Baseball League Closes Season With Banquet

Bishop O'Hern and "Specs" Toporec Speakers at Event Held in St. Michael's Hall Wednesday Evening

The Catholic Baseball League of Rochester closed its activities for the season with a get-together dinner in the Knights of St. George quarters in St. Michael's Hall on Wednesday evening this week. The event was well attended by players in the league, pastors and assistant pastors of the various churches, interested, and by friends and boosters.

The following teams were represented at the dinner: St. Michael's, St. Margaret Mary's, O. L. P. H. Holy Family, C. Y. M. A., St. Andrew's, St. George's, Holy Redeemer's, St. Bridget's and St. Augustine's.

Bishop O'Hern spoke familiarly and with humor a clever story interwoven in his talk. He praised the spirit of the league, and encouraged the players to keep up the good work they had started.

"Specs" Toporec gave a baseball talk that was heard with pleasure by all the players. He complimented him, and they showed it by generous applause and laughter.

A feature of the evening was awarding of the championship cup, donated by the Rochester Echo, to the Holy Family team, champion of the league. The players on the team and the pastor of Holy Family Church, the Rev. Joseph G. Gill, were given a great ovation.

Divisional cups were awarded to St. Margaret Mary's team, St. Andrew's and Holy Family, winners of the North, East and West circuits.

FOOTBALL FLASHES

The Notre Dame "Irish" are descendants of people who were mixed up by the big wind in Ireland long ago. Read this line-up of the 1930 football team: Host, Hoffman, Harlas, Teriak, Volk, Carle, Schwartz, Savol, Roky, Kassy, Metzger, Brill, and a few life-savers—Donaghue, who hails from Auburn; Conley, Mullins, Butler, McMannon. Well, even at that they're a fine outfit.

Talk about big scores. It's a friend that way some teams are pulling them up. At which indicates they are picking "brains" away out of their class. Here are a few of Saturday's scores: Army 54, Furman 9, Brown 54, Worcester Poly 9, Carnegie Tech 52, Thiel 6, Colgate 90, Bethany 9, Cornell 61, Niagara 14, Fordham 71, Buffalo 6, Penn 63.

Catholic Colleges had varying fortunes Saturday. Here are some scores: Catholic U. 7, Franklin and Marshall 22, Niagara 11, Cornell 61, Fordham 71, Buffalo 6, Villanova 9, Gettysburg 3, Holy Cross 27, Providence 9, Loyola 9, Rider 7, and of course, Notre Dame 20, St. Methodists 14.

Some snappy games are booked for this Saturday. Here are some samples: Notre Dame vs. Navy, at Notre Dame, New York U. vs. Villanova, at Yankee Stadium; St. John's vs. Niagara, at Dexter Park; Cornell vs. Hampden-Sydney, at Ithaca; Rutgers vs. Syracuse, at Syracuse; Colgate vs. Lafayette, at Hamilton.

Harry Schuldrager, one of the famous "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame of other years, is coach for Villanova, and has been doing great work trying to get his team among the top notches. His game with New York U. Saturday will be watched with interest.

Fordham, aiming this year for U. S. top, will play Boston College in Boston on Monday. After that it will tackle Holy Cross, at Holy Cross, West Virginia, Detroit U., St. Mary's of California, and Bucknell. That's a hard schedule, but Fordham has an outfit that enjoys hard schedules.

Rochester U. did a fine job Saturday when it opened its new stadium by beating Oberlin 13 to 0. An attendance of 4,000 can hardly be called "the spirit of Rochester."

The Russians slipped off a 6 to 0 victory from the Czernowias of Buffalo Sunday afternoon, in the Red Wing stadium, while the Oxfordshire playing in Akron, O., held the Akron Awinings to a scoreless tie. The Reservoirs beat All-Medias 20 to 6 at Edgerton Park. Rochester has some mighty fine football material in these teams, and in others.
