Church Honors
Choir Singer
For Fifty Years

Joseph Mura of 37 Weld Street, a member of St. Joseph's Church choir for fifty years, was honored at a Mass of thanksgiving for his long period of service in St. Joseph's Church, Sunday, September 29th, at 10:30. The Rev. John B. Lieberth, C. S. S. R., pastor of St. Joseph's, assisted by other Redemptorist Fathers, celebrated the Mass. The choir gave Mr. Mura a banquet in honor of the occasion on Monday night. Mr. Mura's record is an unusual one, and his friends extend sincere congratulations and good wishes to him.

Dramatic Club Will Give Play Oct. 28, 29, 30

The Dramatic Club of the immaculate Conception Church will present a play, "The End of the Rainbow," in the school auditorium on October 28, 29 and 30. Rehearsals are under way now, and an exceptionally fine production is promised. The Rev. Frederick Wise and Frank A. Wagner are directing the play, and Royden Smith is the property manager. In the cast are the following: Mary L. Skelly, Marie Skelly, Anna Fenessey, Betty Beers, Marian Bradley, Helen Blekirk, Marian Hyde, Olive LeDeau, Margaret Collins, Sarah Hamill, Evelyn Dreschler, Clara Crummins, Lois Enright, William Ryan, Joseph Murphy, Jerry Scanlon, Frank Upton, Jack Lyons. The play will be open to the public, and as the Immaculate Conception Hall is one of the finest in the city, it is expected that there will be big crowds every night of the show.

Ladies' Auxiliary Of St. Monica's Knights St. John

St. Monica's Ladies' Auxiliary No. 164, Knights of St. Joseph, opened its Fall activities with a duck dinner at Concha's recently. Mrs. William H. Rosenbach, president, appointed Mrs. George A. Heidrich chairman, assisted by Mrs. William McDonnell, Mrs. William Cronin, Mrs. Lewis Uppa, Mrs. Irene Robinson, Mrs. Charles Colson. The guests included Mrs. William Rosenbach, president of the auxiliary, Mrs. Frank T. Curtin, president of the Catholic Women's club, Mrs. James J. Callahan, president of the Daughters of Union Veterans of Civil War, Mrs. Minnie Hendrix, president of the Rochester Federation; Mrs. Ann St. H. Angvine, secretary of the Rochester Poetry Club. Remarks were made by each president on the work of their respective club for the year. Mrs. Angvine read an original poem which was afterwards presented to Mrs. Curtin. The table, arranged in the shape of a large E, was beautiful with pink candles, baskets of Autumn flowers and miniature silk flags set in a bronze standard, which were presented to each one present as a souvenir. Mrs. Frank T. Curtin led the opening prayer and Mrs. James J. Callahan led in the salute to the flag.

Niagara Alumni Will Meet Oct. 23 At the Varsity

J. David Enright of Syracuse, President of the Niagara Alumni Association of Niagara University, has issued a call for a meeting of the alumni on Wednesday, October 23, at the Varsity. Every former student of "Old Niagara" is asked to put a purple pencil around that date on the calendar, and be present, if at all possible, at the meeting. Niagara will be 75 years old in 1931. Mr. Enright tells the alumni, and he is anxious to have the members talk over plans for the proper celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of this justly famous institution of Catholic learning. Mr. Enright warns the alumni that they will not see their beloved President of recent years, the Very Rev. Francis J. Doid, C.M., at Niagara, because he has been transferred to the very important position of assistant director of the Sisters of Charity in the Eastern province of the United States. But they will see a beloved old friend, the Very Rev. John J. O'Byrne, C.M., former rector of the school, now the president. Several hundred members of the alumni, lay and clerical, are expected to be present at the meeting on October 23d.

C. Y. M. A. To Hold A Big Barbecue Sunday Afternoon

The Catholic Young Men's Club, under the leadership of its president, Charles Gerstner, will open its fall season activities, Sunday, October 6th, with a Barbecue at Bulholtz Plaza, Pittsford. The feature of the day will be a ball game between Al Logan's Irish Purries and Duk Frank's Dutch team. A membership campaign, with Ida Dwyer as chairman, is now under way. Membership is open to all Catholic young men of the city. Louis J. Kuhn is chairman of the Barbecue Committee, and "Red" Schoeneman has charge of the Transportation; Gerald Hartman, Fred Bauer and Walter Mura, refreshments; Duke Frank and Al Logan, sports; Charles Gerstner, Hermin Schulte and Eustace Leinen Judas.

Perpetual Help Society Meeting Well Attended

Nazareth Academy Alumnae Supper On October 7th

Approximately 2,000 invitations have been sent to the alumnae of Nazareth Academy for the supper and annual fall meeting of the Alumnae Association, to be held Monday evening, October 7th at the Academy. An effort has been made to reach every alumna of the academy, but through any error or change of address, a member of the association does not receive her invitation. It is requested that she will please notify Miss Rosemary Elciman, secretary of the alumnae, 433 Maplewood Avenue, Glenwood 4889. The supper will be in charge of Miss Rhea Wald of Rockingham Street.

Sauerkraut Supper At Parish House, Wednesday, Oct. 9th

On Wednesday evening, October 9th, a sauerkraut supper will be held at the parish house of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, for the benefit of the church. Mrs. J. J. Statt, chairman of the supper, and she will be assisted by a large committee of ladies of the church. The supper is open to the public, and everybody is invited. Rochester went to a Princeton tailor who is the leading American authority on university fashions, and whose ideas are adopted by the best dressed undergraduates at that college. On the four models secured from these sources Tailor Guild of Rochester builds its entire range of clothing. Its product is manufactured in a manner comparable to that of a merchant shop, with merchant ideals of quality and execution, operated however, on a vast and efficient scale. The new Sibley, Lindsay & Curr Co. store for men is one of the first retail establishments in the country to present these clothes by Tailor Guild of Rochester.

Officers Elected By Hibernians Of the County

Joseph F. Redding Succeeds Martin K. Fenelon as President—Rev. Charles J. Bruton County Chaplain

At the recent County Convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Monroe County the following officers were elected for the next two years:

County President, Joseph F. Redding; vice pres., Patrick J. O'Hara; recording secretary, Eugene Lennon; financial secretary, John McElhannon; treasurer, Martin J. Walsh; county chaplain, Rev. Charles J. Bruton; chairman of Irish history, Martin K. Fenelon. The retiring County President, Martin K. Fenelon, expressed his deep appreciation of the loyal support which all branches of the organization gave his administration during the past eight years, and he spoke for his successor the same loyalty and support. The election of Father Bruton as County Chaplain created a scene of great enthusiasm, and the outgoing county president was instructed to convey to the Rt. Rev. Bishop, through the Vicar General, an expression of the Convention's gratitude for the favor conferred on them.

A. O. H. Auxiliary Favors a Tablet For Non-Catholics

Pawtucket, R. I., Oct. 4.—Provision of a tablet honoring Dwight and Martha Wilkinson for their gift of the land on which old St. Mary's Church was built, 100 years ago, was advocated at a meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary, Ancient Order of Hibernians, held here recently.

The church, now called Immaculate Conception, was the first built in Rhode Island, and was made possible by the observance of Wilkinson according to history. He, early in 1828, noticed a group of Irish Catholics walking in the woods every Sunday, although a non-Catholic himself, thought it strange that they should show religious worship on Sunday. He questioned them, and their leader explained that they went into the forest to say their prayers, because lack of a church made celebration of Mass impossible.

Wilkinson was so moved by their story that he deeded to Bishop Benedict Fenwick, of Boston, whose jurisdiction at that time comprised the six New England States, the tract of land on which the present church stands.

Bishop Fenwick received the deed, which also was signed by Wilkinson's wife, in August of 1828. He also learned that there were 200 Catholics in Pawtucket and its environs who were eager to obtain the services of a priest. The Bishop then detached Father Woodley to the village, and plans for the new church went forward. The edifice was completed in November of that year at a cost of $1,200.

St. Francis, L.C.B.A. Will Hold a Party On Monday Evening

St. Francis Xavier Branch, No. 186, L. C. B. A., will hold a card party and variety shower in the parlors hall, Bay Street, opposite Third Street, next Monday evening, October 7th. Prizes and refreshments will be worth while, and the party is open to the public. A pleasant time awaits all guests.

Knights On West Coast Adopt a New Program

San Francisco, Oct. 4.—At the conclusion of one of the most important and largest attended gatherings of state district deputies and knights of Columbus in the California district, a new program was adopted that will affect the activities of some 30,000 members of the order on the Pacific Coast.

The program, prepared by Robert A. Mackenzie, State Deputy, is declared to be the most solid and progressive submitted before a body of knights in this state in years. It declares for the "Widening of Catholic interest" for "the advancement on a large scale of the revival movement;" for a stiffening of the morale of councils; for a strengthening of the powers of district deputies over their respective councils; for the education of Catholic lay men in the history and the works of their church; for the distribution of Catholic truth matter to non-Catholics; the hearty support of the state employment bureau; finding employment for knights out of work; or a careful scrutiny of legislation both national and state, affecting the welfare of Catholic citizens; for the welfare and the saving of delinquent youth; for participation by council members in athletics, state hospitalization and state home commemoration of the dead and celebration of national holidays.

5,000 Masses Said In Her House In War

Paris, Oct. 4.—Chateau-Thierry has just lost one of its well-to-do inhabitants, Mile. Jousaume-Latour, who remained in the town during the war and, with the approbation of the Bishop of Soissons, placed her house at the disposal of soldier priests. More than 5,000 Masses were celebrated in her drawing-room during the war.

After Seven Hundred Years St. Anthony Is Still the Wonder-Worker of Padua

"Seven Hundred Long Years has St. Anthony's Name Round the Mediterranean Kindled love's flame, and now he has come with St. Francis to cheer Men's Hearts and Gain Souls by his Miracles Here."
Nowhere is this more in evidence than at GRAYMOOR, the Home of the Franciscan Friars and Sisters of the Atonement, situated amid the Highlands of the Hudson fifty miles north of New York City. At Graymoor on top the Mount of the Atonement is located what has come to be recognized more and more as the most popular of St. Anthony in America.

A new Novena to the Franciscan Wonder-Worker begins every Tuesday. The Graymoor Fathers have received more than Ten Thousand testimonials from clients of St. Anthony who have patronized this Novena, and received favorable answers to their petitions.

THANKSGIVINGS FOR FAVORS RECEIVED THROUGH THE INTERCESSION OF SAINT ANTHONY

Mrs. M. E. H., Youngstown, Ohio. "I have received a wonderful answer to a request made through the Novena to Saint Anthony. My son secured work and by doing so was separated from companions who were proving his undoing. I also think that his desire to abstain from drink has been strengthened. Conditions would have to be understood thoroughly to realize what a wonderful favor this is. I enclose the offering promised and will always have confidence in Saint Anthony."

Mrs. C. H., Washington, D. C.—"Enclosed find an offering for two favors received through the intercession of Saint Anthony. My health has been restored and I have been very successful in keeping my apartments rented."

Mr. P. B., Coatesville, Penna.—"Thanks to Saint Anthony's intercession my son has come back to the church and has overcome his fondness for drink."

M. C. H., Rockaway Park, L. I.—"Within an hour after promulgating an offering and publication, I found an error in my books which I had been trying to find for several months. I shall always be grateful to the good Saint Anthony."

Mrs. W. J. D., Montreal, Quebec.—"Sometime ago I wrote requesting that you would pray to St. Anthony that my husband who had been out of work for a year would speedily obtain a position. Debts were piling up and there did not seem to be any suitable work in sight. Thanks to good St. Anthony my husband has obtained a position that is putting us on our feet again. I am happy to enclose an offering in gratitude to good St. Anthony who is ever ready to help us."

Clients to the Wonder-Worker of Padua who wish to participate in St. Anthony's Graymoor Novena should send their petitions to the address given below, and every day during the Novena. It is further recommended that they visit the Statue of St. Anthony in their parish church or pray before his picture or statue in their own home; also, if possible, receive Holy Communion at least once during the course of the Novena. Prayers appropriate for the Novena will be sent upon request without charge.
