to put on record its appreciation of the great and inspiring service, the influence for good, the splendid and effective work done during the last 40 years by Brother Joseph Dutton in the Settlement of Molokai, in his ministrations to the afflicted in Kalawao and Kalaupapa; and that the thanks of the House of Representatives be extended to him in this memorial. And, be it further: "Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Brother Joseph Dutton."

WILLIAM J. CAREY

The members of Pere Marquette Council, Knights of Columbus, will be hosts to several thousand delegates and visitors at the national convention of the order in Milwaukee, August 20 to 22. William J. Carey, grand knight of the Council, will naturally be the head of the hosts, and he is working hard in preparation of a great welcome to the convention.

General Gouraud Weeps on Memorial Day

Ayer, Mass., July 25.—General Gouraud, Sixth Division of the United States Army, stationed at Camp Devens, was reviewed by General Gouraud, great French hero. The review was the climax of a long day of reception for the distinguished visitor. He received a private audience by General Gouraud, with whom he spent half an hour, and he was received by Governor Duggan at the State House in Boston. In each instance, he received a half an hour's audience. He included in his speeches stories with the veterans with him in the grand finale. When he was a member of the American Legion, he was elected to the position of president. When it was his side, he was elected to the position of president. One of his sons, he said, was a member of the American Legion. He was elected to the position of president. He was elected to the position of president. He was elected to the position of president.
