The Little Flower's Greatest Novena

On Wednesday, September 25th, will begin the novena that leads up to the Feast Day of St. Theresa of the Child Jesus, October 3rd. This is the most important as well as the most generally observed of all the Novenas of the Little Flower in the course of the year.

Readers of The Catholic Courier & Journal are invited by the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement to send their petitions to Graymoor to be presented to the Little Flower at her Shrine on the Mount of the Atonement during this Novena.

THANKSGIVINGS RENDERED FOR FAVORS GRANTED THROUGH THE LITTLE FLOWER'S INTERCESSION

Mrs. M. F., Chicago, Ill.—"Last January I fell downstairs backward through a trapdoor in the basement. When I felt myself going and knew I had to strike my head on a cement foundation wall and perhaps break my spine, I called on the Little Flower for help and promised to publish it if I was not crippled. She heard my prayers, thank God, and I am fulfilling my promise to send ofering in thanksgiving. I can do my own work and except for a sore place on my arm, held up fifteen days in bed."

Miss A. M. B.—"Some months ago I made a Novena to the Little Flower asking St. Theresa to obtain the position I desired but had previously sought in vain. Before the completion of my Novena, my wish had been granted. Because I am so grateful to her I am trying to thank her for all the favors I have received from her in the past."

E. McC.—"In June I made the Novena to the Little Flower in union with your Shrine for the first time, asking that I receive a rose of any color if my request was right, and if it would be granted—on the last day after eleven o'clock in the night I received a whole armful of red roses. I now wish to join the next Novena in thanksgiving also giving her to pray for my intentions."

E. C., Hagerstown, Md.—"Enclosed please find five dollars which is a thank offering to the Little Flower of Jesus for not letting my sister be laid off and having continuous work. Also for many other favors which are too numerous to mention. Kindly publish this."

Mrs. M. H., N. Y.—"Enclosed you will find a check for five dollars in honor of the Little Flower as I promised it to her if a request was granted and I also promised to have it published. My husband's salary was reduced which meant a great loss to me so I began a Novena to St. Theresa, promising if his pay was raised again I would send her five dollars of it. Thank God and dear St. Theresa my request was granted. Please publish it as I have such great faith in the dear Little Flower."
