Clan-na-Gael
Will Hold Dance
Easter Monday

Tickets are selling rapidly for the splendid dancing party that will be given on Easter Monday evening, in Carpenters Hall, 113 N. Fitzhugh Street, under the auspices of the local Clan-na-Gael Council. This party will be open to all people of Irish blood or birth, and to their friends of every race. Some excellent specialties are being arranged, and a pleasant time awaits all patrons. Due to the hard times, the admission has been reduced from $1.00 to 50 cents for each person. Excellent music will be provided, and the hours of the party will be from 9 P. M. to 1 A. M.

Daniel Mahoney, general chairman of the party, and his associate workers extend a cordial invitation to their friends to be with them on Easter Monday evening.

LYONS

Chief of Police
Heads Holy Name

Lyons, April 3.—Under the supervision of the Rev. Andrew T. Disselt, rector of St. Michael's Church here, a Holy Name Society has been organized for the men and youth of the parish. William Dretka has been elected president; Philip Pallotti, vice-president; Michael T. Bradley, secretary and treasurer; Rev. Andrew T. Disselt, spiritual advisor. Some 100 members have joined. Meetings will be held each Wednesday evening in St. Michael's Hall. The meetings will be featured by talks on various subjects, addresses and social events. It is expected the society will be a most helpful influence in the church.

HORNELL

MRS. FARLEY DRAKE
Hornell, April 3.—Mrs. Gertrude Harkenrider Drake, aged 38, formerly of this city, died Tuesday, in Lockport. She is survived by her husband, Farley Drake of Rochester; a son, Robert, of Lockport; her mother, Mrs. John Harkenrider of Hornell; four sisters, Mrs. Thomas Nary of Friendship, Mrs. Bert McComish of Lockport, Mrs. Donald Hamilton of Texas, and Mrs. James X. Hart of Hornell, and four brothers, William, James, John and Bernard Harkenrider, all of Rexville. Her funeral was held in Lockport Thursday morning. The body was brought to this city in the home of her sister, Mrs. Hart, at 15 Erie Court. Interment was in St. Ann's Cemetery.
