Sports Tid-Bits

By JOHN LARMER (Editor's Note: Johnny was so overcome upon picking a winner in the slattery-slozza championship fight that he was unable to contribute to the Catholic Courier and Journal for the past four weeks.)

The one hope that the Flower City has for court glory rests with the Centrals leading the second half race in the American professional league and battling for a crack at the world's championship.

Billy McCarthy may not have reason to gloat over the record of his Varsity five, but he has just cause to boast of his Fresh team's performance.

where you should aim to be true

Catholic leaders, on whom the hierarchy, the parish priest, and your less fortunate brethren may be able to lean for strength, encouragement, and the promotion of God's work in the world.

Devout Clients of Mary

"How essential, then, is it not for our young people, especially young men and women who are being educated in the higher things of life, and who will be confronted with some of the greatest problems of intellectual and moral character, to be devout clients of her who is called 'sacrae sapientiae'—seat of wisdom.

Praises Discussions

"How interesting then, is not the program of the discussions which have taken place this afternoon, containing subjects that should be of vital interest to the students of our Catholic colleges?

"Learn the names of these spiritual and corporal works of mercy and see how far you are putting them into practice in your daily lives, and then you will have a great deal to Mother Church and her cause, to your fellow-men whose interests you have at heart, and to yourself, because you are striving to do the things that are higher and spiritual, the things that are worth while, while carrying on your avocation in life.

Closes with Benediction

The conference was brought to a close with solemn pontifical proceedings which the student body of Nazareth College, sang, Gounod's "Ave Maria."
