All Catholic Organizations Helping Russia and the Near East Are United Now Under One Head

Catholic Near East Welfare Association Has Charge of This Work—"Mission Day" For This and Kindred Societies.

New York, May 1.—Because of after-war conditions in the Near East and the religious persecution in Russia, a great deal of welfare and relief work has had to be done in these countries in the past few years. Our Holy Father the Pope has been greatly concerned about the needy people in these lands, and has welcomed assistance in providing relief. In order to avoid duplication of effort, the Holy See, in 1926, designated the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, with headquarters at 430 Lexington Avenue, New York City, to have charge of all relief work in behalf of Russia and the Near East, under the protection of Cardinal Hayes.

For Mission Sunday

The experience of the past five years has tended towards a closer bond among those societies laboring in behalf of the missions at home and abroad, and so, in a letter transmitted to the American Bishops by

Parish School Children Give A Fine Concert

Children of the seventh and eighth grades of the parochial schools of Rochester accompanied by the Rochester Civic Orchestra, gave a splendid concert in the Columbus Civic Center Auditorium on Wednesday afternoon last week. Guy Fraser Harrison, conducting the orchestra, was presented by the Rev. John Duffy, Diocesan superintendent of schools.

The opening number, "America," was sung with great spirit. Other selections included "Goldmark's 'In Springtime'; Brahms' 'Hungarian Dance,' 'Salute D'Amour' by Sir Edward Elgar, and Grieg's 'The Last Spring'; Piere's 'The School of the Fauna'; and closed with Victor Herbert's 'Irish Rhapsody.'

Interpersed with the orchestral number were two hymns, "O Heavenly Father" and "Hail Queen of the Heavens" for which Mr. Harrison made the orchestral arrangement.

Father Duffy expressed his appreciation to Mr. Harrison to the orchestra, to Mr. Arthur See, manager of the Rochester Civic Orchestra, and to Raymond J. Curran, manager of Columbus Civic Center at the close of the concert. The children sang splendidly, and the concert was a great success.

Catholic Medical Mission Sent 20,000 Pounds Of Medical Supplies to Missions Last Year

New York, May 1.—The Catholic Medical Mission Board, at 10 West 17th Street, New York, collects and ships to needy missions in this country and abroad quantities of medical instruments, bandages and dressings to enable missionaries to take care of the destitute and suffering.

Last year the Board sent out 20,000 pounds of such supplies to 200 mission stations all over the world. Telling letters have been received telling of the immense good done for the souls, as well as the bodies of the poor pagans, who eagerly listened to Christian teaching after they had experienced this Christian charity. One Sister reports that she is often able to baptize as many as 35 dying babies in one day through gaining access to the homes by giving medicines.

Individuals and groups of people are asked to make bandages and dressings and to collect medicines and other supplies. This is very interesting work for Catholic societies to undertake.

Full information and directions for the work will be given to all who write to Rev. Edward F. Garesche, S.J., Director of the Catholic Medical Mission Board, 10 West 17th Street, New York, N. Y.

FAMILY LIFE
Young men and women should postpone their marriage until they have read the wonderful book, "Married Life." It should be found in every home—Rev. Fr. Vermont, Denton, Texas. W. H. Schmidt, Kramling, Colo., writes: "Send two books, 'Married Life.' Enclosed $6. This makes four books I have ordered for our children. It sure is worth its weight in gold." Mr. Geo. J. Stabler, 510 South Central Ave., Marshall, Wis., writes: "Enclosed find check for $3. Forward your book, 'Married Life.' We have three children and find many things one should know about care of children."
No family can afford to be without this book. Price $3 postpaid. Order from Dr. H. William, Author, 1215 Parnon St., St. Joseph, Mo., or write for literature. Mention Catholic Courier-Journal.

Mrs. M. G. Moloney and daughter, Ellen and Mary, of Willowbank Place have returned after spending the week in New York City as guests of the Hotel Commodore.

Miss Margaret Wickham of Genesee Street, Grand Regent of the Rochester Court, Catholic Daughters of America, will attend the New York State Convention to be conducted at Glens Falls from May 13 to 20.

Ray L. Mahan, assistant buyer for the drug department of Abram's department store, will be on a tour abroad to purchase rugs for the firm. Mr. Mahan formerly lived in Rochester, and is well known here. He is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Feller of 321 Woodbine Avenue.

OBITUARY

Many friends attended the funeral of Albert V. Merk, held in St. Salome's Church, Irondequoit, Monday morning, Mr. Merk died at his home, 2732 Culver Road, Irondequoit, aged 46 years. He had been a prominent dealer for 18 years, and was well known and well respected. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Martha May Merk; his mother, Mrs. Mary Merk; a brother, Edward Merk, and three sisters, Mrs. Martha Bierwauters, Mrs. Norbert Kosselring and Miss Loretta Merk. He was a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Salome's Church.

Mrs. Julia Purdy Brennan, wife of Michael Brennan, died Sunday evening at her home, 433 Plymouth Avenue, N. Her funeral was held Thursday morning in St. Patrick's Cathedral, and it was attended by many relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brennan is survived by her husband; one son, M. Sarsfield Brennan; three daughters, Marie A., Loretta, and Margaret E. Brennan; two brothers, James and Charles Purdy; two sisters, Mrs. Alexander Harris of Buffalo and Mrs. John Flaggler of Oneida, N. Y.

Mrs. Brennan was a woman who was always greatly devoted to her home, and to her family. Kindly, lovable and helpful, she endeavored herself to the hearts of many people, and her memory will be treasured by all who knew her well in life.

A woman rarely well beloved in life, Miss Beatrice Massett, died suddenly in the Genesee Hospital on Monday and was buried on Thursday from Holy Rosary Church. There was an unusually large attendance of friends at her funeral, and the affection in which she was held was well evidenced by the many flowers and mass cards from those who loved her.

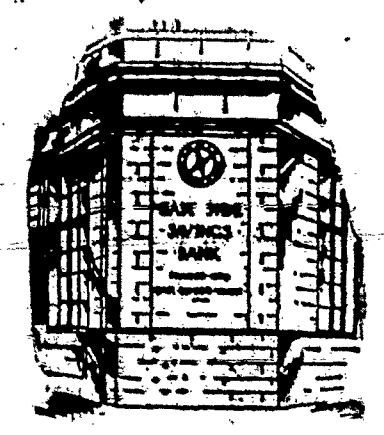

Miss Massett had been director of school nurses in the town of Irondequoit for 12 years, and in this work she had done numberless acts of kindness for many people. She was devoted to her work, kindly and sympathetic, helpful and hopeful at all times, and she made many a sad heart glad by the thoughtfulness of her ministrations. She will be greatly missed by all her associates.

Miss Massett was a native of Rochester. She attended the Cathedral Grammar School, the Highland Hospital School of Nursing, and the Oswego Normal summer school, receiving a teachers' certificate after three summers' work. She had private nursing for some years, and in 1913 was appointed director of school nurses at Irondequoit. Dr. W. W. Bradstreet, now health officer of Irondequoit, paid her this tribute: "I cannot speak too highly of Miss Massett's work. She was thoroughly competent and her conscientiousness was outstanding."

Miss Massett was a member of the Alumnae Association of Highland Hospital, of the New York State Teachers' Association, and of Irondequoit Grange No. 10.

She is survived by her father, Edward A.; five brothers, Leo E., Benjamin T., Edward H. and Eugene J., of Rochester, and Francis X., of Haron, South Dakota, and five sisters, Mrs. Charles T. Caley, Mrs. Fred J. Blinn, Mrs. Earl Rhee, Mrs. Alice and Grace Massett, all of Rochester.

Her memory will be treasured by many friends, and she will not be forgotten by those who were privileged to know her. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock in St. Salome's Church.

Serve Spring Salads

- By BETTY BARCLAY
- Start serving salads in quantity—right now. Lighter dishes are in order, and the salad will reign supreme for several months. Here are two unusual and delicious delights.
- April Salad
- 1 package lemon-flavored gelatin
 - 1 pint boiling water
 - 1 pimento, cut in strips
 - 2 hard-cooked eggs, coarsely cut
 - 1 cup celery, finely chopped
 - 1-3 cup olives, finely chopped
 - 1/2 teaspoon chives, finely chopped
- 1 teaspoon onion juice
1 tablespoon vinegar
1/4 teaspoon salt
dash of Cayenne
- Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Chill. Decorate mold with pimento. When setting is slightly thickened, fold in remaining ingredients. Turn into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Garnish with mayonnaise. Serves 6.
- Corn Relish Salad
- 1 package lemon-flavored gelatin
 - 1 cup boiling water
 - 3/4 cup cold water
 - 3 tablespoons vinegar
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1 1/2 cups corn, cooked
 - 1 green pepper, chopped
 - 1/2 cup onion, sliced
 - 1 tablespoon onion, grated
- Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add cold water, vinegar, and salt. Chill. When slightly thickened, fold in corn, pepper, pimento, and onion. Turn into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Garnish with mayonnaise. Serves 8.

Two Coconut Salads

- By BETTY BARCLAY
- Did you ever use the coconut from your emergency shelf to prepare a tasteful salad for company? If not, you have missed a treat. Try these as samples of many coconut salads.
- Cabbage-Coconut Delight
- 2 cups cabbage, fine shredded
 - 1 cup grated pineapple, drained
 - 1 cup shredded coconut
 - 1/2 cup mayonnaise
 - dash of salt
- Crisp cabbage by allowing it to stand in ice water. Drain and dry thoroughly. Toss lightly together with remaining ingredients. Serve on crisp lettuce. Garnish with strips of pimento. Serves 6.
- Coco-cheese Balls
- 2 packages (6 ounces) cream cheese
 - 1 cup shredded coconut
 - Roll cream cheese into 1-2 small balls. Roll each ball in coconut, which has been either toasted or tinted. Arrange in nests of crisp lettuce, allowing 3 balls to each serving. Garnish with mayonnaise. Serves 4.
- Lamb Chops with Oranges
(Serves 6)
- 6 lamb, veal or pork chops
 - Melted butter
 - sliced oranges
 - salt
 - pepper
 - parsika.
- Trim fat from thick chops and dip in melted butter. Oil broiler well and broil chops 8 minutes. Turn and place a thick slice of peeled orange on each chop. Broil 3 or 10 minutes longer. Sprinkle generously with the seasonings. Serve hot.
- Lemon White Sauce For Vegetables
(Serves 6)
- 2 tablespoons butter
 - 2 tablespoons flour
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1 cup liquid from vegetable (or milk)
 - 1 to 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- Melt butter, blend with flour and salt. Add vegetable water or milk (evaporated milk may be used). Cook till smooth and creamy, stirring constantly. Add lemon juice. Serve over 2 cups hot cooked vegetables.

A Benefit Party

At Annunciation Church Hall, 6th

A benefit card party, the second since the Easter period, will be held in the Church of the Annunciation Hall, corner Norton and North Goodman Streets, on Wednesday evening, May 6th. Ploochie, Pedro, 500, Bridge, Dominos and other games will be played. There will be numerous prizes, and delicious refreshments.

The Rev. George Weimann, rector of the church, extends a cordial invitation to all friends of the parish to attend this party and encourage his people in the great work they are doing to promote the welfare of their parish. It is hoped the attendance will be large, and the results most encouraging.
