St. John's Church Has Forty Hours, With Procession

A Forty-Hours' devotion was opened in St. John the Evangelist's Church at 11 o'clock last Sunday morning, with a procession by children of the parish. There was a large congregation present. At the evening service the Rev. Walter A. Foery, rector of Mt. Carmel Church, preached the sermon, taking for his subject "The Blessed Sacrament." He was heard with appreciation and profit by a capacity congregation. Recitation of the Rosary and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament closed the services.

Several Types of Well-Known Makes of Gas Ranges to Select From

The design features of each of the makes of gas ranges that we carry are substantially different.

There is no good reason that we know of why one's personal taste in a matter of design should not be catered to in selling gas ranges, same as it is catered to in the selling of household furniture generally.

HAVE YOU SEEN OUR LINE OF GAS RANGES?

If not, we would be glad to have you pay us a visit. You will not be urged to buy. We just want you to know. The goods and service will do the rest. Black Japan to full enamel finishes.

Catholic Women Doing Fine Work For Iola Children

The Iola Group of the Catholic Women's Club is doing fine work at Iola Sanatorium this year. Ninety-two children, patients at Iola, were presented for religious instruction to the ladies of the group by the Chaplain, the Rev. Eugene Golding. A few other children were too ill to come to the classrooms, and these were visited in the dormitories by the ladies. The work will be kept up regularly.

Mrs. Anthony J. Ryan is chairman of the group, and assisting her are Mrs. T. F. McNamara, Mrs. Ray Berghold, Mrs. M. H. Kough, Mrs. John G. White, Mrs. Edward J. Reynolds, Miss Lily Host.

Aquinas Alumni Memorial Mass Well Attended

Nearly 200 members of Aquinas Institute Alumni Association and 30 women graduates of the old Cathedral High School attended the annual memorial Mass for deceased graduates at the school Sunday morning. The Mass was celebrated by Rev. Albert Geiger of the class of 1915.

After the Mass, breakfast was served in the cafeteria, and a program was enjoyed. Speakers included Joseph J. Doran, president; Father Golger, George J. Nier, William E. McCarthy, William Lang and Mortimer Leary, basketball coach.

St. Lucy's School Exercises Held On Armistice Day

Appropriate exercises were held in St. Lucy's School, Troup and Tilden Streets, on Armistice Day. The Rev. Benedict Maselli, rector of the church presided and introduced City Councilman Joseph L. Guzzetta and Rev. Adolph Gambino as speakers. After a program by the pupils, the exercises were concluded with a tribute to the unknown soldier and transfer of the flag from Adelina Mazzanotte, who was guardian last year, to Rita Dally.

The program was as follows: Chorus, "America, the Beautiful"; "When the Flag Goes By," third and fourth grade boys; "Our Lady of the Flag," fifth and sixth grades; "America," second and third grade girls; "Blue Plus Gray Makes Khaki" third and fourth grade girls; "Hail to the Soldier Boy," second and third grade boys; "The Unknown Soldier," Joseph Bigron; transfer of the flag, "The Star-Spangled Banner," entire school.

ST. ANTHONY WORKS WONDERS FOR HIS CLIENTS

"The sea obeys and fetters break, And lifeless limbs thou dost restore, Whilst treasures lost are found again, When young or old thine aid implore."

These words composed by St. Bonaventure, a contemporary of St. Anthony of Padua, have been echoed by millions of Catholics during the past seven hundred years out of the conviction of the Wonder-Working Power of St. Anthony.

The best known Shrine of the Saint in America is that of the Graymoor Friars on the Mount of the Atonement.

By participating in the Perpetual Novena to St. Anthony conducted by the Graymoor Fathers—a new Novena every Tuesday—thousands upon thousands of the clients of the Wonder-Worker of Padua have obtained their petitions. WHY NOT YOU?

THANKSGIVINGS FOR FAVORS RECEIVED THROUGH ST. ANTHONY'S INTERCESSION

Mrs. M. B. Indiana—"Please accept this offering in thanksgiving to St. Anthony for a great favor received through his intercession. My wife started a novena on Tuesday asking that I obtain work in one of the mines near home as I had to drive a distance of over eighty miles each day to the work I was doing. On the next day I worked at the mine I had wanted to work in and just the job I had wanted. My wife promised an offering from my first week's pay so I am sending it today and if you have space in 'The Lamp' please publish it as the promise my wife made."

Mrs. S. H. Parsons, Kans—"I am enclosing an offering which I have promised to send each year for the restoration of my little daughter's health. During the past year there has been a great improvement, due I am sure, to St. Anthony's intercession. I take this means of thanking him and showing my gratitude."

A. E. F., New York City, N. Y.—"I promised a donation if through St. Anthony's intercession I received a steady position, so I am enclosing the amount promised. After praying to St. Anthony for a couple of days I seem to have walked right into my present position. I promised publication in 'The Lamp,' so will you please publish at your earliest convenience."

M. D. Q., Vallejo, Cal—"Please have Masses said in honor of St. Anthony as a thanks offering for a favor received. I promised I would send this offering if he would ask God to restore my daughter's health. She had only one chance of recovering from an operation and thanks to our Heavenly Father she has fully recovered and is now enjoying the best of health. Please publish."

J. O. F.—"Our house was without a tenant for several months. I asked St. Anthony to find someone to rent the place. I am enclosing an offering from the first month's rent as I promised St. Anthony that I would do so if my request was granted."

No offering is asked. Simply address

St. Andrew House To Have a Party On November 18th

Great preparations are being made for the big card party to be held in the Nurses' Home at St. Mary's Hospital next Monday evening, November 18th, for the benefit of the St. Andrew House, home of the non-resident students who are at St. Andrew's Preparatory Seminary here. A big crowd is expected.

St. Margaret Mary Church Plans Play November 20 to 22

Members of the new Church of St. Margaret Mary on Rogers Parkway will give their first dramatic production, "A Regiment of Two," in Grange Hall, Titus Avenue, November 20, 21 and 22, for the benefit of the church.

The play will be staged under the direction of Claude L. Roosevelt with Vera Schmitt, Virginia Flaherty, Rheta Wagner, Madeline Roosevelt, Stephen Flaherty, Charles Suss, Dick Wilhelm, Ed Mueller, Raymond Dick and Joseph Trenkler in the cast.

Extensive preparation are being made to give a high-class and entertaining production, and the play is sure to attract a big crowd on all three nights. It is open to everybody, men, women and children, and the admission charge will be reasonable.

Aquinas Alumni To Give Comedy Monday Evening

Next Monday evening the Aquinas Alumni Association will present the comedy drama, "The Meanest Man in the World," in Aquinas Institute auditorium.

A cast of Aquinas graduates and Nazareth Academy graduates is preparing for the presentation under the direction of Joseph M. Schmitzer, director of dramatics at Aquinas.

Mary B. Jennings and Catherine Ryan have the leading feminine roles in the play. Lawrence J. Hughes has the leading male part. Others in the cast are Leon J. Ceeli, Charles J. Keller, Sylvester M. Gartland, William A. Lang, Mary Eva Henner, Mary Buelte, Walter J. Corcoran, Henry T. McLaughlin and Thomas Slove. The play is open to the public, men and women, and all friends of Aquinas Institute are cordially invited to attend.

Holy Redeemer Sodality Party On November 21

The Sacred Heart Sodality of Holy Redeemer Church will hold its last card party of the Fall season in Holy Redeemer Hall, corner Clifford and Hudson avenues, on Thursday evening, Nov. 21st, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

Bridge, pinochle, Pedro, 500, will be played, there will be a prize for each table, and tickets for the party are only 50 cents. The proceeds will be used for badly needed supplies for St. Andrew House, where about 30 students are making their home, with the Rev. Edward M. Lyons as chaplain. Everybody is invited to attend the party next Monday evening, men and women, and the young ladies in charge of it are hoping that the party will be a great success.

Redeemer Hall, corner Clifford and Hudson avenues, on Thursday evening, Nov. 21st, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

Bridge, pinochle, Pedro, 500 and other games will be played, and the admission charge will be only 35 cents. A good time awaits everybody who comes, and a general invitation is extended to all members and all friends of the parish to be present, men and women. Refreshment will be served.
