Moravia is but three miles from the head of Owasco Lake and the pleasant summer resort of Cascadon-Owasco. At the edge of the village is Sylvan Lake, a very picturesque body of water.

In the outskirts of the village are located Montville Falls, a beautiful drop of water, near which in 1819 John Jethro Wood gave the world its first cast iron plow.

The house in which Miss Abigail Powers was married in 1826 to Millard Fillmore, afterwards 13th president of the United States, stands in Smith Street.

Parsons Falls, higher than Niagara Falls, and beautiful Lake Como, the highest body of water in the Finger Lakes region, are tourist objectives. Paramount among the many historic and scenic offerings is Fillmore Glen State Park, that strange and picturesque ravine at the South village limits.

Fillmore Glen is located on Route 26. It is very accessible. It is fully equipped with outdoor ovens, tables, benches, spring water, and affords every convenience for a family picnic, reunion or any gathering of any kind.

Those planning to play for a day in Fillmore Glen—Nature's Wonderland—will find St. Patrick's Church in Grove Street very convenient. Each summer season brings in large congregations to St. Patrick's.
