THE SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH IN THE ROCHESTER DIOCESE AND THEIR WORK FOR 75 YEARS

Second Installment Tells of the Founding of St. Mary's Orphan Asylum, The Coming of the First Sisters to the City, and Bishop McQuaid's Co-Operation.

(History of the Sisters of St. Joseph in Rochester, continued from last week.) Rochester had responded nobly to the call for volunteers during the four years of the war.

At the bishop's request, Mother Magdalen Weaver, then in charge of the congregation in Buffalo, appointed four Sisters for the new foundation.

The Loziers Won A Snappy Game From Sherwoods

The Lozier Football Team played the Sherwoods at No. 16 school playground last week and won a score of 23 to 13. It was a hard and snappy game, featuring a number of spectacular runs, unexpected but consistent huddles and damaged fenders. But it was snappy football over the whole.
