Dr. F. J. Zwierlein
To Write History
And Tour World

The Rev. Dr. F. J. Zwierlein, professor of Church History at St. Bernard's Seminary, and his mother, Mrs. Lucy Zwierlein of 272 Flower City Park, sailed from New York for Europe on Memorial Day. They will land in Spain, cross the mountains and motor through southwest Europe. They will witness the Passion Play at Oberammergau and visit Mrs. Zwierlein's birthplace, Hohlstadt, in Northern Bavaria.

A visit to Rome, and an interview with the Pope, is also contemplated by the travelers.

Dr. Zwierlein plans to return by way of Sicily, and to visit the ruins of the ancient world. He expects to be absent about 15 months and during that time will write a three-volume "History of Christendom."

Volume one of the history will be entitled "Christian Antiquity" and will be dedicated to the Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D. D., Bishop of Rochester, in appreciation of his kindness in granting the leave of absence. The names of the remaining volumes have not been decided on, but the result will form an exhaustive study.

While in Europe and the Holy Land, Dr. Zwierlein will study Christian architecture. At present, he conducts lectures on the subject at St. Bernard's, and wants to better his knowledge with first-hand information, he said. He plans to go into Russia and make a study of conditions there.

Summer Supper
At Mercy High
On July the 9th

On Wednesday, July 9th, a supper will be served at the Mercy High School, Blossing Road, from 5 to 8 o'clock. A competent committee of ladies will be in charge of the event, and there will be a most appetizing menu at low cost. Everybody will be welcome to attend, and plans will be made to care for a large number of patrons.

GENEVA

MARTIN S. CORCORAN
Geneva, June 6.—Martin S. Corcoran, aged 38, of 49 Cecille St., Geneva, died Memorial Day. Besides his widow, Mrs. Florence Magill Corcoran, formerly of Seneca Falls, he leaves four sons, Martin, Francis, Joseph and Stephen Corcoran, three daughters, Jane, Florence and Rita Corcoran, all of Geneva, his father, Patrick J. Corcoran of Geneva, and four sisters and three brothers. His funeral was held Monday at 9 o'clock in St. Francis de Sales Church.

DANSVILLE
First Communion
Class in St. Mary's

Dansville, June 6.—Sunday was First Communion day at St. Mary's Church. At 8 o'clock in the morning the white-robed children, led in procession by their pastor, the Rev. Leo G. Hotschneider, with St. Boniface Society members as escort, passed from the parochial school to the church, where Mass was said by Rev. Jacob Rauber, St. Mary's assistant priest. The children's choir sang hymns appropriate to the happy occasion.

The sight of the Host uplifted the holy moments of consecration inspired faith that was strong and grand in the hearts of the First Communicants, who bowed their heads in silent prayer and to adoration of their Eucharistic King during the awe-inspiring minutes from the elevation to the "Domine, non sum dignus" which means so much to the Catholic heart. The silver sound of a bell prepared them for the moment when the little Hosts started on their way to their souls. The sweetly whispered prayers of welcome to Jesus from the children floated through the church, then the Reverend Pastor and his Assistant Priest administered the Sacrament of Love. In the words of Jose Anselmo Silva:

"That moment all the world respected with mystic piety,
The early morning light that shone
Adorned the church's aisles;
The rhythmic chants that soared
above

It seemed to highest heaven:
The aromatic cloud that rose
In incense spirals up;
The voices from another world
Sonorous and serene;
The little children sweetly grouped
Before the altar rail,
Yea, even the ancient Saints, aligned

In shades so vaguely dim
Beneath the lumbering dust of years,
In silence seemed to smile."

The address delivered by Rev. Father Hotschneider was in keeping with the solemnity of the occasion—an inspiration for greater love for the Sacrament—a greater desire for the mystic union of Jesus in Holy Communion. Renewal of the baptismal vows followed the sermon, the services closing with congregational singing of the Te Deum.

The first Communion class members were:

MORAVIA

Forty Hours Close
In St. Patrick's

Moravia, June 6.—Forty Hours devotion in St. Patrick's Church ended with the celebration of Mass at 8 o'clock on Wednesday morning. The services during the period were largely attended. Instructive and highly interesting sermons were delivered by Father Walker of Woodport on Sunday evening, Father Crowley of Auburn on Monday evening, and Father Ritz of Auburn on Tuesday evening.

NEWARK

EMIL D. HARNENS
Newark, June 6. Emil D. Harnens, aged 44, of Johnson Street, died Memorial Day morning. He leaves his widow; two sons, Fred of Rochester and Edward of Manchester; one sister, Mrs. Louise Vanopdorp; two brothers, August and Leo of Brighton. His funeral was held Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock in St. Michael's Church.

Long-Standing Trouble
Between Vatican and Malta
Is Near Final Settlement

satisfactory both to the government and to the hierarchy. On his report Cardinal Gasparri dispatched to the Bishops another letter, hardly milder than the first. It was answered by Lord Strickland according to the Observer. Romano's answer was condemned in Vatican circles as "offensive in tone, inaccurate in substance and inadequate in argument."

An Agreement Reached

After a stormy period, an agreement was finally reached, and the protocol signed. This will have to be confirmed by the Vatican State before it becomes effective. It provides that there shall be a concurrence of his Majesty's Government in the nomination of the Bishops of Malta and Gozo, and that these bishops shall be of Maltese nationality and acceptable to the people. It is also suggested that no foreigners shall be appointed as heads of religious orders in Malta, and that no appreciable percentage of foreign religious orders may be allowed in any monastery, or convent. Moreover, "responsible ecclesiastical offices may be filled only by British-born subjects of British-born parents and educated in British institutions." The protocol provides that the Maltese and English languages are to be adopted concurrently with Italian in all curio pronouncements; encouragement is to be given to sports and to the institutions of the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts, which have been practically prohibited by the ecclesiastical authorities of Malta.

Bishop Blesses
C. D. of A. Home;
Guest at Banquet

Auburn, June 6.—The annual banquet of Court Auburn, Catholic Daughters of America, was held Monday evening, June 2, at Springside Inn, on the west side of Oswego Lake, with guests from Syracuse, Ithaca, Seneca Falls and many of the other courts. At 6:30 preceding the banquet the Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D. D., Bishop of Rochester, in his full episcopal robes went to the Catholic Daughters Home and blessed every room in the house.

The Home, located at 41 South Street, was beautifully decorated with flowers and a large crowd was present to greet the Bishop. He was accompanied by Rev. Charles Reynolds, Very Rev. Dean McGrath, Rev. Donald Cleary, Chaplain of Court Auburn and Rev. John Conway. At the banquet Bishop O'Hern was the guest speaker, and remarks were made by the other clergy present. A musical program was enjoyed, and there was the usual prizes table for the ladies of the year, seven of whom were present. The Home presented a beautiful salt and pepper shakers, and the response after the presentation was made by Mrs. Lillian Lozen Hayes, Miss Isabelle Goss, as toastmistress, received many compliments on the splendid manner in which she presided. Much credit is due Miss Reynolds, the Mother, financial secretary of the court, who acted as chairman of the banquet, and her able committee for the splendid manner in which the banquet was carried out.

Newark C. D. A.
Anniversary To Be Celebrated

Newark, N. J., June 6.—Delegates representing 100 courts of the Catholic Daughters of America in New Jersey, and many units of the order in New York, Connecticut and Pennsylvania, will take part in the 23rd anniversary celebration of Court Seton, C. D. of A. of Newark, Sunday, June 8.

Supreme Regent Miss Mary C. Duffy of Newark, N. J., international leader of the Catholic Daughters of America, will be guest-of-honor at the festivities. Miss Duffy started her career in the organization as a member of Court Seton, later becoming Regent, then State Regent, and National Director, Vice-Supreme Regent, and, at the St. Louis supreme convention, in 1923, Supreme Regent of the Catholic Daughters Society.

Under Miss Duffy's leadership, the order has doubled its membership in the United States, and Canada in the past seven years, and with 200,000 members and 2,000 subordinate courts, it is the largest Catholic women's organization in the world. In addition to the lodges throughout the United States and Canada, the Catholic Daughters have courts in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Panama Canal Zone.

CANANDAIGUA

PETER McINTYRE
Canandaigua, June 6.—At St. Mary's Church here Monday was held funeral services for Peter McIntyre, aged 59, who died in Manchester town. He is survived by three sons, John McIntyre of Rochester, and five sisters, Mrs. Ellen DeMond of Canandaigua, Mrs. Catherine Hughes, Mrs. Millie Lynch, Mrs. Agnes Egan and Mrs. Mary Kelly, all of Rochester.

MRS. HANNAH O'NEILL
Auburn, June 6.—Mrs. Hannah O'Neill, aged 96, widow of Daniel O'Neill, died Sunday night. Mrs. O'Neill was born in Ireland and came to this country when a girl. She is survived by one cousin, Mrs. Nora O'Neill of this city. Her funeral was held Tuesday in St. Mary's Church. Burial in Geneva.

Summer Schools
To Open June 30;
May Procession

The Summer Schools at the Genesee Institute, 347 N. Eaton Street, for boys, and at the Girls' Club of the Institute, 270 Merrimac Street, will open on June 30th and will be conducted for several weeks. A large attendance is expected at both schools, and excellent work will be done.

Last Thursday evening a May procession was held at the Girls' Club, with about 250 in attendance. The youngsters who took part in the procession were trained by the Sisters of the Holy Trinity, a missionary order specializing in welfare work. The children made a splendid appearance, and they delighted the people in attendance.

The club was attractively decorated for the occasion. Palms were furnished by George T. Boucher, florist, of 423 Main Street east. Mr. Boucher's interest in the club is greatly appreciated.

Frank J. Lyons, manager of both clubs, has accomplished a world of good by the excellence of his work, his fidelity to duty and his thought and care in planning events for the clubs.
