"My Peace I Give Unto You."
The wind that blustered idly all the day Comes in to rock the cradled world to rest; And birds, singing their golden-flighted way, With wanton wing-games circle near their nest. Peace broods across the sky, and learns white arms Upon the distant hillsides in the West. With eyes deep as night's own she casts her charms, And man's heart thirsts to suckle at her breast.

"Not as the world lives" said He unto them, The storm-winds still shall leap their rugged course, And hate's fierce rain with bleeding jewels shall gem Each blade and leaf, and marvels of his force— The devil's—small with rack and horror weep— Confession from their lips— Christ's Cross is blest!

November Surprises
By BETTY BAROLAY
Very often the Thanksgiving dinner or any November dinner may be greatly enhanced by the appearance of some unusual dish or flavor. Here are two suggestions that fit very nicely into the season:

Coconut Stuffing
2 bouillon cubes (chicken flavor), 1 cup hot milk, 1 cup bread crumbs, 2 cups coconut, 4 tablespoons celery, finely cut or 1 teaspoon celery salt, 1 1/2 tablespoons parsley, fine cut, 1 teaspoon sage, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon onion juice, 1 egg, slightly beaten, 2 tablespoons butter, melted.

Dissolve bouillon cubes in hot milk. Combine with remaining ingredients, mixing lightly. Use for stuffing duck, goose or chicken. Or turn into ground casserole, brush with melted butter and bake in moderate oven (350 F.) 35 minutes or until done.

Patty Cheese Salad
2 packages (6 ounces) cream cheese, 1 cup shredded coconut, Roll cream cheese into 12 small balls. Roll each ball in coconut, which has been either toasted or tinted. Arrange in nests of crisp lettuce, allowing 3 balls to each serving. Garnish with mayonnaise. Serves 4.

Griddle Cakes and Oatmeal Cookies
During cold weather our bodies need heavier food so that those internal engines may be enabled to keep us warm. Here are two recipes for good old-fashioned dishes prepared in a new-fashioned way.

Griddle Cakes
1 cup special cake flour, sifted
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg, well beaten
1 cup thick sour milk or butter-milk
1 teaspoon melted butter or other shortening.

Sift flour once, measure, add soda and salt, and sift again. Combine egg and milk and add to fine flour gradually, stirring constantly. Bake until smooth. Add shortening. Bake on hot, well-greased griddle. Serve hot with butter and syrup. Makes 12 griddle cakes.

Oatmeal Cookies
1 1/2 cups special cake flour, sifted
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon cloves
1/2 cup butter or other shortening
1 cup sifted brown sugar
1 egg, well beaten
1 1/2 cups oatmeal
1-3 cup milk

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and spices, and sift together three times. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually, and cream well. Add egg. Add oatmeal and flour, alternately with milk, mixing well. Drop by teaspoons on greased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 18 to 20 minutes. Makes 4 dozen cookies.

Chinese Priest Beheaded In Presence of Captive Nuns By Communists in Kiangsi
Army of Thirty Thousand Swoops Down On Kianfu, Captures Three Nuns and Two Priests, and Kills One of the Native Priests

Shanghai, Nov. 21.—Rev. Paul Cheng, a native Chinese priest, captured by bandits, was beheaded on the steps of the Kianfu (Catholic Church, Province of Kiangsi by soldiers of an army of 30,000 Communists who swooped down upon Kianfu, captured the city and with it three French nuns, one French priest and Father Cheng. The bandits compelled the French priest and the three nuns to watch the execution of Father Cheng. His head was severed from his body by a huge sword, and the Sisters and priest were told they would receive the same treatment unless $20,000 ransom is paid for each one of them within a few days. The murder of Father Cheng has caused great excitement in the Kiangsi Province, where he was well known.

Great fears are felt for the Sisters and the French priest. It is impossible to pay the ransom asked, and the bandits, flushed with victory and hungry for blood, may carry out their threats against their helpless captives.

The capture of Kianfu is said to have been a shock to government officials. It had been reported that the Communists were surrendering to national troops, and it was thought that all danger from large bands of bandits was at an end.

The Rt. Rev. John A. O'Shea, C.M. D.D. is head of Catholic activities in this province. Bishop O'Shea has been in the bandit-infested zone all summer, with approximately a score of priests and Sisters, and fears have been felt for the safety of these missionaries many times.

Various Legends Tell of the Origin of Music
Music, most authorities agree, had a vocal origin. Some believe man attempted to imitate the sounds of birds, others say his melody developed from hunting calls or other vocal signals employed in primitive life. A Chinese legend goes so far as to declare that a miraculous bird provided the musical scale, while the Japanese say music was devised by the gods to lure the sun-goddess from a cave where she had retired. The Arabian legend has it that Modhar, a camel driver, fell from his seat and hurt his arm. In pain he called out "Ja, Jodah." His fine voice stirred up the camels so that they moved more quickly. So (who could not guess the result) from that time all camel-drivers sang.

It is interesting to note that the Greek word from which "music" is derived was used by that people to embrace all the arts over which the Nine Muses were held to preside. Hence, "Music" in those days included all those branches of education concerned with the development of the mind as opposed to the body. What moderns specifically call music, they referred to as "harmony."

If all the world were music
Our hearts would often long
For our sweet strain of silence
To break the endless song.
—Henry van Dyke.

Color of Planets
Venus, Jupiter and Mars are of different colors. Venus is a silvery white, Jupiter is yellowish and Mars is red. The hue of planets represents their true colors, hills the color of stars is caused by the temperatures of their surfaces. Observed through a telescope, Venus is seen to be covered with brilliant white clouds, while the clouds of Jupiter are saffron. Mars is not obscured by clouds, however, and through a telescope its surface can be observed. This shows wide expanses of what has been described as red desert, possibly a red sand or rock.

Some Wood Will Sink
The leaves of some trees turn red in autumn like the maples and maples, says Forester and Mankind. Others turn yellow like the ash and tulip tree. Some have leaves so gigantic they could be wrapped about one like a robe and others leaves that are hardly bigger than your fingernail. Some trees have wood so soft you can tear it apart in your hands and other wood so hard no nail can pierce it, and so heavy it sinks in water like a stone.
