It may seem paradoxically strange, but it is true that in the measure in which a soul advances on the path to perfection, so in that measure does it become more and more conscious of the malice of sin.

Choral Concert On March 10th, Columbus Hall

Catholic Women's Club Singers Are Preparing to Give Splendid Program to Lovers of Music.
 Thirty-five women, and one male voice will be heard in the Lenten Choral Concert of the Catholic Women's Club Chorus when the singers appear in the Columbus Ballroom on Tuesday evening, March 10th. The program will be made up of music for chorus only, although incidental baritone solos in the cantata "The Land of Heart's Desire" will be sung by Donald Merriam of the University Glee Club, and other incidental parts by a quartette within the Chorus composed of Mrs. Joseph H. Eilers, Mrs. Elmer Loritz, Miss Elizabeth Langtan, and Miss Lillian Moore.

The following are the members of the Chorus who will appear under the direction of Theodora F. Fitch with Laura Wilbur Remington, accompanying: Molly Bracree, Irene Cotter, Elizabeth Donnelly, Genevieve Donegan, Onelta Devlin, Agnes Eilers, Ruth Eilers, Lorita Flasher, Marie Frayer, Teresa Gore, Nonette Hofmeister, Mae G. Hughes, Bernadine Hughes, Margaret Kelly, Elizabeth M. Lanigan, Martha Loritz, Lillian Moore, Catherine McInerney, Mildred Rooney, Anna Ryan, Mary Ryan, Edith Ruedensaur, Pauline Rampe, Frances Ronslaske, Mary Sheehan, Kathryn Smith, Evelyn Schuler, Nellie Swinich, Susan Troy, Anne Lankey, Dolores Wadman, Irene Wogman.

Tickets may be had from the Chorus, and are on sale at the Club House and the Columbus Civic Center.
 At the Club House next week the following events will take place:
 On Monday evening, the Business Women's Group will meet for its monthly supper and business meeting.
 On Tuesday afternoon and Thursday evening the speech classes conducted by Mrs. Sobie will have for their subjects, Tuesday, "Place of Slang in Daily Speech"; Thursday, "A Sense of Humor—What is it?"
 The Board of Directors will have its monthly meeting on Friday evening.

On the five Tuesdays of March under the direction of Mrs. Emily O'Donnell, Club members who will assist at the Blind Craftshop on Monroe Avenue with the work of the blind are: Mrs. Wendell E. Andrews and Mrs. George Emmeringer, March 10th; Mrs. F. B. Hall and Mrs. Jerome Keogh, March 17th; Mrs. M. H. Keogh and Mrs. William J. Reid, March 24th; Mrs. Burke Cahill and Mrs. Jerry J. Hurley, March 31st; Miss Josephine Keely and Mrs. Emily O'Donnell.

Catholic Book Club FEBRUARY BOOKS

"Heart Talks With Mary", by Rosalie Marie Levy; Box, 158, Station D, New York, N. Y., beautifully bound in flexible blue leather, with gold edges, $1.00 per copy, by mail, $1.10; or in black cloth, with red edges, 80 cents per copy, by mail, 90 cents. This book is a compilation of delightful and appealing articles on the Blessed Virgin. It has the imprimatur of his eminence Patrick Cardinal Hayes. It is a treasure in printing, in binding in appearance, and in contents. It will make a splendid gift to anybody, and especially to young girls, women or invalids. Indeed, it is like a bouquet of spiritual flowers, fragrant and beautiful.

In the contents we find appealing hymns by Emily Faber and other writers; a variety of prayers to the Blessed Mother; prayers for Mass, and before and after Holy Communion; Novena in honor of the Immaculate Conception; little office of the Immaculate Conception; Flowers for Mary; heart talks with Mary; an hour with Jesus and Mary; prayers for the sick and the dying, and many other appealing features.
 The compiler of this book is a convert from Judaism. The appeal of the book may be judged by the fact that a first edition of 5,000 copies was sold within two months. Other books published by Miss Levy are: "The Heavenly Road"; "Why Jews Became Catholics"; "Judaism and Catholicism"; "Heart Talks With Jesus." Miss Levy will be glad to give particulars about these books to any interested person.

Msgr. Dauray Dies At The Age of 93 In Rhode Island

Woonsocket, Feb. 27.—The Right Rev. Msgr. Charles Dauray, 93-year-old pastor of the Church of the Precious Blood, Woonsocket, died Sunday at the church rectory after an illness of ten days with bronchial pneumonia.
 Msgr. Dauray was dean of the Roman Catholic Hierarchy of Rhode Island.

BISHOP BREAKING GROUND FOR NAZARETH HALL BUILDING

The Beginning of a Good Work
 On Tuesday afternoon, this week, the Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D. D., Bishop of Rochester, broke ground for a fine new two-story addition to Nazareth Hall, a private school for boys in Raines Park, conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph. The above photograph shows the commencement of this good work in the picture, from left to right, are David Duffy, one of the pupils in the school; Sister Aquinas, principal of the school, and Bishop O'Hern.

After breaking ground, Bishop O'Hern told of the splendid work done by the school, and by the devoted Sisters in charge. He said the school has happily fulfilled the ideals of its founders, and that it stands solidly in championship of sound Christian and American principles and ideals.

Nazareth College PRESS BUREAU

A New Anthology of College Verse will appear near the 15th of April. Harper & Brothers are the publishers of the volume. It contains 340 poems selected from 125 American Colleges and Universities. These were chosen from over 4,000 poems submitted from 238 colleges.
 Of special interest to us is the inclusion of poems by Miss Catherine Williamson and Miss Anna Pischette of Nazareth College. The work of these students from the Junior Class has appeared monthly in the College publication, "The Gleaner."

Christopher Morley has written a critical introduction for the book, which was edited by Jessie Rehder. During the fall months Miss Rehder visited 50 colleges and universities in the interests of the anthology.
 This publication should be of value to young poets. It will give them a definite standard for the comparison of their work with the work of other young writers, and offer them a permanent medium of expression.

A Mission Tea was given by the Junior Class of Nazareth College, Thursday afternoon, February 25. Miss Rita Kier was chairman of the affair, assisted by Miss Mary Neary. All the members of the Junior Class took part in the entertainment, and in preparing the refreshments. The proceeds of the tea were sent to the various missionaries adopted by the College.

A meeting of the Meynell Club of Nazareth College will take place Monday afternoon, March 2. The program is in charge of the Junior members who will arrange an entertainment for the eight new members from the Sophomore Class. The Faculty is invited to attend.

Hibernians Will Hold Big Party On 17th of March

An "Irish Night" will be held by the Ancient Order of Hibernians in the ballroom of the Columbus Civic Center on St. Patrick's Day evening, March 17.
 A varied program of Irish figure and modern dances will be presented and during the intermission guests will be entertained by exhibition Irish dances. John McMahon is chairman of the entertainment committee. The reception committee will consist of representatives of all the local divisions of the order.
 If an one who holds a treasure And a gem of wondrous cost; But I mar my heart's deep pleasure With the fear it may be lost.
 —Julia Ward Howe

To Have Charge Of Question Box Catholic Hour

Beginning Sunday, the Rev. Dr. Hubert L. Motry of Catholic University Will Answer Questions Until April 19th.

Washington, Feb. 14. — The Rev. Dr. Hubert Louis Motry, of the faculty of the School of Canon Law, the Catholic University of America, here, will be in charge of the "Question Box" in the "Catholic Hour," beginning Sunday, March 1, and continuing until Sunday, April 19. The "Catholic Hour" is sponsored by the National Council of Catholic Men and is broadcast over a network of the National Broadcasting Company.
 Dr. Motry succeeds the Rev. Dr. John E. Wickham, pastor of St. Brendan's Church, New York, who has conducted the "Question Box" since Jan. 4 and will continue until Feb. 22.
 Dr. Motry is frequently consulted on matters Catholicized by members of the Hierarchy, and also by religious institutes. His counsel has also been sought in cases involving ecclesiastical matters before the Supreme Court of the United States. He has been heard over the radio in the South, in talks on religious subjects. On Sunday mornings Dr. Motry fills the office of chaplain at St. Mary's Academy, Alexandria, and at Fort Humphreys, Va.

Golden Wedding Of Happy Couple Well Observed

Parents of Rev. Arthur F. Florack Celebrate, with Bishop O'Hern and Several Priests as Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Florack of 474 Lake View Terrace, the parents of Rev. Arthur F. Florack, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday evening at their home, surrounded by their six children and other relatives, and with the Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D. D., Bishop of Rochester, and several priests as guests of honor. The home was attractively decorated in gold and white, and Mr. and Mrs. Florack received a number of gifts in good keeping with the happy occasion.
 Friends and relatives of the couple sat down to a fine dinner. At the table were the six children of Mr. and Mrs. Florack, and the wives and husbands of some of them as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Florack, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Florack of Warren, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. John Florack, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Bauman, Rev. Arthur F. Florack of St. Andrew's Church and Miss Margaret C. Florack, Frank Florack, a husband, and Mrs. Henry Schatzline and Mrs. Francis Herbst, attendants at the wedding, 50 years ago, also were guests.
 Guests of honor included Bishop O'Hern, Rev. Arthur A. Hughes of Holy Rosary Church, Rev. William Stauder of Holy Redeemer Church, Rev. George Ekl of St. Andrew's Church, Rev. Walter F. Foery of Mt. Carmel Church and Rev. Charles R. Reynolds, secretary to the Bishop.
 The dinner was a delightful affair, rich in reminiscence and in anecdotes and stories, and the couple received a world of good wishes and blessings, with hopes for many future years of happy married life.

Medical Workers Sail For Orient

Three Sisters Are in New Group—Many Requests Received for Hospital Supplies and Workers.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 27.—On January 23, the third band of Catholic Medical Missionaries from Brookland, Washington, D. C., sailed for the Orient on the S. S. Blancmanon. Three Sisters are in the group. Sister Margaret Mary Van Astor, R.N., a graduate of Mercy Hospital, Muskegon, Mich., and Sister M. Christine Reismuller from St. Louis, Mo., will go to the Holy Family Hospital in Rawal Pindi in the Mill Hill Prefecture of Kashmir and Kashmir. This Hospital was blessed and opened three years ago by Elin Excellency, Archbishop Edward A. Mooney, Apostolic Delegate to the East Indies. It is a zenana hospital, that is one reserved for women and children, and consequently is staffed entirely by women, a doctor, a dentist, and four graduate nurses, all of whom are members of the society. Attached to the hospital is a training school for Indian nurses.
 The third Sister, Sister M. Bernadette Egan, R.N., a graduate of the Municipal Hospital, Innsbruck, Tyrol, Austria, is bound for the Holy Cross Diocese of Dacca, where the Society conducts two maternity and child welfare centers and trains native midwives. Sister Margaret Mary and Sister M. Bernadette spent several weeks at the Maternity Center Association in New York in special training for their future work in India.
 Requests for hospitals and dispensaries have been received by Dr. Dengel, the head of the Society, from Nigeria, Manchuria, China and India, etc. The latest request is for a group of health visitors for Darjiling at the foot of Mount Everest.

A. O. H. Resolutions

At the last regular meeting of Division No. 7, A. O. H., held on February 19th, the following resolution was unanimously adopted by that body:
 "Whereas, Almighty God, in His Divine Wisdom, has taken from life one of our best beloved brothers, M. J. Toomey, long a member of this Division, and loyal and devoted to its work, be it therefore Resolved, That Division No. 7, A. O. H., extended the sincere sympathy of the society to the bereaved wife, three sons, two grandchildren, two brothers and two sisters of brother Toomey, that we assure them of our deep sorrow in the death of such a loyal member, and that we pledge our prayers for the repose of his soul, with the hope that God will take him to His eternal home in Heaven, the reward of a noble life well lived.
