OBITUARY

After four score years of happy and blessed life, Anne Marie, widow of the late Patrick Barrett, died at her home, 125 Gibbs Street, last Friday morning.

Mrs. Barrett had a sincere and devoted devotion to the late St. Flower, and it was her custom also to receive Holy Communion on the first Friday of every month.

Father Volmer celebrated Mrs. Barrett's funeral Mass in St. Joseph's Church on Monday morning.

Human experience, like the stern night of a ship at sea, illustrates only the path which we have journeyed over.
