Girl Scouts' Supper Party Monday Night

Catholic Club Event Will Be Held at Columbus Civic Center—Various Club Activities for the Week.

The Girl Scouts of Troops 32 and 35 of the Catholic Women's Club will entertain their mothers at a Mothers' and Daughters' Supper party on Monday, May 4th, at the Columbus Civic Center.

Supper at 6:15 will be followed by a Girl Scout meeting, with the mothers playing the part of Girl Scouts, and will include the formal opening ceremony; patrol corners with patrol leaders; Girl Scout songs and games; a playlet based on First Aid Work by the Girl Scouts of Troop 35; and a one-act play by the Girl Scouts of Troop 32. A program of entertainment, including tap dancing, recitations and a piano and violin duet, planned by a committee of Girl Scouts, will follow the mothers and daughters' Girl Scout meeting. Arrangements for the party are being made by Miss Rhea Wahl, Captain of 32, and Mrs. Charles J. Sackett, Captain, and Miss Emma Könning, Lieutenant of Troop 35. Mrs. William I. Dean, president of the Mothers' Auxiliary of Rochester, will give a short talk on "The Mother's Place in Scouting." This week at the Club House on account of the opera, the Business Women's Group will meet on Tuesday evening, May 5, for supper at 6:15. An informal bridge for members will follow:

On Tuesday afternoon, the Speech Class will have for its subject "Rating Yourself."

Wednesday evening, May 6, the Mission Group of the Club will entertain friend at cards, the proceeds to be used for the support of a medical missionary in India. The party is in charge of Miss Katherine Weisenborn, and she is being assisted by Miss Alice F. Kirk, Miss Cecelia M. Yawman, Miss Mary Louise Galligan, Mrs. Wendell E. Andrews, Miss Mary Gilmurray, Miss Margaret C. McCabe, Miss Anna Colvin, Mrs. Louis A. Whales, Mrs. Edward J. Rooney, Miss Agnes Menihan, Mrs. John E. Lyons, Mrs. George Coxon, Mrs. Charles Rhodes, Mrs. A. R. Herbert, Miss Cecelia Wunsch, Mrs. Michael Willig, Mrs. J. W. Carmody, Mrs. Joseph A. Coppinger, Mrs. Joseph H. Ellers, Mrs. John Conway, Miss Grace Lynch, Mrs. Harry G. Faulkner, Mrs. F. B. Hall, Mrs. Catherine McIntee, Miss Maire O'Brae.

Friday evening, May 8, the Board of Directors will hold their monthly meeting.

Benefit Party For St. Charles' Church, May 15

On Friday evening, May 15, a benefit May party will be held in the Columbus Civic Center Auditorium, the proceeds to go to St. Charles Borromeo Church, of which the Rev. William A. Doran is pastor. A three-act comedy will be given, "Safety First," and it will be directed by Mrs. Paul Bailey.

The Locust Club orchestra under the direction of Charles Strogen will furnish music for dancing following the play. On Sunday, May 10th, at 3 o'clock in Columbus Civic Center, there will be a dress rehearsal for Sisters and all children.

A special feature of the entertainment will be furnished by the following: Miss Helen C. Saubert, Miss Alma Kendall, Miss Gertrude Kendall, Miss Virginia Malley, Thomas Amick, and Robert Ferar. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haines are in charge of the arrangements.

The cast of characters for 'Safety First" includes Laura C. Nixon, Grace Canada, Alice Schwind, Beatrice Soehner, Kay Hanley, William Fennessey, Thomas Slows, Wilson Statt, Theodore Houck and Angus Buchan.

A. O. H. To Meet In Newport, R. I., On July the 21st

Hibernian societies in Rochester have been notified that the 57th national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will be held in Newport, R. I., beginning at noon on July 21st. Several thousand delegates and members will be present.

Efforts will be made at the convention to raise the balance of the $50,000 pledge made by the Order to the Irish College in Rome, Italy. About $10,000 remains unpaid on this pledge.

Special low rates will be given on the railroads to delegates, members of the Auxiliaries, and the families of the delegates and members.

Hotel reservations must be made through the Housing Committee, not later than June 25th. State delegates must communicate for that purpose with Philip A. Maguire, Secretary Hibernian Convention Housing Committee, Bliss Road, Newport, R. I.

Pray God, I beseech you, to preserve the good that has already been gained, to promote what has been begun, to crown with increase these first-fruits to the praise and glory of His Holy Name, and to the more perfect service of His own divine majesty—St. Francis Xavier.

Not everything which is better in itself is better for each man in particular.

:-: Nazareth College Events :-:

May 1st was a red letter day at Nazareth College. May Day was appropriately celebrated. The ceremonies included Mass and Communion, attended by all the students; a sermon, a procession, and the crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary at the four class shrines. Miss Mary Leary was chairman of the arrangements.

A debate between Nazareth and D'Youville College took place on the evening of May 1st at D'Youville College in Buffalo. The subject was: "Commercial Advertising as Now Carried on is Both Economically and Socially Harmful", with Miss Anna Fennessy and Miss Pauline Hennessy of Nazareth College taking the negative side.

The informal dance at Brooklea Country Club given by the Sigma Tau Sorority was held also Friday evening.

Miss Mary O'Brien, President of the Mission Unit at Nazareth College, has announced the annual Mission Day to be on Tuesday, May 19. The following committee chairmen were appointed: Booths, Miss Eleanor Craig; Exhibit, Miss Rita Kier; Entertainment for children, Miss Dorothy McGhan; Special Features, Miss Helen Guntert, and Publicity, Miss Mary Moran. Each of the four classes will be in charge of a booth. Plans are now being definitely completed. Watch for further announcements regarding Mission Day! The public is cordially invited to attend.

The Nazareth College Glee Club broadcasted for the second time over Station WHAM, April 17th. The Glee Club has received an invitation to sing again at a later date, which will probably be at a Sunday hour.

The following program will be given by the Glee Club of the College over Station WHAM, Sunday morning, May 10:

Ave Maria ..... Schubert
Regina Coeli ..... Hollenbeck
In Lowly Adoration ..... Sisters of St. Joseph
Duet—Soprano ..... Betty Donegan
Alto ..... Margaret Meisenzahl
Accompanist, Elsie Strebler
Gloria ..... Buzzi-Peccia
Just For To-Day ..... Seaver
Angela DeMarco
Christ Our King ..... S. M. I.
Salutamus ..... Faculty of Nazareth College
Accompanist, Betty Griffin

The time of the program will be announced later.
