

Final Installment Of Pope's Encyclical On Christian Marriage

(Continued from Page Six) what is their, who indulged even their impure desires, will be in the married state that they were before...

The Home a Paradise

It will help them if they have toward their cherished offspring as God wills: that is, that the father be truly a father, and the mother truly a mother...

Choosing a Partner

To the proximate preparation of a good married life belongs especially the care in choosing a partner. On that depends a great deal whether the forthcoming marriage will be happy or not...

Help Married Mothers

We are sorry to note that not infrequently nowadays it happens that through a certain inversion of the true order of things, ready and bountiful assistance is provided for the unmarried mother...

United Authority

This matter might well be an example and a demonstration to all, even in this our own day, in which, and to say, the absolute separation of the civil power from the Church...

Prayer and Benediction

May the Father, "of whom all paternity in heaven and earth is the name," who strengthens the weak and gives courage to the pusillanimous and fainthearted...

Help Is Necessary

So in the first place an effort must be made to obtain that which our predecessor, Leo X., of happy memory, has already required, namely, that in the State such economic and social methods should be set up as will enable every head of a family to earn as much as according to his station in life is necessary for himself, his wife, and for the rearing of his children...

Religious Authority

For the preservation of the moral order neither the laws and sanctions of the temporal power are sufficient, nor the beauty of virtue and the exhortation of its necessity; a religious authority must enter in to illumine with truth to direct the will, and to strengthen his man's frailty by the assistance of divine grace...

No Peril to State

There will be no peril to or diminution of the rights and integrity of the State from its association with the Church, such suspicion and fear is empty and groundless, as Leo XIII already has so clearly set forth...

Duty of the State

If, however, for this, private resources do not suffice, it is the duty of the public authority to supply for the insufficient forces of individual effort, particularly in a matter which is of such importance to the common weal, touching as it does the maintenance of the family and married people...

Prayer and Benediction

May the Father, "of whom all paternity in heaven and earth is the name," who strengthens the weak and gives courage to the pusillanimous and fainthearted, and Christ our Lord and Redeemer, "the institutor and perfecter of the holy sacraments," who desired marriage to be made the mystical increase of His own ineffable union with the Church, and the Holy Ghost, charity, the light of hearts and the strength of the mind, grant that what we by his letter have expounded concerning the holy sacrament of matrimony, the wonderful law and will of God respecting it, the errors and impending dangers, and the remedies with which they can be counteracted, all will perceive, will admit with a ready will, and by the grace of God will put into practice, so that fruitfulness dedicated to God will flourish again vigorously in Christian wedlock...

K. of C. Fathers and Sons Dinner Will Be Featured By Notre Dame Football Stars

Tom Conley, Captain of Last Year's Great Team, and Archie Schwartz, All-America Halfback, Will Speak at Event.

Tom Conley, Captain of last year's great Notre Dame football team, and Archie Schwartz, All-American halfback, and one of the greatest players who ever wore a Notre Dame uniform, will be speakers at the annual Fathers and Sons dinner of the Rochester Knights of Columbus, to be held Monday evening, February 2d, in the Columbus Civic Center Auditorium. Announcement of their acceptances has just been made by Joseph P. Flynn, general chairman of the dinner.

The very efficient Chairman, Mrs. Florence Munding, was thanked, together with her committee for their perfect arrangements. The entertainment for the dinner consisted of community singing, and vocal solos by Miss Helen Selbert, accompanied by Miss Marcella McKay. These two young ladies also led in the Community singing. Mrs. Henrietta D. Lansing entertained with several readings, which were greatly appreciated. After the dinner, the guests were entertained by a pivot card party.

Priest Gets Boy From Bronx River, But the Boy Dies New York, Jan. 23.—Rescued by a priest from the Bronx River, Ralph Orleans, five, died in a hospital here, after police had worked over him with an inhalator for more than two hours. A man who had tried to save the boy and had fallen into the river himself, was pulled out by policemen. The priest left without giving his name.

CATHOLIC BOWLING LEAGUE

It's a regular see-saw race for high places in the League. St. Boniface continues to tighten its grip on first place. The C.V.M.A. team moved from third to second, while Holy Redeemer and St. Ambrose tied for third place. The Knights of St. George and St. Andrew teams are tied for fourth place, the St. Andrew team moving from seventh place. The O.L.P.E. team stays in fifth place, while the St. Francis team drops a little lower into the cellar.
