The cablegram from the Vatican contained a personal message from the Holy Father.

In a letter to Mother de Saunette, Saint Margaret Mary reveals the "Twelfth Promise" on which reposes the marvelous devotion of "Nine Fridays" now spread over the whole world.

On a Friday during Holy Communion, she says, Jesus spoke the following words to His unworthy slave: "I promise thee in the excess of the mercy of My Heart that I will grant to all those who receive Communion on the first Friday of every month for nine consecutive months, the grace of final repentance, and that they shall not die under My displeasure, nor without receiving their Sacraments, that My Heart shall be their secure refuge at the last hour."

The Horse Show And Exposition Open on Sept. 2

Twenty departments, utilizing more than 42 acres of grounds, and housed in a dozen permanent buildings and more than 100 temporary structures, go to make up the second or third largest outdoor fair in America.

One of the few institutions of its kind not run for profit, the Rochester Exposition has come to be looked upon as one of the foremost in America, comparable even with the far-famed Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto.

Some idea of the extent and scope of this vast civic fair may be had from the following list of the twelve departments into which it is divided:

These departments include: industrial halls, flower show, horticultural and agricultural displays, fine arts, Automobile show, women's department, public health, public utilities, aviation show, radio show, aquarium, city, county, state and Federal government exhibits.

In addition to these regularly established features, there are the work of the I.H. Clubs, the rural school work, the Municipal Museum on the Exposition grounds, Rochester's leadership in junior high school work as typified in Jefferson Junior High School, also at Edgemoor Park; the affairs of the New York State Conservation Commission, and a score more of special and extraordinary displays and features.

At this, not to mention the superlative music by Creator's world-famous band and the gigantic fireworks spectacle each night in front of the grandstands
