Corpus Christi Men's Dinner Wednesday Eve

A dinner for the men of Corpus Christi Church will be served in the church hall next Wednesday evening, February 19, at 7:30 o'clock. About 500 men are expected to attend. The event will be in the nature of an "Old Home celebration," for the men will welcome back home, for the first time since his consecration, their former pastor, the Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester. The Rt. Rev. Bishop Walsh of Charleston, S. C., will also be a guest of honor.

The speaker of the evening will be Harry B. Crowley, who will talk on "Catholic Education." Other talks will feature the program, and there will be music and entertainment that will delight all. It is expected the dinner will be one of the largest of the kind ever held by the men of the parish.

Chicken Supper And Sale Will Be Held February 15

A chicken supper and sale will be held in the basement of St. Joseph's School hall on Saturday this week. The Mission Society of St. Joseph's Church will be in charge of the event, and the ladies are planning to take excellent care of a big crowd. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 7 P. M. Tickets are only 50 cents. Entrance to the basement is from Franklin Street. Everybody is invited.

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Holy Name Men Of The Immaculate Conception Church

At the regular monthly meeting of the Holy Name Society of the Immaculate Conception Church, the following officers were elected for the coming year:

Spiritual Director, Rev. Joseph S. Cameron, president; William G. Ryan, vice-president; John J. Skelly, secretary; William J. Beahan; Board of Consultants, Hubert Call, Frank J. G. Connor, Herbert Dreschler, Eugene McFarland, Patrick Nugent, Peter Smith, James Tighe, Guy Van Ambers.

Nearly 200 members of the Society received Holy Communion in a body at the 7 o'clock Mass last Sunday. The Mass was said by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Walsh of the Diocese of Charleston, S. C.

Frank Crouch has been appointed chairman of a smoker and entertainment to be held February 18th, by the Holy Name Society. The society has a membership of nearly 800 men.

Aquinas Comedy February 17, 18, 19, Is A Lively One

All friends of Aquinas Institute are cordially invited to attend the production of "Three Wise Men," a live comedy, in three acts, in Aquinas auditorium on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings next week, February 17, 18 and 19. This comedy will be well worth seeing. It is under the direction of Joseph M. Schmitt, director of dramatics at the institute. The cast includes Harvey Rockwell, Charles Furthner, Robert Miller, Edmund Plant, Edmund Dwyer, Paul McNamara, Arthur Farnen, Edward Callahan, John Kelly, Joseph Hall, Lawrence Mooney, and Angelo Borsari.

St. Andrew's Parish Party With 100 Prizes

On Tuesday evening, February 18, a parish card party will be held in St. Andrew's School Hall, Portland Avenue. Plans are being made to have this party one of the largest of the entire year. There will be 100 prizes, and a special door prize. Luncheon will be served, and a great variety of games will be played. Admission will be 50 cents.

The party will begin at 8:15 o'clock, and it is open to everybody. The rector of the church, the Rev. George W. Eckl, cordially invites all friends of the church to attend the party and enjoy the event with their parishioners.

Lady Good Counsel Societies Plan a Card Party Feb. 19

The Ladies of the Altar Society, assisted by the Men's Club of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, will hold a Card Party and entertainment in the Nurses' Home, St. Mary's Hospital, on the night of Wednesday, February 19th. Bridge, Five Hundred, Pedro, and Pinochle will be played. Attractive prizes will be presented to the winners.

Mrs. Joseph Statt is General Chairman of the party, assisted by the following, who act as chairmen of the various committees: Miss M. Buelte, prizes; Mrs. P. Carlin, reception; Mrs. Holleran, tickets; Mrs. Mann, candy; Mrs. Spurry, cards; Mrs. Ryan, attendance; Fred Martin, seating and tables; and Joseph Foley, checking.

The proceeds of the party will be given to Rev. T. E. Meagher to assist him in the church debts and to further his plans for the building program, which will be started in the early spring.

Varieties of 1930 Will Be Played February 24-25-26

The newly organized Dramatic Club of Sacred Heart Parish will produce something novel and different in the way of amateur theatricals in the evening of February 24th, 25th and 26th in Sacred Heart Auditorium. It is entitled "Varieties of 1930" and is under the direction of Mrs. Mary Bailey, president of the Club.

The program will be in the form of a revue in which there will be three one-act playlets and a variety of specialty numbers. "Who Kissed Barbara" will be enacted by Miss Grace Kanada, Miss Betty Purchase, Charles Cook, Thomas Amiel, and Jerry Purchase. "Oh Helpless Man" by Miss Mona Sheehan, Miss Corinne Lela, Cleo Lachner and Will Fennessy. "A Cure for Hypnotism" by Miss Beatrice Soehner, John Wesley and Arley Avery.

The specialty numbers will be distributed throughout the program, so that the show will have a continuity similar to professional revues.

Young Ladies Of St. Michael's Banquet, Feb. 25

The Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Michael's Church will hold a banquet on Tuesday evening, February 25th, at the Columbus Civic Center. The following are in charge of the arrangements: Hilda Werdein, Edith Waterstraat, Anna Kowalski, Margaret Frisch, Florence Scheid, Ruth Haeffler, Teresa Trot, Marcelle Helmbold, Irene Lehr, Elizabeth Trout, Monica Mattes and Lucille Helmbold.

Benefit Party At St. Helen's Church On February 25th

The ushers of St. Augustine's Church will hold a benefit party for St. Helen's Church in the hall of that church, Hinchey Road, off Chili Road, on Tuesday evening, February 25th. Dancing will be enjoyed, and there will be a general all-around good time for patrons.

The committee in charge of the event is composed of Leon Houck, Mark Holihan and Joseph Brown. The party will be conducted from 9 to 12 o'clock. Patrons may reach the church hall by automobile, or by taking the Chili bus, which stops a short distance from the church. A cordial invitation is extended to all friends of the church to attend.

St. Helen's Church was dedicated on February 2d, and it is being supplied by priests from St. Augustine's Church. The St. Augustine's people and their friends, naturally, are most interested in helping the new church, and this party is an opportunity to everybody to do something helpful.

Notre Dame Club Elects Officers For Coming Year

The Notre Dame Club of Rochester held its annual meeting recently at the Brookline Country Club and elected the following officers for the coming year:

President, M. Joseph Tierney; vice-president, C. Norbert Baglin; secretary, Clinton J. Lintz; treasurer, Raymond Downs. An advisory board will consist of the retiring president, Gerard J. Smith, Joseph P. Flynn and Mark G. Eilers.

A committee was appointed to arrange for the observance of Notre Dame night, April 21.

Alumni and former students of Notre Dame University living in this city and surrounding towns comprise the membership of the Notre Dame Club of Rochester.

St. Mary's Sodality Will Hold a Party On February 17th

The Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Mary's Church has completed arrangements for a dancing party to be given Monday evening, February 17, in the Osborne Hotel Hall. Dancing will take place from 9 o'clock until 1 o'clock. Adolf Hum and his Silver Moon Orchestra will play.

Miss Marjorie Francis is general chairman in charge of the arrangements. She is being assisted by the Misses Charlotte O'Connor, Gertrude Shaw, Emily Keogan, Dorothy Fitzgerald, Gertrude Falley, Margaret Bearcroft, Jane Lewis, Margaret Holihan, Anne O'Hearn, Marie Bergan, Mary Rolling, Anne Stapleton and Veronica Manion.

Card Party Set For Grange Hall, Greece, Feb. 21st

On Friday evening, February 21st, a card party will be held in Grange Hall, Greece, for the benefit of Our Mother of Sorrows Church. A splendid committee of workers, members of the Confraternity of Seven Dolours, will be in charge of the party. They promise a pleasant time to all who attend.

The Rev. Daniel B. O'Rourke, rector of Our Mother of Sorrows Church, will be glad to welcome his friends to this party, as will all members of the parish. Tickets are only 50 cents.

Mt. Carmel Church Young Ladies' Club Elects Officers

A Valentine Party was given by the Young Ladies of Mt. Carmel Church on Tuesday evening, February 11th, in the Church Hall at 8:15 P. M. The proceeds of this social will be used towards the building of the new church.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. Marie Mauro, Mrs. Josephine Pastorella, the Misses Laura and Mabel Broccoli, Edith Breacala, Adelaide Mucio and Mary Laituppa.

At the regular meeting of the Club held Friday, February 7th, Miss Nettie Mastrodonato was elected President, and Miss Josephine Laituppa, secretary and treasurer.

Speaking of Families

When the six chief officers of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, and their families get together they make a fair sized crowd. Grand Knight John A. Doyle has nine children; Deputy Grand Knight N. A. Streb has eight; Financial Secretary R. J. Curran has eight; Treasurer George W. Heneer has five; Recorder Thomas H. O'Connor has four, and Warden Len Roudsall has three, a total of 37 children. These sons of the Grand Knight are members of the Order.

Nazareth College

Rev. Julian Thibout, C. S. C., a missionary from Hawaii, will speak at a Mission meeting, Monday evening, February 17. As a special feature, he will sing some Hula-Hula songs. Bishop O'Hern and Bishop Walsh will be special guests of the occasion, and all the students are invited to be present.

The Senior Class will give a formal Valentine dance at the College, Friday evening, February 14. Dorothy Fleming is general chairman, assisted by Dorothy Mattes who is in charge of the orchestra, and Alice Harding who is taking care of the decorations. A buffet supper is being arranged by Helen Malone; and Helen McEnaney and Inez Porreca are designing programs.

The S. S. C. Convention, sponsored by Nazareth College, will be the first of its kind held in Rochester. A large crowd is expected from all the Western New York colleges and schools. These include Canisius, D'Youville and Nazareth College, Mount Mercy, Sacred Heart, Holy Angels, Loretto, and Nazareth Academy. St. Mary's Seminary and Our Lady of Mercy High School. The people of the diocese are also invited to attend the meeting. The date and the definite plans will be announced later.

The Sodalties of all the schools are similar in organization. There is a central committee composed of prefect and five other students, each of which is chairman of a special committee. The Prefect of the Sodality for the present year at Nazareth College is Adelaide Blumebach. Ida Holmes and Dorothy McKay from the Senior Class, are chairmen of the Mission Committee and the Eucharistic Committee. From the Junior Class, Helen Gantort is in charge of Our Lady's Committee, and Anne Gaultie of the Publicity Committee. Rosemary Schifferl from the Sophomore Class, is head of the Literary Committee. Each of the different committees has seven members besides the chairman.

First Friday was observed at the College by special devotions. The students attended Mass and received Communion in the morning, and the Blessed Sacrament was exposed all day, a special privilege granted by the Bishop. A formal Guard of Honor formed of students watched in the Chapel till three thirty, when Benediction was given.

A one-act play, "Inflation," was given by members of the French Club at a meeting, February 12. Anna Lefine, Anna Ryan, Alice Grussenmeyer, Alma Gaultie, Gladys Entorf, Pauline Hennessy, Lucille Brady, Helen Gantort, Mary O'Brien, Louise Brown and Lillian Rossenbach took part.

St. Salome's Will Present a Comedy February 23, 24, 25

A comedy that will delight all patrons—"Slip Slap"—will be presented by the players of St. Salome's Church in the parish hall, Sea Breeze, Point Pleasant, on the evenings of February 23, 24 and 25. An excellent cast has been rehearsing for the comedy, and they are ready for the performances now.

The Rev. Edward Eschrich, rector of St. Salome's Church, cordially invites all people to attend the performances of this comedy. The admission charge is unusually low, only 25 cents, and a fine evening of fun is promised.

Thomas F. Kearns Widely Mourned By His Friends

On Monday morning this week the funeral of Thomas F. Kearns, Sr., was held in St. Monica's Church. Mr. Kearns was killed in an automobile accident at the corner of Child and Maple Streets on Thursday. For a number of years he had been manager of the Continental Wonder Bakeshops in this city. He was a well-known man, kindly, charitable and helpful to all people whenever possible. His death is widely mourned by his friends.

A solemn high Mass was celebrated for him by the Rev. John P. Brophy, rector of the church, assisted by Rev. John F. Neilligan as deacon and Rev. John F. Neary, sub-deacon. Rev. Thomas E. Kearns of Highlands, N. J., and Rev. E. H. Hartman were in the sanctuary.

Active bearers were Leo A. McSweeney, Police Capt. James Collins, John F. Carroll, Frank Lane, Michael Breen and John McGrigge. Honorary bearers from the Knights of Columbus were William Caulfield, Frank Weinbart, Frank T. Curtin, E. J. McGrath and Thomas Carroll. Honorary bearers from the Rochester Lodge of Elks were former Mayor Martin B. O'Neil, T. E. Freckleton, John Fryne, Thomas Martin and George Whiteeman. Police Chief Andrew J. Kavanaugh and a delegation of police officials also attended.

Services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Father Kearns, assisted by Rev. John Hogan.

How Much Do You Pay Yourself?

out of your income? You pay the taxes, insurance, the landlord, the grocer, butcher and baker, the clothing merchant and your church and many others, but how much do you set aside and say: "This is for me, and I will put it to work."

If you do not pay yourself you will never get ahead and you will not be prepared for any emergency, or misfortune, or a healthy opportunity.

Paying yourself means adding to your fortune, increasing your self respect, and enabling you to do the things you may not otherwise be able to do.
