Dr. Conway Of Auburn Dies Of Heart Attack

Auburn, June 27.—Dr. Michael Patrick Conway, aged 69 years, one of the leading physicians and surgeons of Auburn for many years, died suddenly of heart disease at his summer home, Owaseo Lake, early Tuesday morning.

The death of Dr. Conway was a great shock to all Auburn and to hundreds of people outside of the city.

Dr. Conway was born in Ithaca, October 3, 1860, studied at the Catholic University of Ottawa, attended the medical school of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, Mich., and in 1883 graduated from the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Baltimore, Md.

He was a member of the American Medical Association and the British Medical Association, and he was a member of the latter organization for many years.
