PARISH ACTIVITIES

Nocturnal Society Members Will Meet Saturday, Nov. 30

Members of the Nocturnal Adoration Society will meet in Lady Chapel, at St. Patrick's Cathedral, on Saturday evening this week, beginning promptly at 10 o'clock. The first group will remain at the Chapel from 10 to 11, the second group from 11 to midnight, and each group for one hour until 6 o'clock in the morning. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed on the altar throughout the night.

A large number of new members will be received into the society Saturday evening. These will meet in Lady Chapel promptly at 9:30 to be received, and will remain for the first hour's adoration, from 10 to 11 P. M. Notices have been sent to all members in regard to the special hours designated for each group.

The society, organized a few weeks ago, is growing very rapidly. Membership is open to all Catholic men, and is not limited to any particular parish. More than 200 members joined last month. There are no regular dues attached to membership. The members however usually make a free-will offering whenever they come for their hour of adoration.

Collection Sunday For the Catholic U. In All Churches

A special collection will be taken up Sunday in all churches in the Diocese for the Catholic University at Washington, D. C., and the Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, is hopeful that a most generous offering will be made by the people of this Diocese.

The Catholic University is dear to the hearts of the hierarchy of the Church in America, and the collections taken up in the various dioceses of the country enable it to do work that has made it one of the great universities of the land. A thoughtful and generous contribution from every man and woman, and from children whose parents can afford it, will provide a substantial sum from the Diocese of Rochester, and will gladden the heart of Bishop O'Hern.

Perpetual Help Society Meeting Well Attended

The Perpetual Help Society held a well attended meeting in St. Mary's Hospital on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. E. J. Hartel was chairman of the hostesses, and was assisted by Mrs. William Gropp, Mrs. Martin Fitzpatrick, Mrs. James J. Frank, Mrs. F. W. Granger, Mrs. John Cysel, Mrs. James P. Guillen, Mrs. Charles Gerner, Mrs. B. Ginnily, Mrs. Joseph Gorstner, Mrs. Frank Fink and Mrs. Edward F. Garvey.

Forty Hours Opens At the Cathedral On December 1st

A Forty-Hours devotion will be opened in St. Patrick's Cathedral with a solemn high Mass at 11 o'clock on Sunday morning. Sunday is the first Sunday of Advent, the beginning of a new church year, and it has been customary for many years to open the new year in the Cathedral with a Forty-Hours.

The Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, will carry the Blessed Sacrament in solemn procession at the opening of the devotion. The Blessed Sacrament will remain exposed on the altar on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, and until 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, when the Forty Hours will come to a close.

Services will be held on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings, at 7:45 each evening, and there will be recitation of the Rosary, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and sermon each evening by the Rev. Victor Mills, O.F.M., of Aquinas Institute. Indulgences may be obtained at the Forty Hours as follows: Plenary indulgence, to all who having made a good confession and received Holy Communion visit the church where the devotion of the Forty-Hours is celebrated and spend some time in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, and also pray for the intention of the Holy Father. The Plenary Indulgence can be gained only once during the days of the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

A Partial Indulgence of 10 years, 10 months and 40 days can be gained each time by all who visit the church during the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and pass some time in prayer. These indulgences are applicable to the souls in purgatory. All altars in the church of the exposition are privileged with the Blessed Sacrament is exposed.

GROUND BROKEN FOR NEW CHURCH ON MT. HOPE AVE.

Ground was broken last week for a new Catholic church on Mt. Hope Avenue, at Lattimore Boulevard, and work on the construction of the building will be pushed rapidly. It will be a temporary structure, but comfortable and substantial.

The erection of the church is in charge of the Rev. John J. Boppel of St. Boniface Church, and it will be a mission church in the St. Boniface parish for a time.

Application for permit for a gas station near the site of the new church was objected to this week by the Rev. George J. Schmitt and a delegation from St. Boniface parish, appearing before the Zoning Board. The Board deferred action, to make a personal survey of the situation.

Fourth Degree To Be Conferred On April 27th

The Fourth Degree of the Knights of Columbus will be exemplified in the Columbus Building in this city on Sunday afternoon, April 27, 1930. Candidates will come from all Assemblies of the Fourth Degree in this district, which embraces Rochester, Syracuse, Oswego, Fulton, Canandaigua, Geneva, Waterloo, Seneca Falls, Auburn, Elmira and Newark.

The decision to confer the degree was made at a conference of officers of the various Fourth Degree Assemblies in Seneca Falls last week, with John F. Barrett of Syracuse, master of this District, presiding. Rochester Assembly was represented by Faithful Navigator C. J. Statt, Fred J. Mix, R. Frank Quinn, Charles Geyer, C. Vincent Wisner and Dr. Walter B. O'Neill.

Diocese Buys Barbour Home For Carmelites

The Diocese of Rochester has purchased the former home of the Rev. Clarence A. Barbour, President of Brown University, 151 Saratoga Avenue, as a home for the Carmelite nuns, who will come to Rochester in the near future at the request of the Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester.

The house has a frontage of 110 feet on Saratoga Avenue. It is a two-story, twelve-room frame structure and is modern throughout.

Not more than eight or ten sisters are expected to come to Rochester with the opening of the convent. The order is a cloistered one, and its members spend their lives in prayer and penance.

There are two Rochester girls who are members of the Carmelite order. One is the sister of the Rev. George Kalb, assistant pastor of St. Andrew's Church, and the other is Miss Mary Antisdale, daughter of the late Louis M. Antisdale, formerly editor of the Rochester Herald.

Within the next few days the Rt. Rev. Magr. Michael J. Nohrn, chancellor of the Rochester diocese, will go to Morristown, N. J., to witness the taking of the final vows of the order by Miss Antisdale.

Mission to Open On Next Sunday In St. Andrew's

A two weeks' Mission will begin in St. Andrew's Church, Portland Avenue, Sunday evening, December 1st, at 7:45 o'clock.

The Mission will be given by the Rev. John Murphy and the Rev. Henry Sipeel, Redemptorist Fathers. Simultaneously with the beginning of the Mission, the patronal feast of the Church will be observed with a Solemn High Mass at 10:45 o'clock in the morning.

The first week of the Mission will be for the women of the parish and the second week, starting Sunday, Dec. 8th, for the men.

Nazareth Academy Alumnae Planning Party Saturday

The Nazareth Alumnae Association will hold its big annual card party in the ballroom of the Columbus Club Saturday afternoon this week. Bridge will be played, and 500 and pedro. Distinctive prizes will be offered.

Mrs. Arch Martin is general chairman of arrangements; Miss Ruth Guinan is chairman of cards; Mrs. Amy LaVigne Hutchinson of prizes; Miss Louise Muesel, of tickets; Mrs. William F. Miller, of decorations, and Mrs. E. R. Shaughnessy and Mrs. F. C. Moser, of advertising. All Alumnae, and all friends of the school are invited to attend.

Catholic Charities To Get $400,000 Of Cleveland Fund

Cleveland, Nov. 29.—Catholic hospitals and other welfare institutions will receive more than $400,000 from this year's community chest fund, canvassing for which got under way Monday and will continue until November 26th. The goal is $4,650,000, the largest in ten years the fund has been in existence.

The Rt. Rev. Joseph Schrembs, Bishop of Cleveland, was one of three speakers at the public mass meeting in Music hall Sunday afternoon.

French Register Of Births, Insists On Saints' Names

Paris, Nov. 29.—A young father of a family—the son of a French senator—appeared the other day at the mairie of his district in Paris to register the birth of a son. He gave as the infant's name that of Vianney.

As this name does not appear in the calendar of saints, the civil officer refused to accept it for registration. The functionaries of such civil offices are instructed to register only the names of saints, and to dismiss all names of fantasy such as some parents select for their children.

"But," the father insisted, "it is precisely the name of a saint. It is the name of the Cure d'Arns."

"You will have to bring me a certificate from your pastor to the effect that Vianney is a truly the name of a saint," the officer replied. "If you do that I shall gladly enter it as your son's Christian name."

This was done and the child has been officially recorded as "Vianney."

Bigotry Is Found In All Ages, Says Bishop McDevitt

York, Pa., Nov. 29.—Intolerance and narrow mindedness belong to no one age or people, but are found in mankind everywhere and at all times, the Rt. Rev. Philip H. McDevitt, D.D., Bishop of Harrisburg, declared in an address delivered before the Catholic Woman's Club here recently.

Bishop McDevitt, speaking on the subject, "Present and Past," gave to the club an answer to the question, "Are the people of modern times justified in boasting they are more enlightened than the people of the past?"

Bishop McDevitt gave many illustrations to show that intolerance, narrow mindedness, superstition, hostility to progress, unwillingness to change the old for the new, and persecution for conscience's sake, do not belong to one age, one century, one race, or one nation, but characterize human-kind everywhere and at all times.

"The recognition of this important truth," he concluded, "should make people of today slow to hold up to scorn those who have lived in the past, as if they were exclusively intolerant, ignorant, superstitious and reactionary, especially as it is not improbable that generations to come will speak of the 19th and 20th centuries, in spite of their great achievements, in pretty much the same fashion as we refer to the middle ages and other supposedly backward periods in the history of mankind."

Share of $60,000 For Archbishop Edward J. Hanna

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—John Quinn of this city, who died in 1928, left an estate of 50,000, bequeathing the bulk of it to be divided equally between the Most Rev. Edward J. Hanna, D.D., Archbishop of San Francisco, and three Catholic institutions. Eamon de Valera, Irish patriot, is bequeathed $1,000.

The final distribution of the estate has been ordered by Superior Judge Graham of this city, and the heirs will soon receive the bequests designated for them.

Nazareth College Sophomores Give Party for Freshmen

On Tuesday afternoon, from 3 to 6 o'clock, the Sophomore Class of Nazareth College entertained the Freshmen at a Novelty Party. Miss Neary, the Sophomore president, was assisted by the following: Miss Mary Leary and Miss Elsie Strehler, chairman of the arrangement committee; Miss Margaret Smith, chairman of prize committee; Miss Marion O'Neil, chairman of the refreshment committee.

The Sophomores took the opportunity to congratulate the recently elected officers of the Freshman Class.

Optimistic Thanks to God

We thank You for the plentiful Harvest,
From Your waving fields of Grain,
Colored gold with dazzling Sunshine,
Nurtured by soft and mellow Rain.

We thank You for the pretty Flowers,
That for us will bloom again,
And when not here to see them,
We'll sing this sweet refrain,
Angelic Chorus

We thank You for Our Saviour
Whose Life we tried to appreciate,
No words that we can utter,
Describe the Grandeur of Your Domain.

Note:
The writer is very optimistic about the future, owing to President Hoover's clerical call to the big interests to sustain industrial life. They have responded with alacrity, and are now strengthening the weak parts. While labor is not 100 per cent, it is holding its own.
