

CATHOLIC COURIER AND JOURNAL

"In vain will you found missions and build schools, if you are not able to wield the offensive and defensive weapons of a loyal Catholic press."
—Pope Benedict XV.

We are the only Catholic newspaper in the city of Rochester, N. Y., published daily except on Sundays and public holidays. Our circulation is the largest of any Catholic paper in the city.

VOL 2, NO. 17.

CATHOLIC DIOCESAN PAPER, ROCHESTER, N. Y., JULY 3, 1930.

PAGE ONE

Eight Saints Canonized Sunday First For The Continent of North America

Alaskan Missionary Is Presented Plane For Mission Fields

Two Thousand People Witness Blessing and Presentation of Aircraft at Roosevelt Field, L. I., Sunday Afternoon—Pilot Starts for Pacific Coast, Then Will Go to Alaska.

PLANE IS EQUIPPED WITH INSTRUMENTS FOR FLYING IN THE ARCTIC REGIONS

Roosevelt Field, L. I., July 3.—Last Sunday afternoon 2,000 persons witnessed the blessing and presentation of a new Bellanca monoplane at Roosevelt Field. The plane will be used for mission work in Alaska, and it is the first airplane ever dedicated to work of this kind in the history of the world.

The plane was purchased by the Marquette Mission League of New York for the Rt. Rev. Joseph Raphael Crimont, S.J., Vicar Apostolic of Alaska, and Bishop Crimont came to New York to bless and dedicate the machine. Judge A. J. Talley, President of the Marquette League, presented the plane to the Bishop. Assisting in the ceremony was the Rev. William Flynn, secretary and director of the Marquette League, and formerly of Rochester, N. Y.

An Historic Event
The presentation of the plane to Bishop Crimont is rightly considered a great historic event in the life of the Church in this State. The craft is dedicated to the saving of life and the administering of spiritual comfort in the scattered missions of Alaska. It is a six-passenger plane, and it will be used to carry mission gifts from place to place, and to carry supplies and medicines to the various mission stations and hospitals.

In presenting the plane to Aviator Brother George J. Feltes, Judge Talley said: "We rejoice in the giving, knowing the uses to which this plane will be put. It is the first plane ever to be used exclusively in such a work, and you have the distinction of being the first Alaskan missionary."

Georgians Ask For Resignation Of Bishop Cannon
Newman, Ga., July 3.—Resolutions asking the immediate resignation of Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, were adopted at the quarterly conference of the First Methodist Church just held here.

There was only one dissenting vote on the resolutions which were offered by R. O. Jones, layman. Objection to the "white-washing" of charges against the bishop at the general conference in Dallas was included in the resolutions.

The action of the local conference in adopting a resolution asking the Virginia bishop to resign was said to have been the first time in the history of Methodism that the laity has dared to attack a bishop.

Reasons for Request
The following reasons for asking the resignation of Bishop Cannon were contained in the resolution: 1. "Irresponsible evil done to the church and the cause of Christianity through misguided efforts of the bishop to put the church into partisan politics."

2. "Bishop Cannon's activities as a lobbyist and his conduct and evasions before the Senate Lobby Committee of the United States Senate."

3. "Bishop Cannon's stock market dealings, calculated to bring church leadership into disrepute, lessen moral influence and impair his own usefulness as a religious leader."

Almost unanimous
Only one dissenting vote was heard on the resolution. Col. R. O. Jones, a steward, and a trustee of Wesleyan College, Macon, Ga., offered the resolution.

He expressed the hope that the resolution passed by the laymen of this church will carry its influence to the laity of other churches so that the "will of the people" may be used to "rid the church of the bishop."

He charged the bishop has foisted himself upon an unwilling laity in a manner "distasteful to a very large element of them, and that the church should be saved from wreckage by diminishing membership."

Mexico Guadalupe Plot
Mexico City, July 3.—The government announced that a plot similar to that in which Chihuahua was involved last week has been frustrated in Guadalupe. The coup was averted when plans of the leaders became known. The instigators have been arrested, the report said.

Three Views of Pope Pius XI

As a student, As a Novitiate, As He Looks Now

Five New Cardinals Are Created By Pope Pius XI; Scores Proselyting in Rome

Vatican City, July 3.—Five new cardinals were created here on Monday by Pope Pius XI, who brought his sacerdotal jubilee to a happy close. In an allocution opening a secret consistory, Pope Pius said he deplored the Protestant proselyting that is carried on in Rome, and he spoke of the trouble in the isle of Malta as the most serious question now before the Holy See.

The new Cardinals are: Archbishop Da Silva, Cintra of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; Bishop Liénart of Lille, France; Mgr. Marchetti-Selvaggi, secretary of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, former Papal Auditor at Washington; Mgr. Raffaele Rossi, assessor of the Consistorial Congregation, and Mgr. Serafini, secretary of the Congregation of the Council. The last three are Italians. They will be members of the Curia the body which carries on the administrative business of the Church. The Cardinals now consists of 31 Italians and 22 of other nations.

Malta Question Serious
In allocution opening the secret consistory the Pontiff surveyed the situation of the Catholic Church, particularly in Rome. He referred to the Maltese situation as the most serious question now before the Holy See.

The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Pope Pius Canonizes Eight American Saints In St. Peter's, Sunday

First North Americans Ever Elevated to Sainthood—Three Were Martyred in New York State, and Five in Canada—Many Thousands of Pilgrims Present at Canonization Ceremony.

BELLS IN ALL OF ROME'S 400 CHURCHES UNITED IN RINGING OUT GLAD TIDINGS

Vatican City, July 3.—Ten new Saints of God were canonized in St. Peter's Basilica here Sunday morning, eight of them North Americans, and three of them of New York State. The first of North America are the first Saints of the Continent, and hundreds of pilgrims were present at the canonization from various parts of America and from Canada.

The ceremony was witnessed by many scores of thousands of people, and they united in giving Pope Pius a tremendous warm welcome when he appeared, carried aloft on the sedia gestatoria. The welcome was intensified by the fact that stories had been published telling that the Pope was seriously ill, and he was visibly affected by the warmth of the greeting accorded him and by the evident sympathy of the people.

The Ten New Saints
The eight North American Saints are: Father Isaac Jogues, Father Jean de Brébeuf, Father Noel Chabanel, Father Antoine Daniel, Father Charles Garnier, Father Gabriel Lalemant, Brother Jean de la Lande and Brother René Goupil. The Pope at the same time proclaimed the sainthood of the distinguished Robert Cardinal Bellarmine and the Blessed Theophilus da Corti.

When the Pope appeared in St. Peter's he was greeted with applause and shouts of "Viva Pius!" ("Long live the Pope!") which were renewed with redoubled ardor when he left after imparting the apostolic benediction.

A Scene of Splendor
The canonization took place in a scene of splendor not equaled in St. Peter's. It was presided by the head of the Church. Over his head shone a white silk canopy supported by eight purple-clad attendants. Behind him swayed two balding, brownly wrinkled men who bore his sedia gestatoria.

English Editor, Active Catholic And Noted Writer
LONDON—Editor of Catholic literature in America, coming lately upon the writings of one W. J. Elyton, may be interested to know that he is an English journalist of wide experience.

W. J. ELYTON
land, he is editor of "The Rambler." He likewise contributes articles to the Dublin Review, the Hibbert Journal, and is author of "The Law of Self-Sacrifice," a biological-religious history.

Mission Week Subject Will Be "Conversion"
(Fides Service)
Louvain, Belgium, July 3.—"Conversion" will be the general topic for discussion at the Eighth Annual Mission Week, to be held at Louvain University, Belgium, August 28th to September 1st.

Special features of this year's gathering will be the participation in the procession of the Eucharistic Congress of Malines, and the presentation of a public meeting at the Colonial Exposition of Antwerp.

The Bureau of the Mission Week was founded seven years ago by Father Lallemand, S. J., now in India, and was approved by Pope Pius XI. The object of the yearly session is to give Catholic missionaries an opportunity to exchange valuable experiences, to discuss open mission problems, and to hear suggested improvements in the methods of the apostolate.

Pastor Pleased With Patronage Of Church Bazaar
The Rev. Rafael Gahda, rector of St. Nicholas Church, Syrian, is grateful to all people who helped make his recent church bazaar the success it was. Father Gahda has a very small congregation, and the help that came to him through the bazaar is appreciated by him more than words can well express.

The attendance at the bazaar was excellent, and a most helpful sum was realized. Father Gahda is especially thankful to Bishop O'Hern and to the Catholic Women's Club for their assistance, and to all priests and people who assisted him. A helpful sum was realized from the bazaar, and it will be used to good purpose in his parish.

Baseball Stars On Degree Team In Boston, Mass.
Boston, Mass., July 3.—"Kl-Kl" Cuyler and Johnny Shultz of the Chicago Cubs were members of the Third Degree team which recently exemplified the degree for a large class of candidates in Tremont Council, Boston. The degree was the second major degree which has been exemplified for the Council in less than three months.

District Deputy William F. Horderson of Boston, assisted by John W. King of Dorchester, was in charge of the degree work.

Five New Cardinals Are Created By Pope Pius XI; Scores Proselyting in Rome

Vatican City, July 3.—Five new cardinals were created here on Monday by Pope Pius XI, who brought his sacerdotal jubilee to a happy close. In an allocution opening a secret consistory, Pope Pius said he deplored the Protestant proselyting that is carried on in Rome, and he spoke of the trouble in the isle of Malta as the most serious question now before the Holy See.

The new Cardinals are: Archbishop Da Silva, Cintra of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; Bishop Liénart of Lille, France; Mgr. Marchetti-Selvaggi, secretary of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, former Papal Auditor at Washington; Mgr. Raffaele Rossi, assessor of the Consistorial Congregation, and Mgr. Serafini, secretary of the Congregation of the Council. The last three are Italians. They will be members of the Curia the body which carries on the administrative business of the Church. The Cardinals now consists of 31 Italians and 22 of other nations.

Malta Question Serious
In allocution opening the secret consistory the Pontiff surveyed the situation of the Catholic Church, particularly in Rome. He referred to the Maltese situation as the most serious question now before the Holy See.

The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Will Observe Feast Sunday Precious Blood

The feast of the Most Precious Blood will be observed in a fitting manner Sunday at the Church of the Most Precious Blood, corner Madison Street and Lexington Avenue.

The Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hara, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, will celebrate the 3:30 Mass at the Church. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend this service.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

Five New Cardinals Are Created By Pope Pius XI; Scores Proselyting in Rome

Vatican City, July 3.—Five new cardinals were created here on Monday by Pope Pius XI, who brought his sacerdotal jubilee to a happy close. In an allocution opening a secret consistory, Pope Pius said he deplored the Protestant proselyting that is carried on in Rome, and he spoke of the trouble in the isle of Malta as the most serious question now before the Holy See.

The new Cardinals are: Archbishop Da Silva, Cintra of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; Bishop Liénart of Lille, France; Mgr. Marchetti-Selvaggi, secretary of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, former Papal Auditor at Washington; Mgr. Raffaele Rossi, assessor of the Consistorial Congregation, and Mgr. Serafini, secretary of the Congregation of the Council. The last three are Italians. They will be members of the Curia the body which carries on the administrative business of the Church. The Cardinals now consists of 31 Italians and 22 of other nations.

Malta Question Serious
In allocution opening the secret consistory the Pontiff surveyed the situation of the Catholic Church, particularly in Rome. He referred to the Maltese situation as the most serious question now before the Holy See.

The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Will Observe Feast Sunday Precious Blood

The feast of the Most Precious Blood will be observed in a fitting manner Sunday at the Church of the Most Precious Blood, corner Madison Street and Lexington Avenue.

The Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hara, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, will celebrate the 3:30 Mass at the Church. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend this service.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

Five New Cardinals Are Created By Pope Pius XI; Scores Proselyting in Rome

Vatican City, July 3.—Five new cardinals were created here on Monday by Pope Pius XI, who brought his sacerdotal jubilee to a happy close. In an allocution opening a secret consistory, Pope Pius said he deplored the Protestant proselyting that is carried on in Rome, and he spoke of the trouble in the isle of Malta as the most serious question now before the Holy See.

The new Cardinals are: Archbishop Da Silva, Cintra of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; Bishop Liénart of Lille, France; Mgr. Marchetti-Selvaggi, secretary of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, former Papal Auditor at Washington; Mgr. Raffaele Rossi, assessor of the Consistorial Congregation, and Mgr. Serafini, secretary of the Congregation of the Council. The last three are Italians. They will be members of the Curia the body which carries on the administrative business of the Church. The Cardinals now consists of 31 Italians and 22 of other nations.

Malta Question Serious
In allocution opening the secret consistory the Pontiff surveyed the situation of the Catholic Church, particularly in Rome. He referred to the Maltese situation as the most serious question now before the Holy See.

The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Will Observe Feast Sunday Precious Blood

The feast of the Most Precious Blood will be observed in a fitting manner Sunday at the Church of the Most Precious Blood, corner Madison Street and Lexington Avenue.

The Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hara, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, will celebrate the 3:30 Mass at the Church. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend this service.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

Five New Cardinals Are Created By Pope Pius XI; Scores Proselyting in Rome

Vatican City, July 3.—Five new cardinals were created here on Monday by Pope Pius XI, who brought his sacerdotal jubilee to a happy close. In an allocution opening a secret consistory, Pope Pius said he deplored the Protestant proselyting that is carried on in Rome, and he spoke of the trouble in the isle of Malta as the most serious question now before the Holy See.

The new Cardinals are: Archbishop Da Silva, Cintra of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; Bishop Liénart of Lille, France; Mgr. Marchetti-Selvaggi, secretary of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, former Papal Auditor at Washington; Mgr. Raffaele Rossi, assessor of the Consistorial Congregation, and Mgr. Serafini, secretary of the Congregation of the Council. The last three are Italians. They will be members of the Curia the body which carries on the administrative business of the Church. The Cardinals now consists of 31 Italians and 22 of other nations.

Malta Question Serious
In allocution opening the secret consistory the Pontiff surveyed the situation of the Catholic Church, particularly in Rome. He referred to the Maltese situation as the most serious question now before the Holy See.

The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Will Observe Feast Sunday Precious Blood

The feast of the Most Precious Blood will be observed in a fitting manner Sunday at the Church of the Most Precious Blood, corner Madison Street and Lexington Avenue.

The Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hara, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, will celebrate the 3:30 Mass at the Church. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend this service.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

The Church of the Most Precious Blood is one of the newer churches of the Diocese, and it is in charge of the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood, who are working in the city.

Five New Cardinals Are Created By Pope Pius XI; Scores Proselyting in Rome

Vatican City, July 3.—Five new cardinals were created here on Monday by Pope Pius XI, who brought his sacerdotal jubilee to a happy close. In an allocution opening a secret consistory, Pope Pius said he deplored the Protestant proselyting that is carried on in Rome, and he spoke of the trouble in the isle of Malta as the most serious question now before the Holy See.

The new Cardinals are: Archbishop Da Silva, Cintra of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; Bishop Liénart of Lille, France; Mgr. Marchetti-Selvaggi, secretary of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, former Papal Auditor at Washington; Mgr. Raffaele Rossi, assessor of the Consistorial Congregation, and Mgr. Serafini, secretary of the Congregation of the Council. The last three are Italians. They will be members of the Curia the body which carries on the administrative business of the Church. The Cardinals now consists of 31 Italians and 22 of other nations.

Malta Question Serious
In allocution opening the secret consistory the Pontiff surveyed the situation of the Catholic Church, particularly in Rome. He referred to the Maltese situation as the most serious question now before the Holy See.

The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the interests of the Catholic religion."

Malta Question Serious
The Pontiff further asserted, "At no time has our intervention and that of the Maltese episcopate been rendered impossible by persons, actions and facts independent of our will, and contrary to our will because contrary to the