The C. Y. M. A. Celebrates Its Fortieth Year

Anniversary Commemorated by Banquet in Clubhouse on Franklin Street, Old Timers Present

The Catholic Young Men's Association celebrated its 40th anniversary on Monday evening this week, and the event gave every evidence of the fact that the organization is alert, healthy, happy and progressive.

Speakers and Members

The toastmaster at the banquet was Al J. Siga and he gave happy thoughts and expressions to a happy audience.

Charter Members Present

Charter members have a happy day in the heart of the society, and Monday evening the younger members were glad to present a number of the founders of the society.

The committee in charge of the dinner and entertainment included Rufus Muler, Rev. George J. Schmidt, Ray H. Bayer, J. Eugene Leinen, Charles Gerstner, Herbert J. Heinzie, Walter D. Mura, Albert J. Mura, Fred M. Kahn, Raymond J. Bott, Herbert Brown, John C. McDowell, Lawrence Fisher, Philip Hartman and Louis J. Kuhn.

An excellent dinner was served, a fine spirit of comradeship was evidenced, and the anniversary gave great happiness to all members and their friends.

He who climbs above the cares of the world, and turns his face to his God, has found the sunny side of life.

Items of Interest from WHAM

The series of sermons which the Rev. Charles F. Shay is broadcasting over WHAM during the St. Patrick's Cathedral Hour each Sunday will bring to the radio audience a discussion of the seventh commandment, "Thou shalt not steal."

WHAM's "Kindly Thoughts" period on Thursday morning, October 23rd, at 8:15 o'clock will also be broadcast from the Cathedral during the Father Shay hour.

What is the life of the life in a series of talks when the Rev. John McCarty, S.J., will deliver during the Cathedral Hour at 8 o'clock Sunday afternoon, October 27th.

John McCarty is a member of the faculty of the University of Buffalo and is well known in the world of Buffalo. The program may be heard through WGR at Buffalo.

Laughter, extravagance and high spirits reign supreme in "Fete Boheme," Massena's picture of a student's ball, which opens the Stromber Carlson Program to be broadcast over WHAM and an NBC network by the Rochester Civic Orchestra at 10 o'clock Monday night, October 27th.

Laurel Johnson, first baritone of the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, will be presented as soloist of the evening in Turner's "Fugue for Harp and Orchestra."

The Irish ball, "A Little Bit of Heaven," will be sung by a male chorus together with songs of sea and home during the Security Trust Program over WHAM at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday night, October 28th.

The second act of Wagner's "Tannhauser" will be broadcast by WHAM and other NBC stations direct from the stage of the Chicago Civic Opera at 10 o'clock Saturday night, November 1st.

The act contains such famous arias as "Hail, Hail of Song," the bishop's "Praise of Venus," and Wolfram's "Song of a Love that is pure and free from stain."
