Little Flower Statue Dedicated At Munsville

Donated by Rochesterians to Church of the Little Flower and Erected on Church Grounds

Munsville, N. Y., Aug. 1.—Last Sunday a beautiful statue of the Little Flower was unveiled and dedicated at the Church of the Little Flower in this village. The statue was erected on the church grounds, between the rectory and the church, almost on the spot where the first Mass was celebrated by Jesuit missionaries centuries ago in what is now the Syracuse Diocese.

The statue was donated by C. J. Quillivan and family of 144 N. Union Street, Rochester, in appreciation of many kindnesses done for the family by the pastor of the Little Flower Church, the Rev. John J. Butler.

A solemn vespers service was held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, preceding the unveiling of the statue. The Rev. John J. McCreary of Syracuse officiated, and also delivered a most eloquent sermon on "The Little Flower." Several hundred people were present, many of them coming from Syracuse, Utica, Oneida and some from Rochester.

Munsville never had a Catholic Church until three years ago, when the Rev. John J. Butler of Utica was appointed pastor of a new parish created there by Bishop Curley of Syracuse. Although there are only about 50 families in the parish, Father Butler has built a beautiful new church and a fine new rectory. His parish is in flourishing condition, and is one of the most attractive of the smaller country parishes in the Diocese of Syracuse.

Murphy-Dwyer Nuptial Event

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss F. Helen Dwyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dwyer of 10 1/2 John Street, and James J. Murphy, son of Mrs. Catherine Heffernan of 7 Seymour Street. They were married at 3 o'clock Sunday morning in Holy Family Church by the Rev. John A. Conway, rector of the church. The attendants were Mrs. Frederick W. Cook, Jr., sister of the bride, and Thomas M. Heffernan, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride wore an exquisite chiffon and lace gown, a white hat, slippers and hose to match. She carried a bouquet of butterfly roses and baby's breath. The matron of honor wore a flowered chiffon gown with hat, slippers and hose to match. She carried Brinkhoff roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy left after the ceremony for a trip to Canada and New England. Upon their return they will reside at 7 Seymour Street.

Showers in honor of the bride were given by Mrs. F. W. Cook, Mrs. L. C. Fredenburg, Mrs. Henry Jacobs, Mrs. Thomas Heffernan, Mrs. George M. Wright and Miss Julia Dunn.

Dansville, Olean, Hornell, Wellsville K. of C. Picnic

Dansville, Olean, Aug. 2.—Members of Dansville, Hornell, Wellsville and Olean councils of the 63d district, Knights of Columbus and their families will hold a picnic at Wellsville, the middle of next month. The Wellsville council will have charge of the event.

District Deputy Perry of Wellsville made the suggestion at a meeting at Hornell that the four councils of this district alternate in holding a picnic each year, with the home council in charge of arrangements. This suggestion was accepted. Dansville Council was represented at the Hornell meeting by George Lindsay, grand knight; Edward P. Maloney, George Hubertus and Walter Hickey.

SENECA FALLS Annual Lawn Social On August 21 and 22 Benefit of New Church

Seneca Falls, Aug. 2.—The annual lawn festival for the parishioners and friends of St. Patrick's Church will be held on the evenings of August 21 and 22 on the school lawn, West Bayard Street. Miss Mary Lacey and John Sullivan, Jr., are chairmen of the general committee. Proceeds from the social will be used towards the fund for the new church which is now under construction.

The chairmen are being assisted by a large number of parishioners, and plans are being made to care for big crowds on both evenings of the festival. The pastor of the church, Rev. B. L. Quirk, is hopeful that the festival will be the most successful ever held here.

MOUNT MORRIS

D'AUGUSTINO—SCORONE
Mount Morris, Aug. 2.—Miss Rose Scorone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Scorone of Perry and Samuel D'Augustino of this place were married recently in St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Perry by the Rev. T. J. Caraher. They were attended by Miss Caroline Colombo, as maid of honor and James Tobia as best man. The Misses Angelina and Ruth Scorone, Mary Laverdi and Anna Montelone of Perry and Josephine Scorone of Mount Morris were flower girls and Charles Presert of Mount Morris was ring bearer.

Heroic Priests Helped Authorities Quell Riot In Auburn Prison

kindness for the guards, the firemen and the prisoners.

Celtic names were prominent in the great riot. William E. Dempsey, prison guard, was shot in the arm, leg and breast while trying to stop the mutiny.

Captain Patrick F. Morrissey, 72 years old, of the Auburn Fire Department, was shot in the right hand, and another bullet creased his scalp and parted his hair. He was warned not to enter the yards when his company arrived at the prison, but Captain Morrissey went where duty called. Some of the prisoners, carried away by his bravery as the bullets flew around him, rushed him and dragged him away from his apparatus.

"This is no place for you, old timer," one of the convicts said, as he hustled the aged Captain to safety. The captain insisted on returning to duty when his wounds had been dressed in a hospital. But his truck and other fire apparatus had been wrecked by the rioters and the

St. Augustine's Fair Was Great Success

The annual lawn festival of St. Augustine's Church, which closed last Saturday evening, was a great success, much better than any in recent years. John Patis of Brockport, father-in-law of R. J. LeSchander of 473 Arnett Blvd., was awarded the big prize of the festival, the Graham-Paige sedan. He was a very proud man when told of his good fortune.

All of the workers at the festival did unusually well. More than 1,000 lunches an evening were served by the ladies in charge of the ice cream, cake, etc., and all other departments of the festival did equally well. The Rev. John H. O'Brien, rector of the church, spoke most appreciatively of the efforts of his people, and of their loyalty and generosity.

hose cut to ribbons. So Captain Morrissey was on the job, but without any tools.

Michael Walsh of Hose 6 received bruises and cuts about the back and face in a fall from a wall during the latter hours of the evening.

William Keough, fireman with Hose 5, was overcome with smoke and exertion and went to quarters over his strenuous protests.

Charles Lavey, call man at Hose 5, was shot in the leg and was taken to Mercy Hospital. His condition is not regarded as serious.

Hoseman Patrick Brennan of Hose 4 received cuts about the hand from broken glass, but pluckily resumed work after same had been treated and bandaged by the prison hospital corps.

Words of praise are heard on every side for the action of the priests during the riot. The prison authorities give them great credit for helping to restore order and in preventing further bloodshed.
