Mrs. J. V. O'Connor Killed By a Fall From Rear Porch

Mrs. Flora Wells-O'Connor, aged 33 years, wife of Vincent J. O'Connor of 173 Fillmore Street, holding her daughter, Helen, aged 21 months in her arms, stepped backwards on the rear porch of her home last Saturday evening to watch an airplane flying overhead. She lost her balance, fell four feet to a cement sidewalk, fractured her skull and died within a few minutes while on her way to St. Mary's Hospital in an ambulance. A loving and lovable mother, and a young woman who was held in high esteem by all who knew her, sincere sorrow is felt for her tragic death.
Mrs. O'Connor is survived by her husband, two daughters, Margaret Mary and Helen Theresa O'Connor; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter L.
Wells; one sister, Miss Mabel A.
Wells, and one brother, Lawrence P.
Wells.

Robert J. Meisch, Student Aviator, Killed In Plane

Robert J. Meisch, 19 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meisch of Braddock's Heights, student aviator and employee of the Commercial Airport, was killed Monday morning when a plane he took up in a dense fog crashed to the ground near Spencerport. Nearby residents heard the crash, rescued Robert from the wrecked plane and summoned an ambulance. But he was injured so badly that he died within a few minutes.
The body of the young man was taken to the Aulton Funeral Home, 636 Main Street West, from where the funeral was held at 8:30 on Thursday morning, this week, and in Lady Chapel, St. Patrick's Cathedral at 9 o'clock. Many friends were present at the service. Interment was made in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Robert is survived by his father and mother and by one brother, Elmer.

Mrs. Pietro Yon, Wife of Organist, Dead In New York

New York, Sept. 13.—Mrs. Francesco Yon, aged 36, wife of Pietro Yon, organist of St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York City died Saturday of heart seizure. She was born in New York. Besides her husband she is survived by a son, Mario, and by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Poesigano. Her funeral was held in St. Patrick's Cathedral on Tuesday morning and it was attended by a large number of friends, lay and clerical, and by many of the foremost musicians of the city.

held Wednesday at 10 o'clock in St.
Augustine's Church.

RICHARD H. VERIAN
Richard H. Verian died in this city Sunday, September 8th, aged 73 years. He is survived by his widow, Sarah; two sons, William L. and Lawrence K. Verian; one daughter, Mrs. William J. Powers, also five grandchildren. His funeral was held from the family residence, 470 Rue by Avenue, Wednesday morning at 8:45 and in St. Monica's Church at 9 o'clock. Interment in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

MRS. MARY A. ROACH
Mrs. Mary A. Roach of 127 Clifton Street, widow of James W.
Roach, aged 55 years, died on Thursday, September 5, after a long illness, and her funeral was held in St. Peter & Paul's Church at 9 o'clock on Monday morning. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Her mother, Mrs. Ellen Mc-Inerney, was buried the day Mrs.
Roach died, a few hours before her daughter passed away. Mrs. Roach came to Rochester from Brooklyn forty years ago and had made her home here since that time. She leaves a son, Daniel T. Roach; a sister, Catherine McInerney; three brothers, Michael G., John J. and William K. McInerney, and a grandson, Daniel T. Roach, Jr.

Mrs. Roach was a kindly and lovable woman, and her death will be mourned by many friends.

Catholic Universities of the World

The University of Padre
By ARTHUR J. LEE
The history of the University of Padua, Italy, is traced back to 1222, when a number of professors and students left Bologna and took up their residence in the city to the northeast. Mother Frances Raphael Drayton in her comprehensive "Christian Schools and Scholars" inclines to the belief that Padua owed its erecton to a quarrel among the Bo-lognese professors, a considerable body of whom migrated about 1222 and opened schools at Padua. Their venture was a success, and in a short time the schools had attracted the notice of the learned of Europe.
Besides law and dialectic, medicine and grammar were taught at Padua as early as 1228. The students were divided into four nationalities: Italian, French, German and Provençal. In 1228 a contract proposed by the commune of Verceil stipulated that all or part of the university—14 professors and sufficient students to occupy 500 houses—should be transferred to Verceil for at least eight years.
The new university was especially distinguished by its excellent school of arts. The study of art was sinking into neglect at Paris. But under the genial sky of Italy, and in a country where Latin was still so completely regarded as the native and living tongue, that as yet no one

Cardinal Blesses Camp For City Business Girls, Gift of Nicholas F. Brady

Carroll Vacation Camp Near Pawling, N. Y., Represents Outlay of Half Million Dollars—Camp Named For Mrs. Brady's Mother—Has 250 Acres of Land

Pawling, N. Y., Sept. 13.—His Emminence, Cardinal Hayes of New York City dedicated last week the new Carroll Vacation Camp, which represents an outlay of $500,000.
The camp site, which consists of 250 acres in Dutchess County, five miles from Pawling, was given by Nicholas F. Brady for the use of members of the Carroll Club, an organization of young Catholic business women of New York City. Its clubhouse is at 120 Madison Avenue, the former Colony Club.
The founder and president of the Carroll Club is Mrs. Brady, and the camp, like the club, is named in memory of her mother, Mr. and Mrs. Brady hosts at the luncheon which followed the dedication in addition to the girl campers there were about 100 guests.
Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt sent a telegram regretting his inability to attend the dedication.
Cardinal Hayes motored from his summer headquarters in Sullivan County, accompanied by Mrs. Vincent Arce, chaplain at St. Joseph's, and Mrs. Stephen J. Donahue, his private secretary. Other clergy present were Mr. John F. Brady, pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, Manhattan, and the Rev. Thomas J. Delhant, of the Church of St. Ignatius Loyola, Manhattan, and the Rev. Joseph S.
O'Connell of the Catholic Charities.
Among the laity present were Patrick Colum, poet; Professor Nicholas J. Rossi, president of the Albertus Magnus College, New Haven, and Philip Myron, Republican leader of Dutchess County.
The ceremony began with the blessing of the lodge, the central building of the camp, and of the two dormitories by Cardinal Hayes who was attended by Mrs. Arce, Brady and Delhant. After the outlay of the outlay, Mrs. Brady said at an improvised altar in the living room of the lodge. The Cardinal presided and Father Delhant was the celebrant.
Cardinal Hayes was the only speaker at the luncheon. He praised Mrs. Brady and her generosity and declared that the business girl has become a real "necessity" to modern civilization.

Mrs. F. T. Curtin "Connie" Mack's Daughter Enters Penn. Convent

Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—Miss Mary Cornelia McGillicuddy, aged 18 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Cornelius McGillicuddy of this city, began her life as a novice in the Sisterhood of St. Joseph at Chestnut Hill, near this city, on Monday this week. Her father, who was called by his first name, "Connie" Mack, owner of the Philadelphia Athletics, this year's champions of the American League, and one of the greatest baseball leaders of all time.
Miss Mack's mother accompanied her to the convent. The mother and daughter have been enthusiastic fans at all the World's Series for many years past. This year Mary will not be with her mother. She will be busy with her duties of her convent life instead. The girl is a lovable and likeable girl, but her thoughts are of the better things of life rather than of the pleasures of the world.

Miss McGary Holds The A. A. U. Title In Long Distance

Many Rochesterians will remember Miss Ethel McGary and Miss Lisa Lindstrom, who took part in an exhibition of swimming and diving in the Columbus Club swimming pool a year ago last Spring. Both are close friends of Mrs. Charlotte Boyle-Clune, who was then the instructor at the pool.
Miss McGary set for long-distance swimming champion since 1925, defended her title in the annual fix-ture, conducted by the Billmore Shores Yacht Club in Great South Bay last Sunday afternoon in a field of nine. Miss McGary covered the course, a bit more than four miles, in 1:21:19.15 and finished more than 200 yards ahead of her club-mate, Miss Lisa Lindstrom, the runner-up.
Miss Marion Vall, newly developed 16-year-old star of the same organization, surprised by giving Miss Lindstrom a hard fight for the place and touched third only fifteen yards behind her.

Salesians Provincial Returns From Europe

San Francisco, Sept. 13.—The Very Rev. Oreste Trianchieri, S. C., provincial of the Salesian Fathers on the Pacific Coast and pastor of St.
Peter and Paul's Church, has just returned to San Francisco after a threemonth's absence in Europe, where he attended the general chapter of the Salesian Order.

CAPT. STUART J. CLAWSON

Football is in the air. Holy Cross College looks for one of its best years. The Captain of the team this year is Stuart J. Clawson of Bradford, Conn., and he knows the game from A to Z, and how to play it with vim and ginger.

Grid Warriors Getting in Trim For the Season

Niagara University, Canisius and St.
Bonaventure's Have Good Prospects—Fordham Has Hard Schedule
Football warriors at Niagara University, St. Bonaventure's and Canisius—the three Catholic colleges that have made excellent records for themselves in this section of the State—have commenced daily morning and afternoon workouts in their stadiums.
Coach Urban at Canisius has 14 veterans from last year's team, and a lot of new recruits to pick a team from. He expects to have an exceptionally strong team, and to improve upon last year's excellent record.

Niagara's Schedule
St. Bonaventure has eight games booked, three at home, one with Canisius in Buffalo, and one with Fordham in New York. Gridiron relations with Temple and Loyola of Baltimore are being established for the first time, and St. Francis College is on the list again after a two year lapse.
The complete schedule is as follows: September 23, St. Vincent's at home; October 5, Fordham, New York; October 12, Temple, Philadelphia; October 26, St. Francis, Buffalo; November 5, Canisius, Buffalo; November 11, St. Thomas, Syracuse; November 16, Niagara, at home.

New Brokerage Co. Open For Business On East Avenue

The brokerage firm of Wolcott & Stafford, Inc., opened its new offices for business at 364 East Avenue on Tuesday of this week. The firm has been incorporated under the direction of Thomas J. Hargrave, of the law firm of Hubbell, Tappan, Goodwin & Moser, and is chartered to do a general business. James Moore, president of the Snider Packing Company is chairman of the board; Clinton Wolcott is president; George W. Stafford, vice-president and J.
Howard Kidd, secretary.
Directors of the company include the four officers and George C. Oley of the Snider Packing Company; John D. Pike, contractor; Carl E.
Bausch, optician; Roland Lord O'Brien and Walter F. Stafford, both of O'Brien, Potter & Stafford of New York and Buffalo, one of the largest brokerage houses in the state, with membership in the New York Stock and Curb Exchanges. Walter Stafford is a brother of George W.
Stafford. Wolcott & Stafford, Inc., will operate through the facilities of O'Brien, Potter and Stafford.
The stockholders include Edward Harris of the law firm of Harris, Beach & Matson; Harry C. Stevenson, president of the Rochester Feeding Box Company and chairman of the board of the First National Bank & Trust Company; Peter Freedman, auditor of the Snider Packing Company; Joseph F. Weller, president of the Kellogg Manufacturing Company; Herbert Eisenhart, vice-president and general manager of the Beach & Lomb Optical Company; Russell A. Lipscomb, president of the Rochester Manufacturing Supply Company; John M. Propriet of the Snider Packing Co.; William S. Louler, civil engineer; George H. Hawks of the Wellensack Optical Company and Donald Woodward, capitalist, Le Roy.

Other Catholic Colleges Villanova made a wonderful record in football last year. It premiered only to duplicate that record, but to better it for the team has a stronger backfield.
Detroit University stood among the foremost of all college teams last year, and it is building up another great team from its veterans and reserves.
Notre Dame, needless to say, will have a great team. Knute Rockne hasn't got the blues this season—not yet. A new $300,000 stadium is in progress of construction, but won't be ready until 1930. It will seat 56,000 people, and will be the last word in construction and convenience.
