(1029) I have used only two bottles of Lapidar and thank the Lord, I am well again. For two years I have been troubled with the kidneys and no doctor could bring any help. But now, after the use of your Lapidar, I am in good health again. I am still taking Lapidar every day and expect to do so for quite a while. Lapidar should be in every household.

Color Contrast Much in Evidence at the Spring Fashion Shows.

Tweeds and knits lead the sportswear fashion parade of some spring collections. The tweeds most favored are neither muted nor monotone but two-color, appropriate to a season that delights in color contrast. These tweeds, observes a fashion writer in the New York World, express the two-color creed in different ways, light or dark flecks on contrasting grounds, half and half mixtures and checks.

EASTER FLOWERS

Because they bloom at Easter, This is the children's name For all the yellow blossoms That thus the spring proclaim. From out the dark, from out the cold, They offer us a faith to hold.

The color of the sunshine, They spread upon the earth; Bid us forget the winter, And turn to days of mirth. Thus hope becomes a joyous thing, When Easter flowers bloom in the spring. —Kalfus Kurtz Gussling.

Would that pious men, in the place of those fears and terrors which the devil uses in endeavoring to deter them from the service of God, would substitute the fear they ought to feel of God, their Creator, in case they should chance to give up what they have begun for Him.
