Bath Welcomes Bishop O'Hern With Dinner and Reception When He Makes First Episcopal Visit

Mayor and Other Guests Present at Dinner—Bishop Celebrates Mass and Administers Confirmation

Bath, Nov. 7.—The Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, made his first episcopal visit to St. Mary's Church in Bath last Friday evening. The parishioners of St. Mary's held a reception and testimonial dinner in his honor on Friday evening at the Hotel Wagner. Saturday morning, All Saints' Day, the Bishop celebrated pontifical Mass in St. Mary's Church at 8 A. M., and administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class of 75 children.

Reception and Dinner
The Rev. Edward M. Lynch, rector of St. Mary's Church, the Rev. Charles Reynolds, vice Chancellor of the Diocese, and the Trustees of St. Mary's, with Bishop O'Hern, greeted all who attended the reception and dinner. More than 150 guests were present, including Wilson R. Camp, bell, mayor of Bath; Supreme Court Justice, Edwin C. Smith, Bath; Edwin S. Brown, Cohocton, Steuben County judge; Supreme Court Justice Benjamin F. Cunningham of Rochester; E. Ray Hard-enbrook, Steuben County commissioner of welfare; Prof. Howard Vanderhoef, superintendent of Bath schools; Col. Robert Bringham, governor of the Bath Soldiers' Home; Henry O. Elkins of the Bath Courier; Merritt M. Landon of The Bath Advocate; Mrs. C. H. Moore, Jr., and C. H. Moore, Jr., of the Gannett newspapers.

A Happy Occasion
The event was a very happy one. Members of Bath Council, Knights of Columbus, acted as an escort and guard of honor to Bishop O'Hern. Father Lynch presided at the dinner. Music was furnished by the Bath High School Orchestra, and they played splendidly. Bishop O'Hern gave an inspiring talk, brightened by a fund of clever stories. He spoke of the good feeling which exists in the community among all classes of people, and expressed his hearty pleasure for this. Mayor Campbell, Judge Smith, Judge Brown and Father Reynolds were other speakers, and Father Lynch was delightful as toastmaster.

Capacity Congregation
Capacity congregations were present at the services in St. Mary's Church Saturday morning. Masses were celebrated at 8 and 8 o'clock. At the latter Bishop O'Hern was celebrating. He blessed a beautiful sanctuary lamp, the gift of Mrs. Jeremiah Peters of Brooklyn, formerly of Bath. The lamp is a memorial to her late husband.

nastum classes of all kinds, Turkish bath, and many other events. It has one of the most attractive dining rooms in the city, a beautiful ball room, a mammoth auditorium, and opportunities and advantages that appeal to all classes of people, and to both sexes.

Rooms for Men and Women

There are more than 300 rooms at the Columbus Civic Center for men and women, four floors being exclusively for men and four for women. These rooms rent at reasonable rates, and are well conducted and clean and neat.

There is no fixed building in the State for banquets, reunions, wedding and family dinners, club meetings, etc. The Rochester Knights of Columbus have splendid meeting and club rooms in the Center, and the L. C. B. A., Hibernians and other societies meet in the building. A telephone call to Stone 1492 will bring any desired information about gymnasium classes, swimming classes, rooms, meals, banquets, etc., and patrons will find the service prompt and courteous.

Officers of the Center
Officers of the Columbus Civic Center are: President, John L. Keenan; vice-president, Peter Tettibach; treasurer, Fred J. Weider; assistant treasurer, Frank J. Smith; secretary, R. Frank Quinn; assistant secretary, Raymond J. Curran.

Religion is the best armor a man can have, but it is the worst cloak.

mended the Rev. Edward M. Lynch warmly for the excellent work he is doing in Bath. During his stay here Bishop O'Hern was the guest of Father Lynch at St. Mary's Rectory. He was warmly greeted by hundreds of people, Catholic and non-Catholic, and his visit will be remembered with pleasure for a long time to come.

St. John Knights Hallowe'en Party A Great Success

Pleasant Event Held in St. Boniface Hall Delighted Members and Friends—Duck Dinner December 7th.

Last Wednesday night was Hallowe'en in St. Boniface Hall on Gregory Street. At least, all the decorations concomitant with that event were very much in evidence—cats of the ebony variety, witches, ghostly figures, amber lights, a harvest moon, cornstalks and pumpkins. The party was sponsored by the Knights of St. John, Commandery No. 25. A goodly number of their friends attended, and the varied costumes presented an unusually picturesque scene. "The Devil" was seen hobnobbing chummily with friends, and on this occasion no one seemed to be fearful of his lures—or her lures, in the case. Two girls appeared in cunning baby costumes; charming Spanish señoritas, looking as if they had just come from Old Seville, strolled about with their cavaliers, and a Chinese mandarin tripped gaily to the tune of "Ro-rolling Along." Many other clever groups were seen.

Francis Spruit of Buffalo presented "The Spirit of 1776." A patriotic costume such as this was particularly apropos for him, for he has some of the most coveted war decorations in the power of this country and France to give to valorous sons. Several Buffalo friends of Mr. and Mrs. Spruit accompanied them.

Missionary Maids Plan Card Party For November 12

The American Missionary Maids will hold their first Card Party of the season, Wednesday evening, November 12th at Holy Family School Hall, Jay Street. Pinchies, Pedro, Bridge and Five Hundred will be played. There will be a prize for each table and refreshments will be served. The party will start about 8:15. The committee in charge is composed of officers of the club: Miriam Papineau, Martha Schuey, Margaret Frank, Lucy Voelkl, Florence Schuey and Agnes Hettel.

PERSONALS

Mrs. F. J. Odenbach of Highland Avenue, entertained at luncheon and bridge Tuesday.

Edwin H. Schlueter of Sea Breeze, has been re-elected President of the Sea Breeze Volunteer Fire Association.

"Billy" Bauer recently took up his duties as "chef de gare" of the Monroe County branch of the "Forty and Eight" American Legion organization.

Raymond F. Leinen, executive vice-president of the Lincoln Alliance Bank, has been made a director of that institution, an honor he has well earned by 25 years of faithful service. He entered the bank as a messenger in 1916, and advanced to his present position by merit and capability. His many friends will congratulate him on the new honor that has come to him.

Friends of Capt. James M. Mang of this city will congratulate him heartily upon his election as President of the New York State Automobile Association, at the recent convention of that body in Schenectady. Frank J. Smith of this city was elected a director of the Association, which ensures the State body the services of two capable, well posted and progressive automobile men.

Immaculate Hall To Have Comedy For Two Nights

"It Happened in Hollywood", three-act comedy, will be presented by the Immaculate Conception Dramatic Club Monday and Tuesday evenings, November 10th and 11th, in the school auditorium. Included in the cast are Ann Fennessy, Rita Gardner, Mary Skelly, Sarah Hamill, Dolores Welch, Margaret Collins, Frank Upton, Joseph Murphy, Edward Bender, Lewis Murphy, Thomas Ryan, and Leon Van Kerkhove.

The play is under the direction of Fred A. Wagner, with the Rev. Frederick Wise as general manager.

Priest-Teacher

REV. J. J. DONNELLY

The Rev. J. J. Donnelly, rector of St. Francis de Sales' Church in Denver, Col., has a class of boys and girls who solve quadratic equations and problems in higher mathematics, subjects commonly taught only in colleges. He says most youngsters are capable of doing things that would amaze conservative adults.

Throng Present At Dedication Of New Church

St. Stanislaus' Church at Bradford, Steuben County, is Dedicated on All Saints' Day.

Bradford, Nov. 7.—Last Saturday forenoon the Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, visited this village and dedicated the new St. Stanislaus' Church, just completed by the rector, the Rev. Method Szymanski, O.F.M., and his people. A capacity congregation was present at the event, including many people from Bath and other nearby places. Several priests assisted the Bishop.

The Bishop blessed and dedicated the new church to the service of Almighty God. He spoke appreciatively to the people and congratulated them heartily upon the completion of the new building. He praised the energetic work and leadership of Father Szymanski, and asked God to bless priests and people.

Following the dedication service, Bishop O'Hern confirmed a class of approximately 200 children and a few adults. His talk to the children at the service was an appealing and inspiring one, and he was heard with deep appreciation by the large congregation in attendance.

Corpus Christi Unit Card Party On November 12

Corpus Christi Afternoon Unit of the Rochester Home Bureau, will have a card party Wednesday evening, November 12th, at 8 o'clock, in Corpus Christi Hall, Main Street, East. Miss Celia Lynch is chairman, assisted by Mrs. August Dengler as vice-chairman, and the following are acting as heads of committees:

Tickets, Mrs. J. R. Magin; prizes, Mrs. William J. Woodruff; cards, Mrs. D. J. Casaretti; refreshments, Mrs. W. E. Moushag; reception, Mrs. George A. Ruedonauer.

Tickets are in the hands of Unit members, and may also be obtained at the door Wednesday evening. There will be a door prize, a prize for each table and refreshments.

Plan "Ten Nights In a Barroom" For Four Nights

The St. Francis Players will present "Ten Nights in a Bar-room", a seven-act drama in the St. Francis Xavier Hall, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evening, November 15, 17, 18 and 20. This play has not been seen on the amateur stage in Rochester for the last 23 years. Claude Roosevelt is directing the drama, assisted by eleven ladies and gentlemen, who have been seen time and again on St. Francis Xavier stage, especially in recent years.

Mt. Carmel Men Organize Branch Of the Holy Name

The Rev. Walter A. Foery, rector of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, recently organized a Holy Name Society in that church. Paul Brenola was chosen president, and Ferdinand Gilbert, secretary and treasurer.

The society will receive Holy Communion in a body on the fourth Sunday of each month, and will also conduct an open forum and invite speakers of ability to talk to the members. The forum meeting will be held on Monday evening preceding the fourth Sunday of each month. The society, it is expected, will become a vital factor in the life and work of the parish.
