Five New Monsignors Are Named by Pope Pius XI For Diocese of Ruch

St. Alphonsus Church, Auburn, Is Dedicated

Fine New Edifice Is Crown of Years of Labor by People of Parish

BISHOP OFFICIATES AT THE DEDICATION

Congregation Started Parish Seventy-seven Years Ago in a Barn-Old Church Closed

day by the Rt. Rev. John Fran-cis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, in the presence of a capacity congregation of parishioners and friends of the parish. The dedicatory ceretouched the hearts of all the people, and the day was an eventful and historic one in the life of the parish.

A Great Congregation

A great congregation was present including Mayor Oshorne of Auburn and other city officials. Bishop O'Hern was escorted from the new church rectory adjoining the church by a guard of honor from the Fourth Degree Assubly of the Knights of Columbus. A large delegation of at Rochester assisted the Bishop the dedicatory service touch of beautiful sentiment yas attached to the dedication. leventy-seven years ago, when the first church was dedicated, Mrs. Angeline Baker, then a little girl placed the first bouquet upon the alplaced the first bouquet upon the altar of the new church, and it was there during the dedication service Bishop O'Hern spoke happily of this event, and referred to Mrs. Baker as the ace of the congregation of St Alphonsus' Church.

Bishop O'Hern's Address Bishop O'Hern gave a timely and excellent talk to the large congregation, and he was heard with unusual interest and keen appreciation spoke as follows

To-day we are dedicating this beautiful new Temple of God in which the St. Alphonsus congregation

(Continued on Page Six)

Pope Pius XI Feeling Fine

ROME. - Vatican authorities in their own way said "he never fooked better" when the Holy Pather posed. for, the a c companying picture. The occation was the installation of a new and proved phone service for the Vatican, an improvement that means disconthousand year messenger ervice. Other phone were also added a time for the use of Pius XI. ruler of 300,000,000 people, he finds his days all too short for his manifold duties.

Court Denies Writ To Compel Bible Reading

Seattle, Wash. Dec. 26.—The Supreme Court of the State of Washington has defiled the petition for a writ to compel the Board of Education to include Bible reading in the public school curricula. least once every school day in every instruction in the Bible be given on at least two school days of each At the termination of this visit, thon declined to take action on the petition, saying that it was without authority to make a decision of any the battery.

In poard of Education on the invention on two separate trains, as petition, saying that it was without authority to make a decision of any the battery.

In petition, saying that it was without authority to make a decision of any the battery.

In petition because it invention is designed to do invention is designed to do invention is designed to do invention because it involved a constitutional question.

At the termination of this visit, law, Hopeh, China. when Sister ficial prayer of the Church, the Holy Governors of the Chapter), Walter A, been designed to take action on the invention on two separate trains, as Mr. Smith expressed his pleasure at Claudia, the first member of the Sacrifice of the Mass.

Breheny, Maurice Conveys, John J. Bellen, Smith expressed his pleasure at Claudia, the first member of the Sacrifice of the Mass.

Breheny, Maurice Conveys, John J. Breheny, Mar. Breheny, Candia, The first member of the Chapter of the Mass.

In petition of the Chapter of the Sacrifice of the Mass.

In petition of the Mass.

In provided a constitution of the Mass.

In petition of the Chapter of the Chapter of the Mass.

In petition of the Mass.

In provided a constitution of the Mass.

In petition of the Chapter of the Chapter of the Mass.

VERY REV. J. J. BLOOMER

REV. GEORGE V. BURNS

REV. JOSEPH S. CAMEBON

new St. Alphonsus' Church in this city was dedicated last Sunday by the Rt. Box International Cayuga County Doctors Addressed by Bishop O'Hern At Their Annual Meeting

mony, beautiful and impressive, Excellent Talk on Care of Sick and Development of Hospital Work Through the Ages Is Heard at Annual Dinner of Medical Society

> Auburn, Dec. 26 .- At the 125th annual meeting of the Cayuga County Medical Society held in the Pompeian Room of the Hotel Osborne on Thursday evening last week, the Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, was the guest Johnson, Dr. Alfred K. Bates, Dr. Howard L. Davenport, Dr. William E. Walsh, Dr. Louis F. O'Nelll, Dr. L. B. Sisson. Dr. C. their guests.

for each -- may be considered as one ple that he issued his great teach of the great civic virtues in no ings of the care of the sick. for the well-being of her offspring prompted her to study ways of mak ing them comfortable and better, and restoring them in the family circle, well. Her sheltering arms were the first hospital. In ancient times, even And Very Busy in the days of Greece, the deformed and the diseased newly born were exposed to the elements, and to the Al. Smith Visits wild beasts of the land and of the exposed to the elements, and to the air that they might die; and among the very poor, the aged, it has been said, were driven forth from the home and left to die. As Civilization Progressed

"As civilization progressed, there came into being the forerunners of Florence Sheridan Is a Demomedicine. Aesculapius, the reputed son of Apollo, was the god of healing and his disciples cared for the sick in his temples. The ill sometimes slept in the temples and as a curative measure were allowed to make appeal to the god for the reswounded and for the women in libor, at least one "mutual friend." and a shelter for the dying was pro-

Ireland Will Spend $125,000 On New Invention

Dublin, Dec. 25.—The Dail has enth floor, Miss Sherid appropriated 25.000 pounds, about $125,000, for the purpose of further esting the electric storage battery invented by James Drummr, a young dan. "Te Irish scientist and a brother of crat, too." The me Professor of Theology at St. Mac-Mr. Smith hat in hand, was presented There was submitted to the Board been announced. The government of the phone girl. When Mr. Smith of Education a petition asking it to originally intended to build only one require that the Bible be read at train on which to test the battery. but, because of the great importance public school in the state and that attached to the battery and the possibilities it holds for a revolutionizing effect upon transportation, it has school week. The Board of Educa- been decided, it was said, to test the economical method of operation.

Bishop O'Hern's Address was heard the so-called father of medicine, was ceived a particularly warm welcome with a great deal of appreciation by born 460 B. C., in a building near from the men of the Brigade, in the physicians and their guests. He the temple in the Island of Cos. to which a near relative of the Cardinal rejoice with exceeding great joy." which his mother had been assigned, held high office. The Brigade is as-"As the regard for the welfare of and as he grew up and made bold to "As regard for the welfare of feach the natural laws of disease Dublin and to Ireland, others is an evidence of fine character against the view that illness was due ter, so thoughtfulness of the people to anger of the gods, or maliciousof a community each for all and all ness of demons, it was from the tem-better way may this thoughtfulness, . "Although there is not great evi be expressed than in the care of the dence of institutions for care of ill, the injured and crippled, in kind , the ill in Roman bistory, but we learn ness for the mentally and physically that sick slaves of Rome were redistressed, in watchfulness of the ice imoved to an island in the Tiber; that fant and in the care of the aged. In Caesar removed the sick and woundprimitive times the mother was un-ed to quarters in town before a batdoubtedly the only physician, the tle, and that chariots followed his only nurse of the ill. Her concern enemies to transport the sick and wounded to places for treatment.

Teachings of Christ "It remained for the teachings of thrist to instill in the hearts of peo-

(Continued on Page Seven)

Telephone Girl In N. Y. Hospital

crat, Too, and She Got as Much Attention as Vincent Astor.

New York, Dec. 26. Florence witness the services or rites, and to Sheridan, Bronk telephone operator is just as important as Vincent Astor toration of their health. No person A1. Smith demonstrated that last was allowed to die in the temple, nor week. Florence never met Vincent within their walls was a child born. Astor, one of the wealthiest young About the temples buildings were men in the world, but she can tell erected for the ill, the injured and her friends that she and Vincent have - Both Mr. Astor and Miss Sheridar have been convalescing at the New York Hospital, 8 West Sixteenfli Street, from operations. Ex-Governor Smith, as a friend of long standing of Mr. Astor's, visited the financier at the hospital a few day

As he left Mr. Astor's room and went down the corridor on the seventh floor, Miss Sheridan's nurse "Why, there's Governor

she exclaimed. "Bring him in," cried Miss Sheri

The message was delivered and later for another visit with Mr. Astor he stopped of his own accord before Miss Sheridan's door. He was duly announced and the word came back Miss Sheridan will see you. Governor

At the termination of this visit the Christmas celebration.

New York Eigemen To Send 200 Men To Dublin 1932 Men Will March in Uniform

In Eucharistic Congress Procession - Big Delegation From Cleveland.

to the I'. S. A. four years ago to atsured of a most cordial welcome to 500 From Cleveland, O.

John A. King, representative of Messrs. Collver-Miller Co . Cleveland, Ohio, booked, at the Congress offices during the week, 500 places for a party of pilgrims who are coming to Dublin for the Eucharistic Congress in 1932, from the Diocese of Cleve land. It is expected that the party will be accompanied by the Bishop, the Right Rev. Joseph M. Schrembs. D. D the Vicar-General of Cleveland the Right Rev. Magr. James J. J. Mc-Fadden, will be in charge of the parand is 64 years of age.

from travel agents in the U.S. A.

Abbott

RT. REV. VINCENT TAYLOR. 0.S.B.

The Rt. Rev. Vincent Taylor O.S.B., is Abbot of Belmont Abbey N. C., and is a zealous and capable worker for the Faith

Chinese Girl Made Her Vows On Her Death Bed

Ankuo, China, Dec. 26. -A touchkuo, Hopeh, China, when Sister ficial prayer of the Church, the Holy Governors of the Chapter), Walter At been opened. Claudia, the first member of the Sacrifice of the Mass."

Breheny, Maurice Conway, John F. Jeph, Fort ing to her death.

Father Burke's Tribute To Rev. Lewis J. O'Hern At Funeral in New York

Paulist Father, in Beautiful and Appealing Way, Outlines Characteristics of the Life and Work of Bishop O'Hern's-Brother.

The sermon at the funeral of the Rev. Dr. Lewis J. O'Hern, C.S.P., of Washington, D. C., in the Church of St. Paul the Rev. John P. Dublin, Dec. 26.—The mem- Apostle, New York City, on Monday morning last week, was St. Monica's Chart bers of the world-famous New delivered by a friend of many years standing, the Rev. John J. the Rev. George. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, was the guest bers of the world-tamous New speaker of the society, and he gave a splendid talk on the care of the sick and the development of hospital work through the ages, and the event was a delightful and memorable one. Bishop O'Hern wore his episcopal robes. He was escorted to the room by the reception committee of the society, composed of Dr. by the reception committee of the society, composed of Dr. Frederick Sefton, chairman; Dr. G. Perry Ross, Dr. Raymond F. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson, Dr. Alfred K. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson, Dr. Alfred K. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson, Dr. Alfred K. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson, Dr. Alfred K. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson, Dr. Alfred K. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson, Dr. Alfred K. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson, Dr. Alfred K. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson, Dr. Alfred K. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson, Dr. Alfred K. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson, Dr. Alfred K. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson, Dr. Alfred K. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson, Dr. Alfred K. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson, Dr. Well Pr. Lange R. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in their unforms.

Johnson Dr. Well Pr. Lange R. Bates, Dr. Howard I. Davenport, Dr. Sacrament in the Room of the Ruse and Eather Ruse and E This announcement recalls that Masses, and Father Burke preached the normen in New York a in the Uni F. McCarthy presided, and introduced him to the doctors and when the late Cardinal O'Donnell beautiful and appealing tribute. The Courter & Journal in for and others of the Irish Bishops went tunate in being able to publish it in full, as follows:

salvation; and her holy ones shall waters was his love for his devo- ing the sievation of i. C.XXXI, 16.

working with another fit one to speak of his character, then am i his mental gifts, his optimism. his from Rome.

well fitted to speak of Father Lewis of Hern, at whose funeral Mass we are assisting. If personal presence and intimate conversation on that threshold of death be also such a consideration, then should I be wall never have led him to loin a religious forms. in the life of a priest there is al- well-being of souls.

Schrembs was born at Ratisbonne dence. To all of is the common tion are being received at present no peculiarities, no independences, through and in His living visible fully he lived it, and joyfully did he Church But just as each one of us consummate it. is an 'individual, will have an individual life for all eternity, just as each is a star with its own measured brilliancy in the common firmament of the everlasting Christ, so also is there a choice or a bestown!-call i what you will -of treasures, where by a man makes this mystery or that mystery of Christ the great Joy, the great truth, the consuming bond of love which he lives and strives to live the more.

His Devotion to the Mass "The treasure which Father

Buffalo Bishop Orders Prayers For The Needy

Buffalo, Dec. 26,—The fit. Rev. William Turner, D.D., Bishop of Buffalo, has ordered that, beginning with the Feast of St. Thomas the Apostle, December 21st, and until further notice, the prayer "pro qua-cumque necessitate" be recited or sung at Mass whenever the Rubrics permit. In a letter to the clergy. the Bishop states that he is confident that the priests throughout the Dio cese, both by their individual efforts and by co-operation with the Agen-cies of the Catholic Charities of the Diocese, are doing all they can to relieve the distress now prevailing among the people. "To further ployment Bureau and to the distributes efforts," he adds, and "to remove the cause of the conditions with. which we all deplore, we should, acing ceremony was recently witnessed cording to the Catholic custom, inin the convent of the Teresians, a na-voke the Divine assistance, and we of Public Works William J. Flynn, Fort Go tive congregation of sisters of An-can do that best in the supreme of twho is Chairman of the Board of combination tive congregation of sisters of An- can do that best in the supreme of-gation and of the people, frequently," Smith and P. Frank Vanderhon.

Father Burke's Sermon O'Hern chose, the luner well from "I will clothe her priests with which he drank those strengthening tion to the Holy Sacrifice of the to the rank of don Mass. We know his natural gifts, which carries the title his whole-heartedness, his simplicity, end mondigaor will be "If many years of living and his whole-heartedness, his simplicity, end monalgaor will be working with another fit one to his happy, open manner. We know coint of the practal per qualification, then should I be well never have led him to join a religfitted to pay tribute to the stawth our community, to seek religious of his life and to its crowning. ways some secret, personal bond life he had varied fields of labor with Christ that is the inner well unusually difficult fields of labor: from which he drinks living waters, secret by which he kept that goo springing up unto eternal life. This will for man, that featernal charity is his own; this is his spiritual sc- which scaled his lips against his telborn, but, as his name indicates, his cret; and of this others may at best lows, the strength by which he carroots are in County Donogal see but the effects, the external cyl- ried on-was his inner love, his means of grace are supreme. We in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Many applications for accommoda- are saved as a kingdom. There are He made it not only the inspiration of his life, but his life itself. Sucrino exceptions in the Christian life fice though it be, it became for him as that life is ordained by Christ as it was for our Lord, a joy. Joy-

> "In setting forth the chronicle of his life's work, we may recite the facts; we may cover the fields. We eannot in words bring to you the spirit which illumined all; the gladness with which he journeyed and

(Continued on Page Seven)

"Met" Stars Sing For Charity Fund Of N. Y. Chapter

Benefit Performance of "La Gioconda" at Opera House on

New York City, Dec. 26—With Sayanah, Ga. Rosa Ponselie, Glocomo Lauri-Volpi and Guiseppe DeLuca in the principal roles, the Metropellian Opera Company on Saturday evening December 20th, staged its second annual benefit performance in the interestant of the charity fund of New York will be placed on Chapter, Knights of Columbus. The Chapter, Knights of Columbus. The Chapter comprises the forty-two councils of Manhattan and Brown, Frederic Francis, of Brownville, is chairman of the organization.

For their second venture, Knights chose Ponchtelli's "La Gio conda," the proceeds to be devoted t the expansion of the work of the Em ployment Bureau and to the distrib On the committee with Mr. Francis are Mayor Walker, Commissioner