SS. Peter & Paul Athletic Post And Cathedral Game a Thriller

Casey at the bat, or Babe Ruth knocking them over the sky line, had nothing on the game between SS. Peter & Paul's team and the Cathedral team last Friday. This was the original opening game of the League, postponed from the previous Tuesday at the Armory diamond because of sudden and heavy rain. It was played at Edgerton Park, with Drexel in the box for SS. Peter & Paul, and winding 'em up for the Cathedral. Both are southpaws, and they are two of the classiest young pitchers in the city. They can throw curves faster than a rattie snake, or a cowboy with a lariat.

The game was a thriller. Twice Miraglia knocked home runs for the Cathedral, once with one man on, and the next time with two on, accounting therefore for five runs. In the last half of the ninth, the game was a tie, 7 to 7, with two out and a man on third for the Cathedral—Spillman. And Spillman didn't sit down and die, or even fall asleep. He winds up a pair of legs that move like the tail of a cyclone, and the first thing the batted spectators knew he had stolen home, breaking the tie and winning the game for the Cathedral—8 to 7. It was a hair-raiser, even for heads slightly bald.

The umpire was Ralph Viola of St. Bonaventure's College, home for a few days. He was a good one. Drexel pitched the ball, and is a boy the other teams will have to reckon with. So is Dinnan. Classy and clever.

The Cathedral has engaged Leo Sullivan, former Aquinas and St. Bonaventure basketball star, for coach. So look out for these boys!

For Jim Thorpe In Native State

Oklahoma City, May 2.—Jim Thorpe, famous Indian athlete, is to return to his native state as director of athletics for a consolidated rural high school near here.

Announcement of his appointment was made by Moore C. Hess, member of the board of education of the Putnam City School District, five miles west of Oklahoma City.

Negotiations with Thorpe began a few months ago following publication of a dispatch from Los Angeles telling that Thorpe was employed there as a ditch digger.

"I decided then that the talent and ability of Thorpe were being wasted," Mr. Hess said. "I was afraid some other school would beat us to him and immediately got busy."

Mr. Hess declined to reveal the salary to be paid Thorpe.

Corpus Christi Has Champagne That Sparkles

These may be temperance days, but the Corpus Christi Parish League baseball team has Champagne that sparkles, and that has a knock-out to it, or rather a strike-out. In a game with St. Mary's Church, Chamblainz pitched for Corpus Christi, and struck out 19 men in six and one-half innings.

Four runs were made off Chamblainz by the St. Mary boys, but they were due to errors. Watch Chamblainz shine and sparkle as the season grows!

I had put all my hope in the protection of Divine Providence, and thought I ought to be on my guard, just relying on him," said I should lose anything of my confidence in God.—St. Francis Xavier.

Father Sullivan Took 182 Boys To Opening Game

When St. Peter opens the Gates of Heaven to let any boy from St. John the Evangelist's parish go inside after the ball that will eventually be knocked over the gates, who will that boy expect to find on a front seat, holding the ball for him? Father John B. Sullivan, of course. Why? Because on Tuesday the International League baseball season opened in Rochester, and Father John B. Sullivan took 182 boys from

"Joe" Savoldi, Notre Dame Star, Here Four Days

"Towering Joe" Savoldi, famous fullback of last year's champion Notre Dame football team, came to Rochester on Tuesday night, stopped at the Sonoma, and on Friday night will wrestle Andy Anderson of Minnetonka at Convention Hall. Savoldi is a professional wrestler now, and is counted the greatest athlete of the Italian race in America at the present time.

Savoldi was the guest of Warren C. Giles at the Rochester-Newark baseball game on Wednesday, occupying a box with Jule Dauman, local promoter of wrestling. He attracted a great deal of attention in Rochester, and was given a hearty reception here by numerous admirers.

St. Augustine's Falls a Victim To St. Monica's

St. Augustine's first game of the season took place last Friday, the team meeting St. Monica's in Genesee Valley Park. There was a big crowd of rooters for both teams, and the game was a fast one, with heaps of bases and a few shells. The lineup of the team follows:

St. Augustine's: Fluk, r.f.; Sullivan, c.; and st.; Kuser, 2b; Grass, ss; and c.; Robinson, 3d; Pommering, l.f.; Murphy, c.f.; Johantgen, 1st b.; Quigley, p.; Teal, p.

St. Monica's: Hirschman, 1st b.; Streb, 2d b.; Wilkins, 3d b.; Dorr, ss.; Ricey, r.f.; Sullivan, c.f.; Tanney, l.f.; Board, c.; Kane, p.

Quigley had five strike-outs, and Kane had 11. Each walked five batters. St. Monica's got seven hits off Quigley in six and one-third innings; none off Teal. Kane yielded only three hits. Errors, Sullivan one; Kane one; Murphy two; wild pitches, Quigley two, Kane one, and Teal one. The score:
