

Pope Is Anxious That Activities Of Catholics Should Not Become Involved With Political Bodies

Supreme Pontiff Would Keep All Catholic Activities Outside and Above All Political Parties—No Catholic Religious Party.

Vatican City, July 10.—The anxiety of Pope Pius that Catholic organizations, as such, should not become involved in any political activities, or affiliated with any political bodies, was emphasized here again on Saturday...

This statement was made when the office of the Papal Secretary of State was asked if a recent meeting of Cardinal Bourne of England and of Cardinal Verdier of France, held in Paris, was for the purpose of founding a Catholic League of Nations...

Replying to an inquiry regarding the reports published in London and elsewhere, one of the Under-Secretaries of State said no mystery had been attached to the meeting of the Cardinals...

Around the Diocese Sir Joseph Ward Twice Premier Of New Zealand

WELLINGTON

Wellington, New Zealand, July 11.—Sir Joseph Ward, world-famous statesman, champion of many progressive laws, twice premier of New England, and an outstanding Catholic, died here on Monday...

Early In Politics Sir Joseph Ward began life as a telegraph messenger boy. Then he went to work in an office. In his early twenties, his mother, impressed by his industry and energy, loaned him $4,000...

Some Startling Laws Some of the things achieved by these laws at a time when they were unheard of in other countries were: Old-age pensions, equal male suffrage, State loans to farmers and home builders, government insurance, woman suffrage...

While he was Premier, New Zealand enacted many progressive laws, and became known as "the world's legislative laboratory."

Prohibition also made much progress in New Zealand in these years, but Sir Joseph was always openly a wet.

Premier The Second Time Sir Joseph lost his seat in Parliament in 1919, but at the age of 70 went back again in 1926, and two years later he became Premier again, holding that office until his health forced him to resign a short time ago...

In 1893, Sir Joseph was married to Dorothea Schmidt. She died in 1921, leaving him four sons and one daughter. A woman's face is her fortune, when it draws a lot of interest.
