Catholic Bowling League Eleventh Annual Banquet Wednesday Evening, April 15

Will Mark Close of An Exciting and Spectacular Season—Great Race for Leadership Marks the Final Contests

The Catholic Bowling League of Rochester will bring its season to a happy close on next Wednesday evening, April 15th, when the 11th annual banquet of the League will be held in Holy Redeemer Hall at 7 o'clock in the evening. The Rt. Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, will be a guest of honor at the banquet, and there will be a number of priests in attendance, and other invited guests.

Leadership of the League will not be decided until the final games this evening. The Holy Redeemer Athletic Association team nosed out the St. Boniface team last week from top place, taking the lead by the close margin of one game, 12 points higher than St. Boniface. This position may or may not be changed by the final games, if the St. Boniface team wins, it will have permanent possession of the silver loving cup of the League.

The present season was the most exciting ever conducted by the League. Records were broken all around. Bill White of the St. Ambrose team had the high single, 289. Fred Scheuch of the Holy Redeemer team had the three game high, 753. The St. Boniface team had the high team record, 1154. All along the line splendid work was done by the bowlers. The fellowship was excellent, and there was a fine spirit of good will and comradeship that was inspiring to every player. The boys will miss this when curfew rings on the season.

The standing of the teams, as of April 4th, shows how close was the race, and how good the teams. The records show:

	W.	L.	P.C.
H. R. A. A.	47	34	580
St. Boniface	40	35	568
G. W. M. A.	44	37	543
St. Ambrose	42	39	519
St. Andrew	41	40	503
O. L. P. H.	40	41	494
St. Francis	32	49	385
Kia of St. George	32	49	395

St. Bona's Boys Start Practise On The Diamond

St. Bonaventure, April 10.—Coach Mike Kelly had his St. Bonaventure's baseball candidates out for Spring practice this week, getting ready for the 20-game schedule that faces the team. He has practically a veteran team from last year, and some promising recruits. The following are expected to make the team: Pitcher, Riley, Rourke, Carroll, Layden; catcher, O'Connor, Reilly; infielders, Woods, Utecht, Youngblood, Sklerowski; outfielders, Galbo, Murphy, McDonald. All of the above are from next year's team, except Murphy, McDonald and Reilly. There is every reason to believe that the team will be an excellent one and that it will make a fine showing in college baseball.

Mixed Doubles Honors Are Won By K. C. Bowlers

Christian and Reilly teamed together to walk off with the honors in the K. of C. mixed doubles tournament rolled at the Columbus Club all day Friday night with a total of 1,089, their nearest competitors were Quinn and Faust whose aggregate was 1,024.

Christian topped the field with his high three-game total of 623, while Bogner, who rolled to third place with 588, field of 80 made the competition keen.

Lovers of symphonic music will find pleasure in the concerts over WHAM Tuesday afternoons at 2 and 3:15. They are played by the Rochester Civic Orchestra under Guy Fraser Harrison's direction for students in Rochester schools. The early program is duplicated at 3:15 for the students who have other classes at 2. The program for April 14th consists of music of Beethoven and Hungary.

Hayward, Leo Sowerby and Henry Hadley. The Gilmore Memorial concert program will be devoted to the aid of unemployed Boston musicians.

Connell, C.S.S.R., of Niagara, N. Y., will be the speaker, continuing his series on "The Church and Her Organization and Government."

Catholic Peace Group Gives Good Praise to Pope Benedict For Attitude During World War

Priest Says His Policy May Well Be Heeded Now—War to Ward Off Attack or Recover National Honor Is Justified.

New York, April 10.—Pope Benedict XV was highly praised for his attitude during the World War, at the annual meeting of the Catholic Association for International Peace, held at the Catholic Club here on Monday and Tuesday.

One of the speakers declared that extreme pacifism is wrong, and that war to repel invasion or recover National honor is justified. Delegates were present from all parts of the United States, and one from China.

About Pope Benedict
The contributions of Pope Benedict XV to the peace movement were discussed by the Rev. Donald A. MacLean of the Catholic University of Washington. With the demand of cancellation or reduction of war debts and reparations becoming more insistent, he said, "It would seem that Pope Benedict's policy may be heeded even at this late date." He traced to Pope Benedict's peace letter also the move for "peace without victory" and for a League of Nations.

"The fact that the League and other peace agencies have not succeeded to the full is due to lack of support by men who profess Christian principles, but show no interest in seeing them carried out," he declared.

Position On War
The Rev. Cyprian Emanuel of the Franciscan Monastery of Cleveland and the Rev. Charles C. Millner of Notre Dame University defined the attitude of the Catholic Church toward war, basing their statements on the writings of Church authorities.

K. OF C. EMPLOYMENT SERVICE FINDS JOBS FOR 73,950 PERSONS

New Haven, April 10.—Peter W. Collins, national director of the Employment Service of the Knights of Columbus, reports that 2,550 councils of the Order in cities and towns from coast to coast have secured a total of 73,950 jobs for the jobless of all races and creeds since the creation of the Employment Service which is co-operating with the emergency employment commission set up by President Hoover in an effort to create a demand for labor.

Many areas not surveyed by any other agency have been canvassed by the representatives of the Knights of Columbus Employment Service and reports of Bureau headquarters here present a complete picture of the employment situation. Approximately 32,000 members of the Knights of Columbus are engaged in the job-finding campaign.

Babies of India Are Interesting, Catechist Says

"And our babies are so interesting," said a catechist in a picture of Mary Frances Emmanuella, with her smiling little face, in the arms of the old widow who saved her life by keeping her warm at night and whom she loves almost already. Another of our little angels, Mary Frances de Sales, found it safer to join her heavenly companions. She is surely praying now for her American godfather or godmother. Her own mother, forsaken by her husband, has no one to care for her, nor any house to live in, is happy to remain with us. She is a Hindu and in the beginning we abstained from mentioning anything concerning religion. One day when she had attended the women's catechism class, she asked: "Will you not teach me also the Sign of the Cross?" Needless to say, we granted her request. "From a letter from a Missionary Catechist."

Albany Women, N.C.C.W. Members, Hold Convention

Albany, April 10.—The Albany Diocesan Council, National Council of Catholic Women, held its first convention here on Tuesday and Wednesday this week. More than 650 delegates were present, and many subjects of helpful interest were discussed. Mrs. Anthony N. Brady, Farrell presided over a luncheon meeting.

Mrs. Mary B. Carey, organizer of the Albany Council, reported that 20 parishes and 14 inter-parochial units had joined the organization since it was formed last fall.

The business sessions were taken up with receiving reports of delegates from nine counties in the eastern part of the State.

Bishop Gibbons presided at the opening Mass and also acted as a dinner guest Tuesday night for the delegates. Other speakers included Mayor John B. Thatcher, Jr.

Erin's Daughters Will Hold Party Saturday Night

The Daughters of Erin Club have completed plans for holding a party Saturday evening, April 11th, in the hall at 198 Main Street West. An excellent program will be given, with new and old dances, and a liberal sprinkling of Irish dances that will delight all patrons.

During the intermission the Misses O'Keefe, Hassit and Maroney will give exhibitions of step dancing that will please the orchestra, and furnish music, and dancing will be held from 9 to 12 o'clock. All friends of the society, as well as all members are urged to attend, and a pleasant time awaits the patrons.

"PEACE" FIRST WORD OF RISEN SAVIOUR

The first word spoken by Our Lord to His Apostles after His Resurrection from the dead must ever have for Catholics an absorbing interest. It was "Peace!"

The time was Easter Night, the place was an upper room in Jerusalem. All save Thomas were present, and the doors were tightly closed for fear of the Jews. Suddenly, the Evangelist tells us, Our Lord stood in their midst and said to them: "Peace be unto you!"

Woman in South Confirmed on Her 121st Birthday

Savannah, Ga., April 10.—The reception of confirmation was the outstanding event on what is said to be the 121st birthday of Mrs. Belle Ryan, believed to be the oldest living in Georgia, if not in the South.

The confirmation ceremony took place recently in the chapel of the Little Sisters of the Poor, the Rt. Rev. Michael J. Keyes, Bishop of Savannah, officiating.
