Alhambra Bake Was Fine Event At Renner's Farm

The annual clam bake of Musa in Order of the Alhambra, last Sunday afternoon at the home of George W. Renner, in West, was a fine event. About 300 Alhambrians and their friends, ladies and gentlemen, were present. The bake was an unusually excellent one, with a menu that made every guest happy. Much credit is due Chairman Daniel E. Hotzler, and all others who worked hard to make it a delightful and happy event.

A Christmas dance is scheduled for January, the date to be definitely decided later. A banquet in the Spring and a retreat during Passion Week will also be on the schedule. The Alumnae Association is planning to start a campaign for life-memberships, and to revise its constitution, under the chairmanship of Mrs. James J. Tighe.

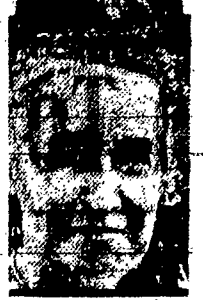

A study group is being organized in a study group in the High School. This year with the organization of most of his veteran organizations, things are expected to be bright. The Alumnae Association will play New Hope's will year in the new association for the year as follows: Mrs. A. M. Schuler, Mrs. Miss Louise Munsel and assistant secretary, Miss Katherine Kostka, Miss Ida Holman, chairman of Missions, Miss Rhea Wahl of the Big Sister group, Mrs. L. Hulbert of dramatics and Anne Dudgeon of athletics.

Dame Fashion Smiles

By Grace Jewett Austin

What an inside-outside age this is in many ways! Fashion, which for a dozen or so years ago, twenty years ago, was supposed to be dedicated to home privacy, now have found a prominent place on beach boulevards. Some one started the fashion of wearing silk hose inside out, denoting that color, sheer quality and even wear were improved by doing that. At any rate, it can make another of life's simple and harmless experiments to have the fun of trying it.

Again this season one can have the pleasure of weighing her hat on a letter scale and finding how little weight it would take. If sent by mail, the vice straw came in a few years ago, they began this good habit of hats as light as the feathers of a pigeon. The bewitching hats of tulle, some with fluted brims, do not have weight, but must be basted just a bit more than the straw hats, from the splash of the raindrops. Though this was never a genuine summer hat, invented, unless made of rubber, which was improved by the baptism of a shower.

It is a big and generous age; bigger and better of nearly everything for women—even shoe sizes!—Though we may not admit it, and the shoe-makers with exceeding craft disguise it, the foot of many an American girl is larger than her mother's was, at the same age. Heads are growing larger, there is a vogue for the large party handkerchief, fur collars and scarfs are large and fluffy, and at some types of functions this summer there will be plenty of wide-brimmed hats.

Printed paper has always held an important part in the world's history since Gutenberg invented movable type. Now it looks as though printed silks are going to hold a high place for years in the history of women's clothes.

Some are always partial to dotted material, and while the pink-dotted gown does not appear to be cast this summer for such an important part in the dress drama as in some recent years, yet it will still appear on the summer stage. The wee pin-dots, not so frequent of late, are also in the vogue for this season.

With a pretty printed silk or two, a wool or wool-and-silk suit, and a dinner-dress or two, one could travel across the continent or around the world, with a cut-up suit.

The girls followed suit is one of the aristocrats of the world, so far as women's clothes are concerned. There are suggestions that some of the customs long present in women's wear, such as "padded shoulders" may be seen in women's suits and give the essence of correctness. The minute one begins the placing of buttons on a jacket, the number of buttons, and the grave matter as to whether the coat shall be single or double-breasted, assume importance.

But that swinging pendulum should not be forgotten. If one chooses to be severe and military in suit-time, in hours of ease the opportunity for "floating" notions, "dipping" sleeve lines—or even for deep fringe. To Dame Fashion fringe always seems the last word in femininity. Men may wear many things modeled after women, but did any man of style ever appear with fringe? So here, at any rate, is one stronghold sacred to women.

Grape Jam and Jelly

By BETTY BARCLAY

No matter how much jam and jelly you may have stored for winter use, your shelf is not complete without a few jars of the ever popular grape. The short method method enables you to prepare these delicacies in quick order.

Blue Grape Jam
4 cups (2 lbs.) cooked fruit
7 cups (3 1/2 lbs.) sugar
1/2 cup pectin

Use only fully ripened grapes. Separate skins and summer pulp. Boil 15 minutes. Remove seeds by straining. Crush skins (ough skins need chopping) and mix with pulp. Add 1/2 cup water, stir until mixture boils, cover, and simmer slowly 30 minutes. Then measure fruit into large kettle. Add sugar, salt, and bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in pectin. Skim, pour quickly into hot jars, cover with 1/2 inch of hot paraffin. Roll jars to spread paraffin on sides. It cooled, add grated orange rind. If Malaga or Tokays are used, cut, seed, and crush them, and add piece of lemon with water in which they are simmered. Requires about 3 pounds of grapes. Makes about 10 eight-ounce glasses.

Blue Grape Jelly
4 cups (2 lbs.) juice
8 cups (3 1/2 lbs.) sugar
1 bottle pectin

Use only fully ripened fruit. Stem, seeds and crush thoroughly. Add 1/2 cup water, stir until mixture boils, and simmer, covered, 10 minutes. Drain through jelly bag. Measure juice and sugar into large saucepan, stir, and bring to a boil. Add pectin, stirring constantly, and bring again to a full rolling boil and boil 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, let stand 1 minute, skim, pour quickly. Cover hot jelly with film of hot paraffin, covered 10 minutes. Roll through jelly bag. Measure juice and sugar into large saucepan, stir, and bring to a boil. Add pectin, stirring constantly, and bring again to a full rolling boil and boil 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, let stand 1 minute, skim, pour quickly. Cover hot jelly with film of hot paraffin, covered 10 minutes. Roll glass to spread paraffin on sides. Malaga and Tokays set slowly. Requires about 3 pounds grapes. Makes 11 to 12 eight-ounce glasses.

Using Candles to Flavor
Many delightful flavors may be secured by making use of candles of various kinds that may be procured almost anywhere today.

An excellent addition to stewed apples, little red cinnamon candles make a hot paraffin jelly with film of hot paraffin, covered 10 minutes. Roll glass to spread paraffin on sides. Malaga and Tokays set slowly. Requires about 3 pounds grapes. Makes 11 to 12 eight-ounce glasses.

Bread Pudding Dessert
1 package lemon junket
1 pint milk
1 slice bread
butter
raisins

Remove crusts from bread, butter slightly and cut in small cubes. If you like, cube bread among dessert dishes and add a few seeded raisins. Warm the milk to lukewarm—not hot; add the lemon junket. Stir un-

Rochester Regiment, Knights of St. John to Take Part in the Annual Blessing of Graves on Sunday, Sept. 28

Word has been given out by Colonel Joseph H. Weis and Lieutenant Adjutant Joseph Wendel that all Uniformed Members of the Rochester Regiment, Knights of St. John are ordered to take part in the Annual Blessing of Graves at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery by the Rt. Rev. Bishop John Francis O'Hern. The event will take place in the afternoon, and all Knights of St. John will assemble at the Cemetery on Thursday at 2:30 o'clock sharp.

It is expected that together with the Ladies, who take part annually in this notable event, the Uniformed members of the Knights will make a very solemn appearance at the blessing of the graves of the deceased.

In commenting on the turnout of the Knights at this event, Colonel Joseph H. Weis, had the following to say: "It is indeed a pleasure for our Rochester Regiment to take part in this annual event, because it is the right and wish of our Rt. Rev. Bishop John Francis O'Hern to have us there on this Sunday and take an active part in the ceremonies. It is my wish that as many of our members as possible, who can do so, ought to turn out in large numbers on this Sunday afternoon, and show our Bishop, priests and laymen that our organization is still active and
