

Swiss President

JEAN MUSY

Frank Ward O'Malley, author and journalist, wiped the dust of America off his feet a few months ago and took his family to Switzerland to live.

Mexico Returns Cathedral Records. Mexico City, Jan. 17.—Acting under instructions from the attorney general of the Republic, the agent of the Federal Public Ministry recently broke the seals by which the cathedral records of Mexico City had been closed.

Spiritual Exercises. And Lay Retreats. Approved by Pope. (Continued from Page One)

Uncontained, it scatters itself below and is lost. The Power of Retreats. "From all this it is clear that retreats are remarkably adapted to the development of the natural and the supernatural man."

An interesting financial battle is now being waged between Babe Ruth, the moth of swat and Colonel Jacob Ruppert, owner of the New York Yankees. The latter offers Ruth a $75,000 contract for one year.

Niagara is beginning two weeks crowded with action. Tonight they meet St. Lawrence and next week encounter Buffalo, Clarkson and Alfred. They then take on Hobart and the U. of R.

Grid Stars Offered Heavy Summer Jobs. Santa Clara, Jan. 17.—Football players have been offered summer employment on the new $250,000 dormitory for the University of Santa Clara.

St. Bonaventure's Football Team Will Play Holy Cross. Olean, Jan. 17.—St. Bonaventure's football team will open the 1930 season on September 7 playing Holy Cross at Worcester, Mass.

Rev. P. F. Cusik, Canisius Head, Goes to Auriesville. The Rev. Edward C. Phillips, S.J., Provincial of Maryland-North York province, has named the Rev. P. F. Cusik, S. J., director of the Shrine of the North American Martyrs at Auriesville, N. Y.

French Academy Awards Catholic Writers Prizes. Paris, Jan. 17.—Catholic writers have been particularly honored in the Academie Francaise in its recent distribution of prizes at its annual impressive ceremony.

Sports Tid-Bits

By JOHN LAUMER

Let's snoop around the freshmen teams at the various colleges and see how many familiar faces we notice. Up in Windsor, Ontario, at Assumption College we find Matt Gannon, Cleveland, and Frankie Grestad and Louis Grestad of East High school perform for Billy McCarthy's undefeated yearlings.

Niagara Prosh will show here again Thursday night when they stack up against Jack Curran, R. L. Varsity outfit on the basketball gymnasium floor. The Falls Vikings took the mountain, the yearlings institute five last week and are favored to maintain their unblemished record at the expense of the pushers.

Rene De Vos, Belgian midget weight, is circulating the news that if he defeats Mickey Walker for the championship, King Albert will make him a knight.

His splendid physique and generally sound constitution stood Gene Tunney, retired heavyweight champion in good stead Monday when he underwent a serious operation for a kidney ailment.

Niagara is beginning two weeks crowded with action. Tonight they meet St. Lawrence and next week encounter Buffalo, Clarkson and Alfred.

Grid Stars Offered Heavy Summer Jobs. Santa Clara, Jan. 17.—Football players have been offered summer employment on the new $250,000 dormitory for the University of Santa Clara.

St. Bonaventure's Football Team Will Play Holy Cross. Olean, Jan. 17.—St. Bonaventure's football team will open the 1930 season on September 7 playing Holy Cross at Worcester, Mass.

Rev. P. F. Cusik, Canisius Head, Goes to Auriesville. The Rev. Edward C. Phillips, S.J., Provincial of Maryland-North York province, has named the Rev. P. F. Cusik, S. J., director of the Shrine of the North American Martyrs at Auriesville, N. Y.

French Academy Awards Catholic Writers Prizes. Paris, Jan. 17.—Catholic writers have been particularly honored in the Academie Francaise in its recent distribution of prizes at its annual impressive ceremony.

Oil Well Sunk On. Catholic Orphanage Ground, Oklahoma. (By N. C. W. C. News Service) Oklahoma City, Jan. 17.—A sandy knoll 10 miles west of Oklahoma City became the syndicate of oil men of the Mid-Continent area recently as the well on the property of St. Joseph's Orphanage was charitably installed of the Diocese.

Nature Helped Bill McCarthy And His Quint

Niagara University, Jan. 17.—The St. Bonaventure College basketball team came here last Sunday and tackled the Niagara quint, coached by Bill McCarthy, formerly of Ithaca, in the Varsity Gym in the afternoon.

The Niagara Frosh, also coached by Bill McCarthy, used up nearly all the light defeating the St. Bonaventure Frosh 24-27. The game was a thriller. It rained hair on bald heads and brought the ice down.

Catholic Bowling League. Rochester's newest parish, St. Ann's, will hold a Fair in its new church, Brighton Park midway between East and West-Hendetta Roads, on Friday and Saturday evenings, Jan. 21st and 22nd.

Gifts Sent Pope On His Jubilee. Vatican City, Jan. 17.—The Curia of Lileux has sent to the Holy Father as a jubilee gift a number of the Little Flowers. It consists of a cross of gold surmounted by a palm formed by a series of roses adorned with brilliants.

Arthur W. Darley, Irish Musician, Widely Mourned. Dublin, Jan. 17.—The death of Arthur Warren Darley, Irish composer and pianist, and one of the greatest of the great traditional Irish musicians, has been announced.

Woman Falls Dead Making Confession. London, Jan. 17.—A woman fell dead while making her confession recently at the church of the Holy Mary, Manchester. She was Mrs. Susan Hyland, aged 62.

Gutenberg Bible Sold to American. Warsaw, Jan. 17.—The only Gutenberg Bible in Poland, belonging to the Catholic Seminary at Pelplin, a former Province of West Prussia, was sold recently for $110,000 to an unnamed American.

New Stamps For Vatican To Be Issued. Vatican City, January 17.—The proofs for a new series of postage stamps to be issued this year to replace the present Vatican City stamps have just been submitted to the Holy Father for his approval.

Archbishop Downey Takes English Labor Government To Task. London, Jan. 17.—"We have heard a lot about this democracy; let us have a little from this Labor government and see their democratic principles at work in the matter of the Catholic schools," said Archbishop Downey of Liverpool, in an appeal to the government to settle the Catholic school grievance.

Central Verein Plans Convention August 17 to 20. St. Louis, Jan. 17.—The diamond jubilee convention of the Catholic Central Verein of America will be held August 17-20 in Baltimore.

Holland Primate, Friend Of Germany, Widely Mourned. Cologne, Jan. 17.—The recent death of the Most Rev. Enrico van de Wetering, Archbishop of Utrecht, has caused great sorrow in Germany.

Pittsburgh Church Receipts For Year Were $161,066.09. Pittsburgh, Jan. 17.—The Sacred Heart Church, of this city, Rev. Thomas F. Coakley, rector, announced that 1929 was a record year for the parish. The total receipts were $161,066.09.

Works for Henry

STEPHEN HORTHY

Desirous of learning the system of American mass production, Stephen Horthy, son of the Hungarian Regent, Admiral Horthy, is working for Henry Ford in the great Ford factory at Detroit, Mich.

Committees For St. Ann's Fair January 24-25. Rochester's newest parish, St. Ann's, will hold a Fair in its new church, Brighton Park midway between East and West-Hendetta Roads, on Friday and Saturday evenings, Jan. 21st and 22nd.

Mission Bells Ring First Time In Hundred Years. (By N. C. W. C. News Service) San Francisco, Jan. 17.—The old mission bells of San Juan Bautista, brought by the padres from Spain hundreds of years ago, chimed for the first time in a century on Christmas Eve, just preceding the celebration of the Maryknoll Fathers of a Solemn High Mass.

Woman Falls Dead Making Confession. London, Jan. 17.—A woman fell dead while making her confession recently at the church of the Holy Mary, Manchester. She was Mrs. Susan Hyland, aged 62.

Gutenberg Bible Sold to American. Warsaw, Jan. 17.—The only Gutenberg Bible in Poland, belonging to the Catholic Seminary at Pelplin, a former Province of West Prussia, was sold recently for $110,000 to an unnamed American.

New Stamps For Vatican To Be Issued. Vatican City, January 17.—The proofs for a new series of postage stamps to be issued this year to replace the present Vatican City stamps have just been submitted to the Holy Father for his approval.

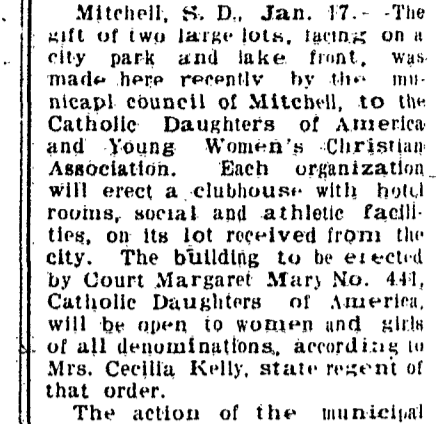

Archbishop Downey Takes English Labor Government To Task. London, Jan. 17.—"We have heard a lot about this democracy; let us have a little from this Labor government and see their democratic principles at work in the matter of the Catholic schools," said Archbishop Downey of Liverpool, in an appeal to the government to settle the Catholic school grievance.

Central Verein Plans Convention August 17 to 20. St. Louis, Jan. 17.—The diamond jubilee convention of the Catholic Central Verein of America will be held August 17-20 in Baltimore.

Holland Primate, Friend Of Germany, Widely Mourned. Cologne, Jan. 17.—The recent death of the Most Rev. Enrico van de Wetering, Archbishop of Utrecht, has caused great sorrow in Germany.

Pittsburgh Church Receipts For Year Were $161,066.09. Pittsburgh, Jan. 17.—The Sacred Heart Church, of this city, Rev. Thomas F. Coakley, rector, announced that 1929 was a record year for the parish. The total receipts were $161,066.09.

Mitchell, S. D., Gives Catholic Daughters Lake Front Site

Mitchell, S. D., Gives Catholic Daughters Lake Front Site

Mitchell, S. D., Jan. 17.—The gift of two large lots, facing on a city park and lake front, was made here recently by the municipal council of Mitchell, to the Catholic Daughters of America and Young Women's Christian Association.

Son Celebrates Requiem Mass For His Father. The funeral of Edward A. Lyons, who died Thursday, was held at 9:30 Monday morning from his home, 751 Geneva Street, and at 10 o'clock in St. Monica's Church.

Many Priests Present. The following priests were present in the sanctuary: Revs. John Smith, Walter Kohl, Theodore Wieroth, Albert Geiger, Emmett Dougherty, Emmett Magee, Francis Burns, Frederic Wise, William Noughton, John F. Neenan, Edward Hartmann, John Neary, William Heisel, Robert Fox, James Keenan, Roy Haggerty, Edmund O'Brien, F. William Stauder, Thomas F. Brennan, Alexander McCabe, George V. Burns, Daniel O'Rourke, Joseph Ott, Gerald Lambert, Cornelius Hogan, John McAlmon, Charles Shay, Stuart Hagan, George Vogt, James Wood, Edward Meagher, Gerard Brennan, John Smith, Ignatius Cameron, Joseph Dissett, John Burke, and Leo Mooney.

Central Verein Plans Convention August 17 to 20. St. Louis, Jan. 17.—The diamond jubilee convention of the Catholic Central Verein of America will be held August 17-20 in Baltimore.

Holland Primate, Friend Of Germany, Widely Mourned. Cologne, Jan. 17.—The recent death of the Most Rev. Enrico van de Wetering, Archbishop of Utrecht, has caused great sorrow in Germany.

Pittsburgh Church Receipts For Year Were $161,066.09. Pittsburgh, Jan. 17.—The Sacred Heart Church, of this city, Rev. Thomas F. Coakley, rector, announced that 1929 was a record year for the parish. The total receipts were $161,066.09.

New Stamps For Vatican To Be Issued. Vatican City, January 17.—The proofs for a new series of postage stamps to be issued this year to replace the present Vatican City stamps have just been submitted to the Holy Father for his approval.

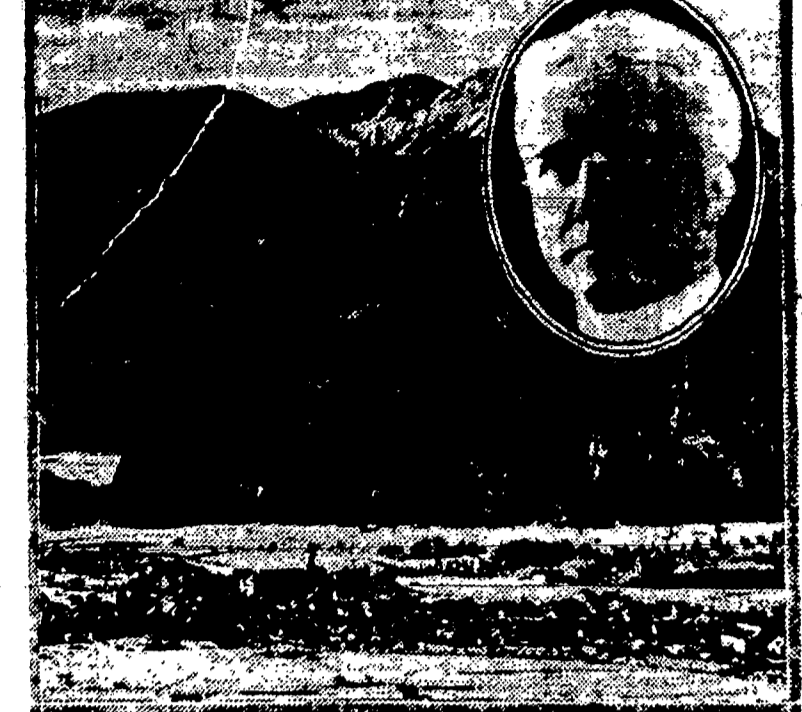

Archbishop Downey Takes English Labor Government To Task. London, Jan. 17.—"We have heard a lot about this democracy; let us have a little from this Labor government and see their democratic principles at work in the matter of the Catholic schools," said Archbishop Downey of Liverpool, in an appeal to the government to settle the Catholic school grievance.

Central Verein Plans Convention August 17 to 20. St. Louis, Jan. 17.—The diamond jubilee convention of the Catholic Central Verein of America will be held August 17-20 in Baltimore.

Holland Primate, Friend Of Germany, Widely Mourned. Cologne, Jan. 17.—The recent death of the Most Rev. Enrico van de Wetering, Archbishop of Utrecht, has caused great sorrow in Germany.

Pittsburgh Church Receipts For Year Were $161,066.09. Pittsburgh, Jan. 17.—The Sacred Heart Church, of this city, Rev. Thomas F. Coakley, rector, announced that 1929 was a record year for the parish. The total receipts were $161,066.09.

Passion Play at Oberammergau 1930 Objective of U. S. Tourists

The Village of Oberammergau, in the foothills of the Bavarian Alps, and Rev. W. Coleman Nevils, President of Georgetown University and Chairman of the Executive Council of the newly formed Catholic Students Travel League

New Catholic Students Travel League Features Age-Old Stupendous Spectacle on Tours. NEW YORK—Europe is always dignitaries and educators at the leading colleges and schools of the United States and Canada.

The Passion Play is presented over a period of five months every year by the citizens of Oberammergau, a village of 2,000 people in the Bavarian Alps. The play is a dramatic re-enactment of the life of Christ.

The Passion Play is a dramatic re-enactment of the life of Christ. It is presented over a period of five months every year by the citizens of Oberammergau.

The Passion Play is a dramatic re-enactment of the life of Christ. It is presented over a period of five months every year by the citizens of Oberammergau.

Central Verein Plans Convention August 17 to 20. St. Louis, Jan. 17.—The diamond jubilee convention of the Catholic Central Verein of America will be held August 17-20 in Baltimore.

Holland Primate, Friend Of Germany, Widely Mourned. Cologne, Jan. 17.—The recent death of the Most Rev. Enrico van de Wetering, Archbishop of Utrecht, has caused great sorrow in Germany.

Pittsburgh Church Receipts For Year Were $161,066.09. Pittsburgh, Jan. 17.—The Sacred Heart Church, of this city, Rev. Thomas F. Coakley, rector, announced that 1929 was a record year for the parish. The total receipts were $161,066.09.

New Stamps For Vatican To Be Issued. Vatican City, January 17.—The proofs for a new series of postage stamps to be issued this year to replace the present Vatican City stamps have just been submitted to the Holy Father for his approval.

Archbishop Downey Takes English Labor Government To Task. London, Jan. 17.—"We have heard a lot about this democracy; let us have a little from this Labor government and see their democratic principles at work in the matter of the Catholic schools," said Archbishop Downey of Liverpool, in an appeal to the government to settle the Catholic school grievance.

Central Verein Plans Convention August 17 to 20. St. Louis, Jan. 17.—The diamond jubilee convention of the Catholic Central Verein of America will be held August 17-20 in Baltimore.