Notre Dame's New $800,000 Football Stadium Now Being Built

Notre Dame, Ind., Aug. 23.—The $800,000 football stadium of the University of Notre Dame, pictured above, which is to be finished for the football season of 1930, will have a seating capacity of over 55,000.

The grading contractors finished their work last week, leaving the ground prepared for the actual construction. The architects' final specifications are in hand, and bids will be accepted on these about the 1st of September.

Located immediately south of old Cartier field on the east side of Eddy street, the length of the amphitheatre will be 670 feet, and its width 480 feet. The distance around the outside will be about 2,000 feet.

The structure is designed strictly for football. Its shape is, therefore, rectangular with curved sections in the four corners, thus placing all the seats near the arena of play. The front rows of seats at both the sides and the ends of the structure will be only about 30 feet from the side lines and back lines respectively of the gridiron. Fifty-three rows of seats will be placed at such angles of slope as to provide equally clear vision of all parts of the field from every seat. Two hundred ninety-four boxes, each seating six, will be placed in front of the side line sections.

Direct access to the field for the purpose of possible processions or pageants and also to provide such access for trucks and other equipment as are necessary for the maintenance of the field itself will be provided by a depressed ramp descending from the exterior grade at the north end into and under the stand and the concourse and thus out upon the field. This entrance will at all ordinary times be closed by iron ornamental gates.

The press stand will accommodate 250 reporters, and convenient desks fitted with individual electric heaters and telegraph jack connections will have direct wire connections to any part of the United States.

The design of the structure, together with arrangement of seating and facilities, has been prepared by the Osborn Engineering Company of Cleveland, O., which has during the past 20 years designed and supervised the construction of over 40 such structures.

Contracts will require that the entire structure will be complete and ready for use by Sept. 1, 1930.

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Holy Redeemer Sodality Girls At Watkins Glen

The members of the Young Ladies Sodality of Holy Redeemer Church, accompanied by the Rev. Albert Genger, assistant rector of the church, held their annual outing at Watkins Glen last Sunday and had a delightful time.

Approximately 100 young women of the church visited Watkins Glen State Park, where a picnic dinner was served. The young ladies arrived from Rochester at noon and left here at 5 o'clock. The girls declared it was one of the most pleasant outings they had ever attended.

Summer School Has Two Weeks More This Season

Cliff Haven, Aug. 23.—The Rev. Francis P. Duffy, D.D., President of the Catholic Summer School here, said Mass Wednesday morning for the deceased honorary life members and benefactors of the Summer School. Mass was also said for living and deceased members of the Cliff Haven Sanctuary Guild. Mass is to be said Saturday evening by Rev. William E. Mahony, O.M.I., for Mrs. Mary Moore, at the request of the ladies of the Champlain Club.

Two weeks remain before the official closing of this season. To date it has been quite successful, and the officials look forward with high hopes to 1930 when still greater things are looked for. This note was voiced on Sunday evening at the Family Gathering by Rt. Rev. Phillip R. McDevitt, D.D., of Harrisburgh, who was the principal speaker. Rev. Dr. Duffy was chairman. Miss Mary Wolstead and Rev. Vincent Donovan, O.P., both of New York, favored with vocal selections. Kathryn L. Work, golf champion, proved to be a talented pianist with her well-received selections. Rev. Fr. Mahoney, S.J., and Dr. Brogy spoke briefly. Charles A. Webber, executive secretary, also spoke. Agnes Clune Quinlan, musical director, presided at the piano, and Becket Gibbs, D.Mus., led the singing of the Song of Christian Democracy.

Monsignor Jones, Well Known Here, Died at Ann Harbor

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward Jones of Ann Arbor, Mich., in the Diocese of Detroit, died in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor on Monday of this week. His body was brought to his native city, Utica, N. Y., on Thursday and funeral and interment held there.

Msgr. Jones was a brother of J. Albert Jones of East Rochester and of George S. Jones of Penfield. He had visited here on a number of occasions and was well known here. His brothers and their families attended the funeral in Utica. A third brother, J. Frank Jones, lives in that city.

Msgr. Jones was born in Utica in 1866. He was educated in Assumption Academy in that city, at Canisius College, and studied theology four years in the Royal Imperial University of Innsbruck in the Austrian Tyrol. He was ordained a priest by Rt. Rev. Simon Aichner, Bishop of Brixen, March 25, 1892. He celebrated his first Mass a week later in the world-famed Holy House of Loreto in Italy.

Upon completion of a post graduate course in canon law in Rome, Monsignor Jones returned to this country and was appointed pastor of the Church of Yankton, S. D., by Bishop Marty and later went to St. Cloud, where he was pastor of the Pro-Cathedral. He resigned 24 years ago and was assigned to the parish in Morris, Minn., where he served 25 years.

Monsignor Jones was made national director of the pontifical work of St. Peter and until the time of his illness had been director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in the diocese of Detroit. He celebrated his silver jubilee in 1917.

Through the efforts of Monsignor Jones, a new church was built in Morris in 1906, to replace the former church, which was burned to the ground. Seventeen years ago a new parochial school, taught by the Sisters of St. Joseph, was built in Morris under his direction. He was author of a set of books, "The Beauty and Truth of the Catholic Church."

Legionnaires to Fly To Utica Convention

The State convention of the American Legion will be held in Utica, September 5, 6 and 7, and it is expected that a large number of delegates from the Monroe County organization will make the trip by airplane. County Commander Charles E. Ashton announces that 18 airplanes are at the service of the Legionnaires here. Reservations should be made at once with George H. Beaucatre, at the City Hall Annex.

Little Flower Shrine In Texas Is Helped

The boys and girls of Finch Street gave their second annual garage show last week for the benefit of the Little Flower Shrine in Texas. The show was put on in the garage of Mr. and Mrs. Walker E. Wood, 28 Finch Street, and about 125 persons attended. Ray Wood and Paul Gibbons were the promoters, and a very helpful sum was realized. The Rev. Paul Gaffney, assistant pastor of Holy Rosary Church, was among the patrons.

Music was furnished by Arthur Kress, saxophonist, Merrill Boling, banjoist, and Richard White, mandolin player. Boling also is a well known singer. There were 10 acts, the main one being "The Wedding of the Painted Doll." Those in the cast were Ray Wood, Paul Gibbons, Laurence Houle, Gordon Pickett, Lloyd Beathon, Pat Aquilina, Francis Donaghue, Donald Beathon, Aileen Houle, Fannie Aquilina, Marie Houle, LaVilla McKinney, Alice Cinfo and Rosemary Gibbons.

Investiture of Pastor at Albion On September 2d

Albion, Aug. 23.—On September 2d the Rt. Rev. William Turner, D.D., Bishop of Buffalo, will formally invest the Rev. Francis Sullivan, rector of St. Joseph's Church in this village, as Domestic Prelate to His Holiness Pope Pius XI, with the title of Monsignor. The ceremony will take place in St. Joseph's Church at 10:30 in the forenoon, and a dinner to the clergy and invited guests will be held at 1 o'clock. There will be a public reception in the Lyceum in the evening.

Father Sullivan was ordained at Niagara University in 1913 and came to this village from Perry 13 years later. He has been pastor here for 23 years. In that time he has completed the raising of funds to pay the debt on the new church edifice, just completed on his arrival, and although he has added extensively to the property holdings of the parish since, it is still free from debt. In 1916 he was given the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at Niagara and in 1921 the degree of Doctor of Divinity. Monsignor Sullivan is well known in the community not only to those of his faith but to members of all denominations, and he is loved and respected by all.

City Can Purchase Pinnacle Cemetery

The St. Patrick's Church Society, a corporation affiliated with St. Patrick's Cathedral, and which owns the old Catholic Cemetery on Pinnacle Hill, will make no opposition to the purchase of this land by the city for a park, it is understood. There are 27 acres in the plot, and it would make a splendid park.

The cemetery was acquired when Rochester was part of the Buffalo diocese. When Bishop McQuaid, first Bishop of Rochester, opened Holy Sepulchre Cemetery in lower Lake Avenue, it was the beginning of the end for the Pinnacle Hill burying ground and for many years there have been no interments there.

The City Council has not acted on the resolution now in its hands, providing for purchase of Pinnacle Hill and the matter is still in the Finance Committee. It is likely a report of some sort will be made to the Council September 3rd. Back of the plan to establish a park on the site are the American Legion and a large number of residents of the southeast section of the city.

A British Prime Minister once said:

"Having the courage to live with one's means is respectability."

The way to do this is to have money on hand to pay the large expenditures as they come along. You can pay your food bills and other small bills out of money you have on hand, but it is wise to open a savings account in which you deposit small sums each week to have the money ready to pay your bills for taxes, coal and other large items that happen only once a year.

The way to begin is to begin—open a savings account now. You may start with one dollar.
