Thanksgiving Bazaar
For Annunciation
Church Nov. 28th

The annual Thanksgiving Bazaar for the benefit of the Church of the Annunciation, Norton Street, near North Goodman, will be held on Thanksgiving Day, November 28th, and will be continued Friday evening and Saturday afternoon and evening, in the Church hall, opening at 8 P. M. Many useful and beautiful articles will be on sale, and there will be booths for blankets, candy, cakes, parcel post, fish pond and refreshments.

The receipts of the bazaar will be used to reduce the debt on the church, and for the spiritual needs of many poor families. The Rev. George J. Weismann, pastor of the church, cordially invites all his friends to attend and help the poorest church in Rochester to succeed in its work for a great many poor families. Everybody will be welcome to the bazaar. Ladies and gentlemen, and it will be a delightful place in which to spend a few hours on Thanksgiving evening or on Friday or Saturday.

Religious Imagery
And Liturgy School
Founded in Paris

Paris, Nov. 15.—Upon private initiative, a center of study or superior school of religious imagery and Christian liturgy will be opened this month in Paris. The school is intended for the education of painters, sculptors, costumers, jewelers, architects, etc. Its originator, Mrs. Louise Chabroux, will direct it. She has been assured the assistance of professors, decorators, costumers, cutlery, lacemakers and others interested in such art.

Both motion pictures and living models will be pressed into service in portraying to the students the costumes that are being studied.
