Nun Gives Life When Hospital Catches on Fire

Sister in French Hospital Sacrifices Herself to Help Save Sick Patients From The Flames.

Paris, Jan. 16.—The little town of Fleury les Aubrais paid tribute Saturday to the heroism of a Catholic nun, Sister Therese Augusta who sacrificed her life on Friday in an attempt to save the inmates of the Catholic hospital there from a fire which threatened to destroy the building.

The flames broke out suddenly on a lower floor, cutting off escape by the stairways. Sister Theresa made a rope of sheets and started to climb down so that she could summon firemen whose quarters were at some distance. Halfway down she was overcome by smoke, lost her hold on the improvised rope, fell to the ground and broke her spinal column. She died immediately.

Neighbors, seeing the smoke and hearing the cries of the inmates, brought the firemen who extinguished the blaze after rescuing all the patients. Another nun, Sister Marie Patrice, died of a heart attack during the fire.

Separate Jacket Smart for Spring and Summer

The separate jacket is the thing! Whether of velvet, self-collared or trimmed with fur, or of chiffon, it is a member of the smart spring and summer wardrobe.

Capes also accompany some of the lace frocks or those of chiffon which are combined with lace. They are often finished with long scarf collars. Both cape and jacket allow the formal frock to make a more informal appearance than its sleeveless model would indicate.

Nourishing Egg Dishes

By BETTY BARCLAY

Each woman who owns a hen or purchases eggs from her corner grocer will want to try these novel egg recipes for cold weather dishes:

Cottage Cheese Pie

Line a deep pie plate with pie crust and add the following; mixed together in the order given.

1 cup cottage cheese
1 cup shredded cocoanut
9 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon nutmeg
2 cups milk or enough to fill the pie plate

Bake as you would custard pie, being careful to reduce the heat to insure a firm consistency.

Omelet Mel Ost

1 tablespoon flour
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon salt
1-16 teaspoon pepper
4 eggs
1 tablespoon butter
6 tablespoons thinly shredded cheese

Mix flour, milk, salt and pepper and add eggs beaten very light. Melt butter in frying pan and when hot turn mixture into pan. Bake in a 400-degree F. oven about 25 minutes until golden brown and well puffed. Sprinkle cheese over top and return to oven until melted. Fold omelet into roll, turn on hot platter, and serve immediately.

Honey Mousse

2 oranges
1 teaspoon granulated gelatine
1 tablespoon cold water
1 cup strained honey
2 cups heavy cream

Peel oranges, removing inner membrane with rind, and cut in small pieces. Soak gelatine in cold water; heat the honey; add gelatine, stirring until dissolved; add oranges; remove from fire, and when cold, add cream, beaten stiff. Put in mold; pack in equal parts ice and salt, and let stand three or four hours.

Orange Sponge Cake

2 egg yolks
4 tablespoons orange juice
½ Tablespoon lemon juice
¾ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon grated orange rind
2 egg whites
1 cup flour
¼ teaspoon soda

Beat egg yolks with orange and lemon juice until thick and yellow; mix sugar and grated orange rind, and add, gradually, to egg yolks; add stiffly-beaten egg whites, and cut and fold in flour, sifted four times with soda. Pour into a buttered and floured cake pan, and bake in a moderate oven about forty minutes.
