Little Misses' Outfit for Afternoon Affairs

This little miss has her own ideas as to fashions, and they are very good ones, too. She is wearing a smart two-piece ensemble for the afternoon party. It is of satin jersey and the blouse is pink. The box-pleated skirt is white.

Breakfast Spoon Dishes

Around the world, whenever one calls for marmalade at breakfast, the chances are many to one that orange marmalade will be served. In the smartest hotels and in the plainest homes, wherever knowing people take breakfast, orange marmalade is a standard dish. Honey jelly, also is a favorite spread for toast or bread. Both can be made quickly and simply at home with bottled peetin, at any time.

Orange Marmalade
3 cups (1 1/2 lbs.) cooked fruit juice of 1 lemon
6 cups (3 1/2 lbs.) sugar
1/2 cup bottled peetin
Remove rind in quarters. Slice peeled fruit very thin crosswise, removing seeds. Then cut slices fine, discarding hard centers. Lay rind flat, and with sharp knife, pare off about 1/2 of white part of rind. Discard these white parts. Shred yellow rind very thin, add 1 1/2 cups water, and 1/4 teaspoon soda, and cook, covered, for just 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Then add cut-up fruit and lemon juice. Simmer, covered, 20 minutes longer. Measure 2 scalding cups of this cooked fruit into large kettle, adding water if necessary to fill third cup. Add sugar, bring to a boil, and boil gently 5 minutes. Remove from fire and stir in bottled peetin. Stir occasionally for just 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent curdling. Pour quickly. Cover hot marmalade with film of hot paraffin; when marmalade is cold, cover with 1-8th inch of hot paraffin. Roll glass to spread paraffin on sides. Sometimes sets very slowly. Requires 4 medium oranges. Makes about 8 eight-ounce glasses.

Honey Jelly
3/4 cup water
2 1/2 cups (1 1/4 lbs.) honey
1/2 cup bottled peetin
Measure water and honey into saucepan. Stir and bring to a boil. At once add bottled peetin, stirring constantly. Bring again to a full rolling boil and remove from fire. Skim; pour quickly. Cover hot jelly with film of hot paraffin; when jelly is cold cover with 1-8th inch of hot paraffin. Roll glass to spread paraffin on sides. Makes 4 to 5 eight-ounce glasses.

Fresh Orange Dessert
1 package orange junket
diced fresh oranges
1 pint milk
Put a heaping tablespoon of diced fresh orange without the extra juice, in the bottom of five dessert dishes. Sprinkle with sugar if desired. Prepare the junket according to directions on the package. Pour at once over the oranges. Let stand undisturbed in warm room until firm—about 10 minutes. Then chill.

Popular Pickle Dishes

Treat the humble little pickle with a great deal of respect. It may be used in dozens of unusual ways to add zest to dishes of various kinds. Try the following as samples:

Economical Salad
Chop one cupful raw cabbage, two green peppers, and six or eight sour pickles (mixed pickles are excellent). Add pepper, salt and either vinegar or lemon juice to taste and stir thoroughly. Serve in balls or mounted on crisp leaves of lettuce. This is enough for three or four helpings.

Bacon and Pickle Sandwich
6 slices crisply broiled bacon, chopped
3 medium size dill pickles, chopped
1/2 cup mayonnaise
Combine bacon, pickles and mayonnaise. Spread on buttered bread. Makes six sandwiches, 4 x 4 inches.

Lemon Whipped Cream Sauce
(Serves 6)
4 tablespoons lemon juice
4 tablespoons sugar
grated rind 1 lemon
1/2 cup cream
Combine lemon juice, sugar and grated rind. Let stand until thoroughly chilled; then add whipped cream.

Bishop's Brother Radio Broadcast A Daily Feature

Buffalo, May 15.—St. Bartholomew's Church, on Grider Street, of which the Rev. Thomas J. O'Hern, brother of Bishop O'Hern of Rochester, is pastor, inaugurated on Monday last week a program of devotional services broadcast from the church. This program, which is broadcast over WGR at 8 o'clock each morning, is a departure in Catholic broadcasting.

Each broadcast will consist of hymns by a choir of school children, a short prayer and a recitation. Father O'Hern is being assisted in these broadcasts by Rev. John Marks Haley of the Paulist Order of New York City. Raymond Baldeuf, organist, will direct the musical part of the programs.

Items of Interest From WHAM

The largest fleet of airplanes ever assembled will occasion the most complicated and pretentious special event broadcast in the history of radio, Saturday afternoon, May 23. The event arranged by NBC will come to Rochesterians through WHAM at approximately 1 o'clock. The broadcast will be a complete account of the aerial attack on New York City incident to the army maneuvers in which 672 planes will take part. It will be the first time in the history of aviation broadcasting that announcers, flying in planes and stationed at vantage points along the line of attack, will have given listeners a complete, running account of each step in a mimic aerial attack.

The kaleidoscopic colors and odors which make New York's Bell Street the general conception of all that is Oriental are suggested musically in the Stymberg-Harrison program to be played by the Rochester Civic Orchestra at 9 o'clock Monday night, May 18th. Guy Fraser Harrison will conduct at WHAM and associated stations will receive the concert via NBC.

A 300-voice chorus and a 100-piece orchestra comprised of students of the Eastman School of Music in Rochester will be heard over the NBC-WJZ network from WHAM at 8 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, May 20th. Together they will perform the "Fallon Star" by David S. Smith and "Horatio Parker."

President Hoover will introduce Dr. Robert A. Millikan, eminent American physicist to the WHAM-NBC audience when the famed California scientist addresses the first annual assembly of the National Advisory Council on Radio in Education in New York City, Friday, May 22, at 9 P. M. The occasion marks the first annual meeting of the National Advisory Council on Radio in Education, sponsored by eminent educators and philanthropists and founded in 1930 to further the development of educational broadcasting. Dr. Millikan will speak of its significance and its initial achievements. The assembly will bring together a radio council comprised of leading figures of science, art, medicine, history, drama, the languages and the press.

"Infused Contemplation" will be Rev. Charles F. Shay's subject when he speaks over WHAM in the St. Patrick's Cathedral Hour at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 17.

Commandery No. 197 Knights of St. John, To Hold May Party

A large crowd is expected to attend the Annual May Party and Dance of Holy Family Commandery No. 197 of the Knights of St. John, on Saturday evening, May 16, 1931, at the American Bavarian Hall, 416 Wilder Street. The committee in charge, George Wurzer, Chairman, has made elaborate plans to furnish an evening of enjoyment unassayed by none, for this event. Two door prizes will be given away, one to a man and the other to a lady.

In commenting on the party, Chairman Wurzer had the following to say: "Our committee has been at work for the past month in arranging this party, so that everyone who attends on Saturday evening, will be assured of an evening of enjoyment, which will be remembered for a long time. I have personally supervised the arrangements and can vouch for the success of the party. We have made the price of admission as low as possible—only 25 cents a person, so if it is a matter of price, why anyone ought to be able to pay 25 cents for a dance of this nature. All members of Commandery No. 197 and their friends are invited to be present at this party. All arrangements are complete and we are all set to go. Tickets can be obtained at the door or from members of the committee."

Two Hundred Knights And Junior Knights Present K. C. Communion Breakfast

Bishop O'Hern Talks to Men on the Sacredness and Importance of Marriage—Says Something Must be Done to Stop the Divorce Mills.

Elmira, May 15.—Three hundred Knights of Columbus and Junior Knights were present at the annual K. of C. Communion breakfast here Sunday. The Knights attended in a body the 7-30 o'clock Mass in St. Patrick's Church, of which the Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. J. Bloomer is rector. Following the Mass, they marched in a body from the Church to the Mark Twain Hotel, where a fine breakfast was served. The Bishop was escorted by these Fourth Degree Knights in formal dress: Justin T. McCarthy, Edward J. O'Connor, Daniel J. Bermingham, Jr., Howard O. Hulbert, Owen P. McCarthy, John F. Nicholson and C. J. Milliken.

Bishop O'Hern Speaker

Bishop O'Hern was the speaker of the day. He was introduced by Grand Knight Cornelius J. Milliken, and was given a great reception. The Bishop told of the pleasure he felt in being with the Knights on this occasion. He commended the welfare work they are doing for boys, and the lecture course conducted during the winter, on vital subjects.

"Of course, marriage is one of them," he said, "since marriage is a universal institution established by the Lord Himself and governed by the laws which He promulgated. It is the right kind of marriage among our young people, marriages of happy forecass, marriages which have been entered into only after due and thoughtful deliberation, marriages which have been made in heaven, as they say, rather than on earth—then all will go well with our family life. After all, is not family life the foundation of the republic, and if we have a nation made up of worthy homes and worthy families, we have the strongest and most fundamental basis for our moral, educational, religious and industrial progress, without which no real progress can be made."

The Pope's Encyclical

"It is not too much to say that when any evil strikes the family life, it strikes at the very roots of our national standards and our national greatness. Hence our Holy Father, the Vicar of Christ, felt it obligatory, during the past few months to give to the world his wonderful pronouncement on Christian Marriage. I hope and I know that that message has found a resting place in the minds and hearts of the millions of our Catholic people who make up the membership of our Church in our beautiful country. But the message was heard and pondered over by millions of people who do not belong to the Catholic Church, but who are striving to find a solution of the many ills which affect society today and which are endangering this country in the days of our future. "Something must be done to stop the divorce mills of those states which are unwise enough for temporal gain to permit easy divorce, in fact, to encourage it not only among their own people but by inviting others to come in their midst and for a few miserable dollars to go away with a diploma from the divorce mill."

Marriage Indissoluble

"It was the Lord Himself who said: 'What God hath joined together let no man put asunder, and around that, Catholic Church, from the beginning, has built up her magisterial teaching in regard to the Sacrament of Marriage. She teaches that marriage has two great qualities or characteristics: unity and indissolubility, nor can we afford to hold up any other ideal to the masses of the people if we are to have society and save the nation. "Childhood and all that it means is deeply upon the sacredness and perpetuity of marriage contract. If we allow selfishness, short sightedness, whims and fancies to enter into the home of any couple who have been joined in Holy Wedlock from which springs the thought of separation, divorce and remarriage, leaving the children practically to shift for themselves, then we have opened up a veritable Niagara of evil. Many a people would never think of separating, of obtaining a divorce except the laws of the land make it so easy for them to bring it about. "Again, there must be a proper preparation, estimation, an education if you like, of our young people for married life. Only too often it is entered into hastily and with unworthy motives. Only too often those who are bound together who never should have made the solemn vows binding them as man and wife for a life partnership. You husbands, you fathers, you sons, must be sure to have the spirit of chivalry which should characterize any good man and always be ready to manifest it towards womanhood whether it be in the case of

Benefit Party To Aid Missions On 20th of May

On Wednesday, May 20th, beginning at 8:30 o'clock, a benefit card party will be held in St. Joseph's School Hall, Franklin Street. The proceeds will go to the mission fund of the Redeemptorist Fathers, and it is hoped a goodly sum will be raised. The party will be open to men and women, and the admission price has been placed at the unusually low sum of 25 cents. Pivot or progressive bridge will be played, and there will be a prize for every table. Everybody is invited to help this worthy cause.

C.D.A. Convention At Glens Falls To Open on Monday

Delegates and members from many places in the Rochester Diocese will attend the 1931 State convention of the Catholic Daughters of America in Glens Falls, N. Y., May 18, 19 and 20th. Several hundred are expected from all parts of the state. Progressive reports on membership increases, and on religious, educational, charitable and welfare activities, will be submitted by numerous state officers, district deputies and grand regents.

Mrs. Margaret A. Tynan of Poulsbooke, state regent of the order, will preside at the three-days' convalescent sessions. National Secretary Miss Katharine M. Housney of New York City will be guest of honor and one of the principal speakers at the convention.

Elaborate preparations have been made by the officers and members of Glens Falls Court of the Catholic Daughters society, with the cooperation of other organizations of the city, to welcome and entertain the throngs of visiting delegates and members.

FAMILY LIFE

Young men and women should postpone their marriage until they have read the wonderful book, "Married Life." It should be found in every home—Rev. Fr. Vermonnt, Denton, Texas. W. H. Schmidt, Kremmling, Colo., writes: "Send two books, 'Married Life.' Enclosed $6. This makes four books I have ordered for our children. It sure is worth its weight in gold." Mr. Geo. J. Stadler, 610 South Central Ave., Marshfield, Wis., writes: "Enclosed find check for $3. Forward your book, 'Married Life.' We have three children and find many things one should know about care of children."

No family can afford to be without this book. Price $3 postpaid. Order from Dr. K. Willman, Author, 1215 Parson St., St. Joseph, Mo., or write for literature. Mention Catholic Courier-Journal.
