

AUBURN

D. A. Degrees First in New Home

Auburn, July 3.—On Monday evening, June 23, the first and second degrees of the Catholic Daughters of America were conferred on a class of 20 candidates at the home of the daughters in South Street. This is the first initiation held in the new home, and the committees in charge decorated the home with garden flowers.

The degree work was in charge of Mrs. Mable Wood. District Deputy from Syracuse, assisted by District Deputy Mrs. Anna Murphy of Oswego and District Deputy, Elizabeth A. Jarmon of Court Auburn. Many guests were present from Syracuse and other surrounding courts. Many expressions of praise were heard on the lovely club house. A buffet lunch was served after the initiation, and a splendid musical program given.

DANVILLE

Mrs. Hofschneider Is Convalescing

Danville, July 3.—The Rev. Leo G. Hofschneider was in Rochester Tuesday to visit his mother, Mrs. Mary Hofschneider, and found her much improved. While visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charlotte Hofschneider-Pratt in Buffalo last week, Mrs. Hofschneider was taken suddenly ill with a severe heart attack. In accordance with her expressed wish, she was taken to her home in Rochester, 109 Thordale Terrace, as soon as it was advisable to move her. Her friends will be pleased to learn she is steadily convalescing. Mrs. Hofschneider has been unusually active for a woman of 82 years and is greatly interested in current events, both foreign and this country's, and it is always a great pleasure to hear her discuss the activities and issues with which she is familiar. She has a delightful personality, which endears her to all who know her. With her two daughters, Miss Marie and Nanette Hofschneider, she is affiliated with St. Augustine's parish in Rochester.

GATES
