

Total of 31,013 Students Are Registered in Catholic Schools in the Diocese

(Continued from Page Three) Interest to educational work in the diocese, I would speak words of sincere and grateful praise. Our schools are founded on Faith and Love, and these are exemplified in all the work of our schools, in the labors and sacrifices of our devoted

Sisters, and in the zeal and sacrifice of our priests. Our buildings, with few exceptions, are modern, well-equipped and well-maintained, and are a miracle of accomplishment born from the generous souls of a devoted people who willingly make every sacrifice that their children may be taught to know, to love, and serve Almighty God.

SCHOOL REGISTRATION 1930-31

Rochester Elementary Schools

Table with columns: School Name, Boys, Girls, Total, No. of Teachers. Lists 35 schools including St. Patrick's Cathedral, St. Ambrose, St. Anthony's, etc.

Private Schools and Institutions

Table with columns: School Name, Boys, Girls, Total, No. of Teachers. Lists 7 private schools including Academy of the Sacred Heart, Nazareth Academy, etc.

Outside of Rochester

Large table listing schools across various regions: AUBURN, BROOKPORT, CANANDAIGUA, OLYDE, COLDWATER, GORNING, GENEVA, GREBOCE, HORNELL, ITHACA, LIMA, MT. MORRIS, OWEGO, PENN YAN, PIERCEVILLE, RENOVA FALLS, SPENCERPORT, WATKINS, WATLAND, WEBSTER. Includes totals for Outside of Rochester, Total in Rochester, and Grand Total in Diocese.

The High School Attendance

Table with columns: School Name, Academic Boys, Academic Girls, Commercial Boys, Commercial Girls, Total. Lists schools like Sacred Heart, Nazareth Academy, etc.

FOOTBALL FLASHES

Cornell gave its old rival, Princeton, a bad job Saturday—12 to 7. Cornell is showing some class. Buffalo nailed Hamilton 6 to 0 Saturday. William, trounced Hobart 65 to 0, and Rochester went down in the earth 9 to 12 before Wesleyan.

Notre Dame Has 600 in Uniform To Play Football

Interhall Football Gets Under Way, and Twelve Teams Have Started Intensive Practice at the University.

Notre Dame, Ind., Oct. 24.—Interhall football got under way here last week with the issuing of uniforms to candidates for the 12 hall teams, and intensive practice was started this week in preparation for the season opening Sunday. Over 600 men are in uniform at Notre Dame now including varsity and freshman candidates.

Interhall competition is divided into two leagues, each represented by six hall teams. The two circuits play through the season and winners in each meet at the end for the school championship. The purpose of the league is to give men before the varsity requirements a chance to play football and each season sees several outstanding men go to the varsity where they often develop into stars.

The new Notre Dame stadium is rectangular so that seats may be as close to the playing field as possible. No space is wasted by tracks, jumping pits, and other irrelevant equipment.

New York University, which beat Missouri 38 to 0 Saturday, has a different task on its hands for this Saturday—the unbeaten Fordham team. There will be great interest in this game, Fordham came through by a close shave Saturday with Holy Cross—6 to 0.

Colgate's defeat by Michigan, 14 to 7 Saturday, was a terrific surprise to Colgate boosters hereabouts. There is one answer—probably one of the famous "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame's varsity. He is coach at Michigan and he has the Rockne fire, dash, originality, spirit and brain.

Time brings its mutations, as well as its prohibitions. Two decades ago the roster of athletic teams in Catholic colleges boiled over with good old Irish names. Now look at them. Take Fordham and Boston College, for instance, two Jesuit institutions. The line-up of their football teams at their annual game on Monday included these names—Miskinis, Wisniewski, Slano, Elewicz, Kloczewicz, Romanowski and Vodka. Of course, there was a Kelly, and a Murphy, too, relics of the good old days.

There are only seven teams with scoreless records on the way now—Army, Dartmouth, Fordham, Gettysburg, Pittsburgh, West Maryland, Wisconsin. Harvard was the Army's toughest foe, score 20 to 0. Bates was Dartmouth's toughest, score 20 to 0. Fordham had two close calls, a Boston College 3 to 0, and Holy Cross 6 to 0. Gettysburg barely nipped out Villanova 3 to 0. Syracuse gave Pittsburgh its hardest battle, 14 to 0. Georgetown held West Maryland 10 to 0. Wisconsin rolled to 27 to 0 against Penn-Hanna.

Notre Dame rose to new heights of football superiority Saturday, when it defeated the powerful Carnegie Tech team by the comfortable score of 21 to 6. Next Saturday Notre Dame plays Pittsburgh. While Pittsburgh has not been serious upon this season, it hasn't played any particularly powerful teams except Syracuse. And Syracuse beat Hobart only by 19, and Rutgers by 27. Pittsburgh beat West Virginia 16 to 0, but Detroit, which has never been defeated in Notre Dame's class, beat West Virginia 23 to 6. So it looks easier for Notre Dame from the front gate than it did last Saturday. However, keep on praying.

There are 28 teams that have been scored upon, but are unbeaten. Notre Dame, of course, leads the list with the toughest schedule of all. Others are Alabama, Allegheny, Bowdoin, Clemson, Cornell, Detroit, Florida, Georgia, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Michigan State, New Hampshire, New York University, Northwestern, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Stanford, St. John's, Temple, Texas Christian, Texas, Utah, Vanderbilt, Washington State and Williams. Ten of these have been tied—Bowdoin, Michigan, Michigan State, New Hampshire, Ohio, Oklahoma, Stanford, Texas, Texas Christian, and Williams. The list of unbeaten teams will grow smaller from week to week.

Aquinas Squad For Basketball Starts Practice

More than 100 students of Aquinas Institute reported for the first practice work of the season in basketball last Friday, with Coach Merz in charge.

Among the players of last year's first and reserve squads that reported were: "Punk" McNally, Hughie Marks, Marty O'Neill, Joe Connelly and "Stupe" Stupkiewicz. The candidates will practice every night and it is expected that a capable quintet will be turned out before the opening game.

Resume for the Diocese

Table with columns: Category, Count. Lists Elementary Pupils in Rochester (17,783), High School Pupils Out of Rochester (10,191), High School Students in Rochester (2,110), High School Students Out of Rochester (325).

Notre Dame Has 600 in Uniform To Play Football

Interhall Football Gets Under Way, and Twelve Teams Have Started Intensive Practice at the University.

Notre Dame, Ind., Oct. 24.—Interhall football got under way here last week with the issuing of uniforms to candidates for the 12 hall teams, and intensive practice was started this week in preparation for the season opening Sunday. Over 600 men are in uniform at Notre Dame now including varsity and freshman candidates.

Interhall competition is divided into two leagues, each represented by six hall teams. The two circuits play through the season and winners in each meet at the end for the school championship. The purpose of the league is to give men before the varsity requirements a chance to play football and each season sees several outstanding men go to the varsity where they often develop into stars.

The new Notre Dame stadium is rectangular so that seats may be as close to the playing field as possible. No space is wasted by tracks, jumping pits, and other irrelevant equipment.

New York University, which beat Missouri 38 to 0 Saturday, has a different task on its hands for this Saturday—the unbeaten Fordham team. There will be great interest in this game, Fordham came through by a close shave Saturday with Holy Cross—6 to 0.

Colgate's defeat by Michigan, 14 to 7 Saturday, was a terrific surprise to Colgate boosters hereabouts. There is one answer—probably one of the famous "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame's varsity. He is coach at Michigan and he has the Rockne fire, dash, originality, spirit and brain.

Time brings its mutations, as well as its prohibitions. Two decades ago the roster of athletic teams in Catholic colleges boiled over with good old Irish names. Now look at them. Take Fordham and Boston College, for instance, two Jesuit institutions. The line-up of their football teams at their annual game on Monday included these names—Miskinis, Wisniewski, Slano, Elewicz, Kloczewicz, Romanowski and Vodka. Of course, there was a Kelly, and a Murphy, too, relics of the good old days.

Tax Exemption Of New York K. C. Will Be Fought

President of Freethinkers of America Notifies City Authorities He Will Bring a Taxpayers' Suit.

New York, Oct. 24.—Joseph Lewis, president of the Freethinkers of America, has notified the city authorities here that he will bring a taxpayer's action next week against the city in protest against the recent exemption of the K. of C. Club Hotel, at Eighth Avenue and 51st Street, from paying city taxes. Mr. Lewis recently lost a suit to restrain the Board of Education from permitting the study of the Bible in the public schools.

James J. Sexton, president of the Department of Taxes and Assessments, at his home, 257 Stuyvesant Avenue, Brooklyn, said: "We will welcome a suit on the Knights of Columbus Hotel ruling, because I am satisfied that our ruling could not have been made other wise under the law."

For several years the Knights of Columbus have applied regularly for exemption on the hotel property, and have regularly been refused. Last year, however, they changed their charter, according to evidence presented to Mr. Hilby, so that the hotel undoubtedly comes under the statutes providing exemption for charitable institutions.

Tax exemption on similar grounds has been granted to the Masonic clubhouse at Claremont and Lafayette Avenues, Brooklyn, and several other buildings throughout the city, all of them owned by fraternal orders. Mr. Sexton pointed out.

On the other hand, he said, the Knights of Columbus Building at Prospect Park West and Union Street, Brooklyn, has tried for several years to obtain exemption, but has failed to do so because of the nature of its charter.

Watts Company Does Fine Work In Dry Cleaning

Caters Especially to Individuals Who Appreciate Work of Class and Quality at Reasonable Prices.

The Watts Dry Cleaning Co. is located at 232 Cottage Street, telephone GE 814. Does work that will appeal to all customers who like work of class and quality at prices that are fair and reasonable. The company is exceedingly painstaking and careful in its work. No odor remains in the garments and there is no shrinking or stretching of the goods.

R. B. I. Players Getting in Shape For Basketball

The Rochester Business Institute basketball team has begun practice for the current season. The court activities are once again under the direction of Jack Curtin, former St. John's of Brooklyn and U. of C. court star. Although only one veteran, "Emmy" Proud of Oswego, has returned, a group of former high school stars promises of developing into a formidable outfit.

Art Landino and Charlie Hubbs of last year's outstanding Frosh club are among the candidates for guard posts. In addition "Bee" Hanna, former Aquinas forward and Niagara Freshman luminary, "RO" Milantich, last year's West High captain and Jake Riley, graduate of Tech High ranks, and brother to "Rip" Riley of Bonaventure fame, are out for the team. A number of prospects from rural high schools complete the squad and may extend their more experienced rivals for the open berths.

Games are being arranged with Niagara Freshmen, Alfred Freshmen, Bonaventure College, U. of R. Frosh. Also the usual home and home series with Mechanics and Cook Academy are planned. Mr. Ernest J. Veigel, Jr., general manager of the Institute, will be faculty adviser for the team. The manager has not yet been selected.

St. Andrew's Hall To Have a Party On October 28th

A number of ladies in St. Andrew's parish, with Mrs. George Curran as chairman, have arranged to hold a card party in St. Andrew's Church hall on Tuesday evening, October 28th. Admission will be only 50 cents, and all interested persons are invited to attend. Luncheon will be served, and there will be a number of worth-while prizes. It is hoped the attendance will be large, and the ladies promise a good time to everybody who attends.

Rummage Sale November 7, 8

A rummage sale will be held at 122 Main St. W. on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 7th and 8th, by a group of ladies of the Immaculate Conception Church.

Garms are being arranged with Niagara Freshmen, Alfred Freshmen, Bonaventure College, U. of R. Frosh.

Games are being arranged with Niagara Freshmen, Alfred Freshmen, Bonaventure College, U. of R. Frosh. Also the usual home and home series with Mechanics and Cook Academy are planned. Mr. Ernest J. Veigel, Jr., general manager of the Institute, will be faculty adviser for the team. The manager has not yet been selected.

Nor deem the irrevocable past. As wholly wanted, wholly vain, If, rising on its wrecks, at last To something nobler we attain. —Longfellow.

Capitol Theater Opens Saturday, New Management

Former Fay's Theater, Remodeled, Rebuilt, Redecorated and Made an Attractive Playhouse in Every Way.

On Saturday this week, at 10.30 A. M., the former Fay's Theater, on West Main Street, near the Four Corners, will be opened to the public after a long period of idleness. It will be known hereafter as Comerford's Capitol Theater, and will be part of the great Comerford chain of theaters, experts in the theatrical world and sure-fire promoters of first-class, clean and snappy entertainment.

The entire building has been rebuilt, remodeled, redecorated and made into an exceptionally attractive playhouse. Its convenient location, its excellent programs and its very capable management will make it a popular place for all who like the new and best in amusement. Quality, service and courtesy will predominate at all times, and the public is given a hearty and enthusiastic invitation to visit the house, see for itself the class of attractions that will be given, and how unusually attractive the theater has been made.

Capitol Theater Opens Saturday, New Management

Former Fay's Theater, Remodeled, Rebuilt, Redecorated and Made an Attractive Playhouse in Every Way.

On Saturday this week, at 10.30 A. M., the former Fay's Theater, on West Main Street, near the Four Corners, will be opened to the public after a long period of idleness. It will be known hereafter as Comerford's Capitol Theater, and will be part of the great Comerford chain of theaters, experts in the theatrical world and sure-fire promoters of first-class, clean and snappy entertainment.

The entire building has been rebuilt, remodeled, redecorated and made into an exceptionally attractive playhouse. Its convenient location, its excellent programs and its very capable management will make it a popular place for all who like the new and best in amusement. Quality, service and courtesy will predominate at all times, and the public is given a hearty and enthusiastic invitation to visit the house, see for itself the class of attractions that will be given, and how unusually attractive the theater has been made.

James J. Sexton, president of the Department of Taxes and Assessments, at his home, 257 Stuyvesant Avenue, Brooklyn, said: "We will welcome a suit on the Knights of Columbus Hotel ruling, because I am satisfied that our ruling could not have been made other wise under the law."

For several years the Knights of Columbus have applied regularly for exemption on the hotel property, and have regularly been refused. Last year, however, they changed their charter, according to evidence presented to Mr. Hilby, so that the hotel undoubtedly comes under the statutes providing exemption for charitable institutions.

Tax exemption on similar grounds has been granted to the Masonic clubhouse at Claremont and Lafayette Avenues, Brooklyn, and several other buildings throughout the city, all of them owned by fraternal orders. Mr. Sexton pointed out.

On the other hand, he said, the Knights of Columbus Building at Prospect Park West and Union Street, Brooklyn, has tried for several years to obtain exemption, but has failed to do so because of the nature of its charter.

English Actor And Playwright Buried Saturday

John L. Shine Highly Honored by Stage Friends, and British Consul General and His Wife.

New York, Oct. 24.—John Shine, aged 78, veteran British actor, playwright and producer, was buried Saturday from St. Malachy's Church in this city. He was cared for in final illness by the Catholic Guild, of which he was a member and the Guild was aided by the British Consul-General and his wife, Harry and Lady Armstrong. The two, and their daughter, Miss Frances Armstrong, led the mourners to the funeral.

Officers of the Catholic Act Guild of America, headed by Don Brian, the president, were ushers at the service.

Mr. Shine's lay and professional friends in the guild made up the majority of the eighty-five persons who attended the service. The st. people present included Walter Lawrence and John Carvel.

"One Swoody Soliman Thought," Ambrose, was sung by the contralto soloist of the church as the body was borne out for burial in the Catholic Actors' plot in Calvary Cemetery. Mr. Shine's surviving relatives, only son, J. P. Shine, a lyric writer and his brother, Walter F. Shine, well-known actor, are both in England.

Antiques Special Attention—Established 1902. Let us Reupholster that Easy Family Chair.

M. HENDERSON, Mar. Furniture Re-upholstering, Re-painting, Re-finishing. Phone GENESEE 81. 216 JEFFERSON AVE.

PHONE—GEN. 4895 JOSEPH J. LEBLANC SHEET METAL WORK

Gutters and Conductors Furnace and Stove Repairing Our Specialty, New Furnaces Installed. 331 Cottage St., Rochester, N. Y.

Where Quality MEATS come from FAHY MARKET 54 Andrews St.

SAINT OF THE WHOLE WORLD AND WONDER-WORKER OF SEVEN CENTURIES

Saint Anthony of Padua wrought so many miracles during his short career as a Franciscan preacher and such was the multitude whom he favored with his powerful intercession immediately after his death, THAT HIS CANONIZATION TOOK PLACE LESS THAN ONE YEAR AFTER HIS DECEASE. A miracle in itself. For seven hundred years he has continued attentive to petitions to innumerable clients in every land under the sun.

Not least among the Sacred Places where he delights to obtain favors for those who have recourse to him is "St. Anthony's Corner" in the Church of St. Francis on the summit of the Mount of the Atonement, Graymoor. The following testimonials from clients who have participated in the Perpetual Novena to the Saint conducted by the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement are evidence of the truth of the foregoing statement:

C. P. Worcester, Mass.—"Having sent in a petition to you to place on dear, holy St. Anthony's Shrine, I wish to tell you that about six weeks ago, when I sent it I was unable to hardly walk with a cane but now, thanks to dear, blessed, glorious St. Anthony, I walk a mile or more before getting tired with a cane and also walk just a little without a cane. I have also painted two bedrooms and prepared the wall of our room. I sincerely wish that you will publish this in the hope that a good many other poor souls who are afflicted will make a Novena to the dear, holy St. Anthony, and I am sure they will receive relief as I have done."

D. M. Maine.—"I was greatly in need of a job and as St. Anthony twice before had granted me favors, one of a job, and the other a raise, I again put my trust in him. As I have a job and the Novena is not yet over, am sending the enclosed and would like you to publish this in the "LAMP" as it may inspire some of St. Anthony's utmost-believers."

M. T. Minnesota.—"In the year 1929 I was very sick with heart trouble and fear I would never be well again. I requested you to enter my petition in the Perpetual Novena to St. Anthony and promised offering to St. Anthony's Poor if I would be well again. Now I can say my favors has been granted."

L. C. New Hampshire.—"Enclosed amount to be used for St. Anthony's Bread Fund in fulfillment of a promise I made to him if I received some money that was due me, which I received very satisfactorily."

J. M. Kansas City, Missouri.—"My brother was laid off at a plant where he was working and needed work. I started a Novena to St. Anthony and gave a small offering of ten cents a day for the poor, also I promised publication if he would hear my prayer. On the last day of the my Novena my brother had a place offered him and a far better position than he has ever had."

Address all petitions to ST. ANTHONY'S GRAYMOOR SHRINE DRAWER 84 GARRISON, NEW YORK

Nor deem the irrevocable past. As wholly wanted, wholly vain, If, rising on its wrecks, at last To something nobler we attain. —Longfellow.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS