Fashion's Most Gala Day,

EASTER

Easter looks to Forman's for fine fashions for April 20th—for what is more natural than that the store that leads the way in fashion at every season of the year should be the source of first recourse on fashion's foremost day?

The answers of the Forman Shops make a story of length and rare interest, full of surprises, punctuated with thrills.

The story tells of coats of new lines and new measures of charm, trimmed with furs of flattering flatness.

In it the searcher after the new finds many paragraphs that dilate upon the delightful diversity of dresses, that narrate of gracious laces, that break into prints to provide for colorful characters.

And the part that's devoted to accessories, and to gifts, is filled with exclamation points—how else could you describe the innovations!

Work on Auburn Church And on New Mercy Hospital Will Start in Near Future

Auburn, April 11.—One hardly recognizes East Genesee street, just beyond Lewis, where the Coburn House once stood, but now has been razed to make way for the beautiful edifice to be erected by St. Alphonsus' Church. Father Straub expects to start building very soon, as the debris is now being cleared away and excavation will begin at once. Citizens interested in the drive for Mercy Hospital last year are looking forward to the erection of the new hospital, which according to announcements recently made will begin just as soon as weather permits. The hospital is much needed.

Beloved Boy Drowned
Auburn, April 11.—Residents of Auburn were shocked last Thursday noon when they heard of the tragic death by drowning of the son of Dr. and Mrs. Austin Clary of North Hoopes Avenue. The little fellow was very popular and only ten minutes before the said drowning was seen by his mother in a neighbor's yard. "Jim," as his playmates called him, was only two and a half years old. He is survived by his parents and a younger brother.

64 Years Married
Auburn, April 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Emil Casper celebrated their sixty-fourth wedding anniversary last week. To only a few is the blessing of such a long wedded life given. Mr. Casper is daily about his yard and enjoys his flowers and home. Mrs. Casper was not so well this past winter, but is able to be around the house. Children and friends called and made the day a memorable one for the happy couple.

ELMIRA Thomas G. McGraw Dies in Scranton

Elmira, April 11.—Thomas G. McGraw, a resident of this city for 17 years, died in Scranton, Pa. last Sunday. His body was brought here, and the funeral held in St. Patrick's Church on Wednesday. He had been employed for 23 years by the D. L. & W. railroad. He was a member of Elmira Council, Knights of Columbus. He is survived by his widow; his daughter, Mrs. Leona McGraw; one son, Mr. John Kurtz of Scranton; one aunt, Miss Sarah McGraw of Scranton.

DANIEL HORIZAN
Elmira, Apr. 11.—Daniel Horigan, for 37 years in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph Co., died here Monday, and his funeral was held Wednesday morning in St. Patrick's Church. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Francis Dorsey of Elmira; one sister, Mrs. John Kurtz of Scranton; three sisters, Miss Nellie Horigan, Mrs. Maurice Butler and Mrs. Daniel McCarthy of Elmira; four brothers, Michael M., Timothy J., and James J. Horigan of Elmira; John Horigan of Corning; an uncle, John Kane of Elmira; several nieces and nephews.

THREE FUNERALS MONDAY
Elmira, April 11.—Three funerals were held here Monday morning, that of William Madigan in St. Cecilia's Church, Thomas McGuire in St. Mary's Church, and Miss Margaret Gribbin, in St. Peter & Paul's Church. David MacBlane, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James MacBlane, died Saturday. Besides the parents, there are two brothers and six sisters surviving.

Five Thousand People Join in Protest of Religious Persecutions in Russia

he said. "Their only crime is the daily crime of Bishop Ferris, Bishop O'Hern and every minister and every priest in the city of Rochester—they believed in God and taught His revelation and moral law as God gave them the light to see it.

Denials Are Baseless
The Soviet government has denied that it practices religious persecution," Dr. Walsh said. Its denials are false, tricky. Bishops and priests are never executed or imprisoned because of religion, he said, but they are charged with "counter-revolutionary activity," which gives the officials wide latitude in getting rid of all ministers of religion. "Violation of the law forbidding religious instruction to anyone under 18 years of age is constantly invoked, Dr. Walsh said. Reading the Gospel of Jesus Christ in Russia is sufficient cause for exile, for imprisonment or death. Dr. Walsh said, and the crime will be recorded as counter-revolutionary activity. Furthermore, if a man is given the maximum penalty for any crime, even if it is only a year in jail, the Central Executive Committee has the legal right to change that penalty to death by shooting. Thus a priest, minister or rabbi may be given a comparatively mild sentence on some trivial charge, and if that sentence is the maximum penalty for the crime charged, the prisoner can be shot immediately.

A Mother in Her Home
"A mother in her home," said Dr. Walsh, "with her children at her knee, is teaching her offspring the faith of their forefathers. She is denounced and may be faced with a dread possibility—either to go to prison, or pay a heavy fine, or suffer the moral torture of seeing her child torn from her bosom and placed in the Communist school, where it will be taught the militant atheism of the state at the expense of the parent! If these positive disabilities and legal disabilities do not constitute persecution, words have lost their meaning!

"I Spit on All Religions"
I heard, with my own ears, the Prosecuting Attorney of the Soviet State put the question to men on trial for their lives in Moscow in 1923: "Will you stop teaching the Christian religion?" "We cannot," came the answer, "it is the law of God."

The basic issue was clear out and as clearly faced. The victims went unflinchingly to death or to exile in 1923 and are facing the same alternative, as old as Christianity itself,—with equal fortitude in 1930. To elaborate further on the self-confessed intention of the Soviet Government in that respect would indeed be painting the lily or gilding refined gold.

Results Are Appalling
Dr. Walsh told about the large number of churches that have been closed by the Soviets in Russia; of the formation of 10,000 anti-religious clubs, protected and shielded by the police; of the abominable films that are shown in former churches, club houses now, or museums, or theaters. At Christmas time in 1923 he said that 700 anti-religious demonstrations were formed in Petrograd alone, with violent attacks on religion and on the church program was ar-

Nazareth College Completes Plans For Junior Week

All plans for Junior Week have been completed. An activity has been arranged for every day from April 21 to April 26. The most important event, of course, will be the Junior Prom, which will take place, Tuesday, April 22. The program for the week follows:

Monday morning the Juniors will attend Mass and receive Communion in the College Chapel, followed by breakfast in the cafeteria. Margaret Burke is chairman of the breakfast. Tuesday, the Junior Prom will be held at Oak Hill Country Club, with Al Katz and His Kittens playing. General chairman is Helen Howland. Wednesday, the Juniors will act as hostesses to the Seniors, Sophomores and Freshmen, and their mothers at a tea and fashion show at the College. Eleanor Craig is in charge of the fashion show, which B. Forman and Co. are sponsoring. A supper dance will be given at the College on Thursday. Chairman is Mildred Walsh. On Friday, the Juniors will have breakfast at the K. of C. drive to Buffalo, attend the theater, and return home for dinner. Pauline Hennessey is in charge of arrangements.

Canadian Priest, Rev. W. F. Garvey, Dies in Hospital

The Rev. Dr. Wilfrid Francis Garvey of the Basilian Order, of Gooderich, Ontario, Canada, died in St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, last Saturday. Dr. Garvey came here a few days previously to visit clerical friends on the teaching staff of Aquinas Institute. He was taken suddenly ill, and his death followed. His body was brought home on Sunday, and his funeral held later. Dr. Garvey was educated in Assumption College at Sandwich, Ont., and his theological studies were made in the Basilian Scholasticate, Toronto. He was ordained in June, 1925, and went to Rome, Italy, where he received the degree of D. D., in the Canadian College. He returned home in June, 1928, and taught dogmatic theology at the Basilian Scholasticate. His parents, Thomas and Margaret Donnelly-Garvey, live in Gooderich, Ontario. In addition to them he is survived by two brothers, John Garvey of Toronto, and Leo Garvey, D.D.S., of Guelph; two sisters, Sister M. Theresa of East Lindsay and Miss Rose Garvey of Port Huron, Ont.

is lampooned and burlesqued in theaters, he said.

The results are most appalling among the youth of the land, he said. He told how immorality has spread among the youth; how respect for authority has died, and how devastating the results have been. He paid tribute to the American Federation of Labor for standing strongly for justice in the matter, and for guarding vigilantly the soul and spirit of American labor from the red ruin of Communism. He told how Russia has destroyed the higher planes of purity and of Christian civilization, and in conclusion he said:

Resistance to Tyranny
"It is against this profanation of the sanctities of life that our voices are raised in common protest and in appeal to the moral instincts of mankind. We neither possess nor seek political, nor economic nor other material sanction in support of our plea for common decency. We invoke no sword save only the two-edged blade of truth and justice. And surely the Church in America is the last to need defense or apology for its support of such a cause. In Lafayette Square in Washington, the American people have gratefully and properly erected a noble monument to an alien patriot, bearing the pregnant warning: "Freedom shrieked when Kosciusko fell."

"So with equal right does the Church in America solemnly protest before God and man when Russia bleeds. We shall not permit ourselves to be confused into compromise or reduced to silence by any attempt to belittle the issue with extraneous considerations of politics, diplomacy or economics. We shall not commit the shameful sin of moral cowardice. We know the cost—none better—but we also know that resistance to tyranny is obedience to God."

The Benediction
Bishop O'Hern gave the benediction at the close of the meeting, first thanking all who attended and all who helped make the meeting the great success it was. He introduced the Resolution that expressed the thought and purpose of the meeting, then, with prayer, brought to a close a great and inspiring event, founded on justice and supported by love.

CATHOLIC BOWLING LEAGUE

The race for first honors in the Catholic Bowling League remained unbroken when the scores were added up on April 6th. The St. Boniface and Holy Redeemer Athletic Association teams still held a tight grip on first place. The scores, as of that date follow:

Sports Tid-Bits

By JOHN LARMER

As the calendar proclaims that Spring is here, and the weather argues differently, the scattered knights of the diamond are mobilizing and falling in line for opening day parades throughout the country.

Next Monday Washington and Boston will play the first game of the major and Class AA Leagues. On Tuesday the official inauguration of the American and National circuits will take place. International will pry-off the lid on Wednesday, and local fans will begin their frequent jaunts to the Norton Street Stadium; all rooting for the Red Wings to lead the pack for the third successive year.

Mrs. R. J. McCutcheon, world's champion woman bowler, more than justified this title when she totalled 205.5 in ten games, for an average of 20.55 in her exhibition at Buonomo Hall, Monday night. Marcella Zeller, state league roller, was the only local girl to defeat the queen. Miss Zeller bettered Mrs. McCutcheon's 201 game by a lone pin.

The Pueblo, Colorado, woman startled local alley fans when she toppled the maples on alleys five and six, a tough pair, for a sensational 256 score. The bystanders commented that she could trim high class male bowlers and are looking forward to her appearance here against men in the near future.

Memorial Altar Given to Church By Parents of Boy

A beautiful altar has been presented to the Sacred Heart Church by Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Harris, 282 Seneca Parkway, in memory of their ten-year-old son, Robert Joseph. The altar has been placed in the Gospel side of the sanctuary, was designed by Charles H. Prindle of Chicago, architect of the church, and was built by the Luppa & Maggio Co., who erected the church. The stone work was done by Whitmore, Rauber & Vichius. The Rev. George V. Burz, pastor of the church, is greatly pleased with the gift.

The mensa and predella are select Indian limestone and terebos of carved oak. The tabernacle door is of bronze. German wood carvers produced two statues, one of the Blessed Virgin Mary which stands high above the center of the altar, and the other the Child Jesus.

He who yells loudest about piety is perhaps trying to drown the shrieks of his dying conscience.

If the Church is half as eternal as the excuses we make for not being there, it has little to fear.
