Beloved Couple Honored by Bishop O'Hern

On Thursday, Sept. 19, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gefell of 90 Culver Road, celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage. They are the parents of the Rev. J. Emil Gefell, rector of SS. Peter & Paul's Church, and the Rev. Joseph H. Gefell, rector of Holy Family Church. A third son, the Rev. John Gefell, rector of St. Pius' Church, Cohocton, died a short time ago.

The Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, honored this beloved couple in a special manner. He invited them and their kinsfolk to come to his home on East Avenue, where he celebrated Mass for them in his private chapel, gave them Holy Communion, and had them as his guests at breakfast. The Bishop was assisted by the Rev. J. Emil Gefell and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. J. Nolan, who was a classmate of Father Gefell at the American College Rome, Italy. The Rev. Joseph H. Gefell was out of the city and unable to be present. One of the guests was Mrs. Anna M. Boppel, mother of the Rev. John F. Boppel, rector of St. Boniface's Church, and Mrs. Frank Sellmayer, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Gefell, were also present. The above picture, taken at the celebration, shows the participants in the celebration: Top, left to right, Frank Sellmayer, Msgr. Michael J. Nolan, Mrs. Oscar Fess, Bishop O'Hern, the Rev. J. Emil Gefell; below, Mrs. Anna M. Boppel, Mrs. Gefell, Mrs. Frank Sellmayer and Mrs. Eugene Fess.

BATH Bishop Dedicated Lady of Sorrows Church Sunday

The new Church of Our Lady of Sorrows, at the corner of Niagara and Dake Streets, was dedicated last Sunday by the Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester. A capacity congregation was in attendance, and the day was an eventful one for the pastor, the Rev. Patrick Moffatt, and for his people. Bishop O'Hern celebrated Pontifical Mass, with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, D.D., Vicar General, as assistant priest; Rev. John Duffy, deacon of honor; Rev. Eugene Golding, sub-deacon of honor; Rev. Walter A. Feery, deacon of the Mass; Rev. Edmund O'Brien, sub-deacon; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Andrew B. Moehan, D.D., master-of-ceremonies. The sermon was preached by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Michael J. Nolan, D.D. He paid eloquent tribute to the work that has been done in the parish for the past 14 years, and to the great influence exercised in a most helpful way upon the people by the church. Bishop O'Hern spoke briefly, congratulating heartily the people for the zeal and loyalty they have shown, and the pastor, Father Moffatt, for his successful work. Present in the sanctuary during the service were the Franciscan priests from Aquinas Institute and Rev. Joseph Dilgaj, Rev. Sebastian Sulva, Rev. Adolfo Cabanillo. Five Masses are celebrated in the new church every Sunday, so large has the congregation grown. The church has a seating capacity of 550 people, and the new building will prove a great blessing to all people of the parish.
