$10,000 In Prizes Offered To Friends and Readers Of This Paper in Campaign

Club now and get started immediately, for there is a special purse of $100 that will be given to the person who obtains the largest total of vote-credits before 10:00 P. M., November 14. This subscription drive begins at once and closes on December 21, 1929. All you have to do to join is to telephone, Main 3761, or write a letter or postal card to the Subscription Club Department, Catholic Courier and Journal, Room No. 50, Reynolds Arcade, 18 Main Street East. The Club Chairman will be pleased to meet those who are interested in the drive at any time, and Club Headquarters will be open from 9 A. M. until 9 P. M., each evening, except Sunday.

Detailed instructions and free easy-to-read printed matter will be sent promptly upon request.

Field Unbiased

No matter where you reside, you can be a worker and probably a winner. You can win $2,000 cash easily! Being an active member of the Club will not interfere with your business or pleasure, for you can speak to your friends and acquaintances about this paper whenever and wherever you meet them. Every person joining the Club has a real opportunity to win. You may work anywhere for subscriptions. You are not limited to any territory. The $2,000 in cash, the four automobiles, and the $200 purse are to be given as grand awards to the six persons turning in the largest total of vote-credits during the campaign, irrespective of district or parish. The six $100 cash prizes are offered, one to each district.

Our Club drive offers a congenial and easy way for any energetic man or woman to advance the Apostolate of the Catholic Press, and at the same time earn for himself or herself a sum, which under ordinary circumstances, would take many years of self-denial and strife to accumulate.

Prospects on All Sides

There is a saying in our Circulation Office that since the Catholic

Courier and Journal has become the official organ of the Diocese that the newspaper practically sells itself. Therefore, the members of our Club will not have hard work to get subscriptions. They will simply gather them in on all sides by asking the more than 40,000 Catholic families in the Diocese of Rochester to subscribe.

At the Supreme Pontiff's of the Church have been saying with increasing emphasis in the last few years, the need of a vigilant Catholic paper in every Catholic home is one that can no longer be disregarded. We therefore, take as our slogan "THE CATHOLIC COURIER AND JOURNAL IN EVERY CATHOLIC HOME IN THE DIOCESE OF ROCHESTER." We feel confident that we will go a great way towards reaching this goal through the combined efforts of the clergy and laity, and in return we shall be pleased to give these awards, aggregating $10,000 in value, for such responsive efforts as we have a right to anticipate. The Catholic Courier and Journal is expressly intended to meet the needs of the Catholic people of this great section of the Empire State. In addition to the comprehensive but succinct survey of all the important Catholic news gathered by trained correspondents, the Catholic Courier and Journal mirrors, week by week, the life of our people here at home and it strives through its editorial page and contributions of brilliant and internationally famed writers to interpret the news and guide the thoughts of busy readers.

Just to Make Friends

Many friends have watched its steady growth with interest, and we are sure their friends will agree with us that this is the most propitious time to increase our family of readers. Because of the cost of the campaign, the expense of awards offered, and the additional help that must be engaged to keep the records and assist members of the Club, the Catholic Courier and Journal will not make money, but it does expect to make thousands of new friends and that is the reason for this undertaking. We need more readers. We need our friends, and the Catholics of the Diocese will, we are sure, appreciate the Catholic Courier and Journal, and will be glad that they joined our growing army of readers. Are you with us?

Club Districts

The territory is divided into 6 districts for the purpose of insuring an even distribution of the minor awards. Members may obtain subscription anywhere, irrespective of district.

Holy Rosary Feast Observed Sunday, Oct. 13

Solemn and Beautiful Services Will Be Held in the Holy Rosary Church in Celebration of Patronal Feast

On Sunday, October 13th, the solemnity of the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary, the Patronal Feast of the Church, will be celebrated with all the rich ceremonies of the liturgy proper to the Feast, at Holy Rosary Church, Lexington Ave., of which the Rev. Arthur A. Hughes is Pastor. The Feast of the Most Holy Rosary, one of the greatest feasts of the Church, really occurs on Monday, October 7th, but its solemnity is transferred and celebrated on the following Sunday. Each year, Holy Rosary Church, named in honor of this great prerogative of the Blessed Virgin Mary, is crowded with people, especially at the Solemn High Mass. The Altars and the Sanctuary, so beautifully and artistically decorated in honor of the Feast, have always attracted hundreds of people. And this year the preparations that have been made for the Feast will not disappoint the hundreds who will come from all over the city to visit Holy Rosary Church on its Feast day.

It has been customary every year to hold a Triduum or a three-day Retreat at Holy Rosary Church before the Feast. This year the retreat opened on Wednesday evening, October 9th, at 7:45, and is conducted by an Oblate Father, the Reverend D. J. Moriarty, O.M.L., of Seattle, Washington. Father Moriarty, one of the best known speakers of the Order, will preach each evening at the services which begin promptly at 7:45. Confessions will be heard each evening after the services, beginning Wednesday, and each afternoon from 3 to 6, beginning Thursday. On Sunday morning, as has been customary in past years, the whole congregation will receive Holy Communion.

On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock there will be a Solemn High Mass commemorating the solemnity of the Feast. The Rev. Father Olaus Franciscan Father, will be celebrant of the Mass, assisted by two deacons from St. Bernard's Seminary, as deacon and subdeacon. Martin Cullen will be Master of Ceremonies; George Jost, assistant Master of Ceremonies; Paul Schmidt, thurifer; and Richard Torney and Brian Manning, acolytes. The priests of the Parish, and the inmates attending St. Andrew's Seminary from the parish, will be in the Sanctuary. Father Moriarty will deliver the sermon at this Mass, taking for his topic a subject befitting the occasion.

I ASK YOU!

Why is Jacob's famous coat surviving the insupportable onslaughts of time? Because it had color and pep! That is exactly the reason why PERSONALITY CLOTHES go merrily on stirring up excitement in all communities where men are young men! How about it, young men?
