

White Star Line Is Arranging Trips to the Shrines in Canada, And to Many Other Historic Places

St. Joseph's at Montreal, St. Anne de Beaupre at Quebec, the Famous Shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes, and— of the Little Flower in Europe.

The days slip by and your vacation will be here, ready for you. Are you ready for your vacation? Making a trip to Europe — and make it true by taking advantage of this exceptional opportunity to combine the beauties of an European trip with the devotional joys of visits to the shrines dear to every Catholic heart—St. Joseph's at Montreal; St. Anne de Beaupre's at Quebec; the Shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes; the Shrine of the Little Flower, at Lisieux.

Even before you reach the other side you will feel you have already been amply repaid for any effort it may cost you to take this journey. Sailing down the glorious St. Lawrence, traversing a thousand miles of sheltered seaway, you rest and relax in a manner that is truly remarkable. On every side, the quaint beauties of the ancient province of Quebec pass in magic panorama before your eyes. From the moment you embark, at Montreal, where the miraculous statue of the Blessed Virgin above Bonsecours spreads her arms over you, and where the gigantic cross on the summit of Mount Royal twinkles a "Bon Voyage" to you, you will feel you have at last started on your Trip o' Dreams. You sail past the little old fort and statue on the shore at Vercheres, where in 1692 the 14-year old Madeline successfully defended her home against the Iroquois; you slip into the waters of Lac St. Pierre, scene for Drummond's loveliest verses; along past Yamachiche and Point du Lac, Trois-Rivieres and Champlain, Deschambault, St. Mary, and then the tremendous upper of the Quebec Bridge greets you and you pass below it, into the calm waters of the incomparable harbor of Quebec, the old dream-city of the continent, with its rocky heights, ancient turrets, sturdy citadel and modern buildings etched in unforgettable beauty against the loveliest sky.

World-Famous Seaway Descriptions may prepare you in a fashion, for the spell-binding beauty of the trip down this world-famous seaway, but they can never paint for you the arresting grandeur of stately, gracious Montreal, exotic, charming Quebec—the pastoral serenity of the rural country side; the dimly splendor of the Laurentian hills.

Leaving Quebec, which gazes down on you as it has gazed down for centuries upon travelers leaving for the distant sea, you take a final look across the river to Lévis, a sister city of Quebec, and up north, the high Falls of Montmorency draw for you their filmy white curtain against the green hills. As you head for the great ocean you mentally salute Petromite on the island of Orleans, and St. Francis with its parish church, originally built in 1683, once isolated and far removed from the modern world, yet not on the pathway of the great ocean liners.

The Tides Rise and Fall

How you enjoy every minute! The tides rise and fall, the water is salty, but the ship drives along as on a sea of glass. No threatening waves to drive you cabinward; no lowering clouds to set the captain anxiously scanning the heavens. The green shores keep steady pace with the ship, interposing forests and hills against the distant horizon in an ever-changing, ever-beautiful panorama.

At Father Point the pilot goes over the side; the north shore retreats farther and farther away; Ste. Anne des Monts and Mont Louis slide by on the south and you see Cap Madeline, a lonely signal station built on the site of a Jesuit mission established in 1661.

On you go, past the Island of Anticosti, into the Straits of Belle Isle, with Labrador on the north and Newfoundland on the south. You come to the rocky little island of Belle Isle, with its faithful lighthouse standing guard a final memory to forever color the joyous days you have spent on this majestic seaway to the ocean, which now opens to you, and on which you sail, secure in the trustworthiness of your White Star liner and assured of days on the ocean to match (although they can never surpass) the splendor of the days on the St. Lawrence.

Strawberry Dainties

By BETTY BAROLAY

Out goes The Oyster—in comes The Strawberry! Already strawberries are appearing in the markets in quantity. And already housewives are preserving this delicious fruit against the inroads of next fall and winter will make on the jam cupboard.

With a few simple methods, using bottled fruit peeler, all the garbage has been taken out of making strawberry jelly—and the time saved is astounding. Imagine a batch of jam or jelly in fifteen minutes!

Strawberry Jelly

4 cups (2 lbs.) juice
7 1/2 cups (3 1/2 lbs.) sugar
1 bottle fruit pectin

Use only fully ripened berries. Crush thoroughly and drip through jelly bag. Do not drip over night as needed for jam. Measure juice and sugar into large saucepan, stir, and bring to a boil. At once add pectin, stirring constantly, and bring again to a full rolling boil and boil 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, let stand 1 minute, skim, then pour into sterilized jars with 1/2 inch of hot paraffin when jelly is cold, cover with 1-3/8 inch of hot paraffin. Roll glasses in spread paraffin on sides. Requires about 3 quarts berries. Makes about 11 eight-ounce glasses.

Dainties from Portugal

By ANNE SCHUYLER

The cooks of little Portugal have furnished us with some excellent recipes and we teach us much about the art of seasoning. One of their favorite tricks is to use sugar with vegetables and even eggs to bring out the delicate flavor they desire. Incidentally, the addition of this sugar adds to the energy value of the dish.

Lemon Eggs

This combination of soup and eggs makes a dish hearty enough for the main course at luncheon or supper, or may be used as a beginning for an otherwise rather light dinner.

2 cups soup stock
1 onion
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 teaspoon sugar
2 tablespoons lemon drippings
eggs
toast

Fry the sliced onion in the bacon fat. Add the soup stock, vinegar and sugar. Cook all together until the onion is soft. Have ready one slice of toast for each egg to be served. Poach an egg in the boiling soup for each person. Arrange the toast in soup plates. Place a poached egg on each side. Fill the plates with the soup.

Creamed Potatoes

This is a dessert well liked by those who like Portugal. It is equally nice served with a pudding sauce or with cream.

1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup brown sugar
1 egg
1 cup raw carrots, grated
1/2 teaspoon lemon peel, grated
1/2 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon ginger

Cream the butter. Add the sugar and slightly beaten eggs. Stir in the carrots and grated lemon peel. Mix and sift the dry ingredients. Add to first mixture. Bake in a buttered pudding pan for one hour. Serve hot.

News Jaunts Around the World

New York, May 29.—Five hundred persons, celebrating International Good Will Day recently in this city, were a long way away from good will when their meeting broke up amid a storm of hisses and cheers. The explosion came when James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, presiding, refused to permit a vote on a motion censuring the proposed U. S. Army air maneuvers over New York.

Sparta, Ga., May 29.—The Rev. Robert G. Smith, pastor of the Methodist Church here, has sued two Bishops of his church for $25,000 each on a charge of slander. They are Bishop Edwin D. Monzon of Charlotte, N. C., and Bishop John M. Moore of Dallas, Texas. Smith preferred charges in 1930 against Bishops Cannon, Monzon, Moore and Dykes, all of the Methodist Church, for "unwarranted political activities," and he charges that Monzon and Moore slandered him as a result. A Methodist lady in Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. Howard Joyce, is also sued on a similar charge for $25,000 by Mr. Smith.

Dublin, Ireland, May 29.—Plans have been prepared for an unusual altar to be erected in Phoenix Park, Dublin, for use during the Eucharistic Congress here in 1932. The framework will be of strong steel, the cross will be 71 feet above the ground and there will be colonnades 180 feet in length on each side, and at the end of each colonnade will be a pavilion with a small dome harmonizing with the dome above the altar.

Dies of Heart Disease at Age of Seventy-Nine—He Led Pilgrimage to Genoa, Home of Columbus, in 1910.

New Haven, May 29.—Only one of the original founders of the Knights of Columbus remains alive—Cornelius T. Driscoll, aged 86 years, former Mayor of the city of New Haven, Conn. On Friday last week death removed his only companion of the original founders—William M. Geary, who died suddenly of heart disease at his home here, aged 79 years.

Mr. Geary was a clerk in the office of the Town Clerk when the international Catholic organization was formed here 49 years ago. He had attended every annual meeting of the Supreme Council of the Order. Mr. Geary was born in New Haven and with two brothers, was a member of a firm dealing in music in this city. He became a real estate operator and finally joined the Healy-Rigelow-Kickapoo Indian patent medicine firm. He rented to Sylvester Z. Poll, later owner of a chain of theaters, his first hall for a vaudeville show.

For many years he had an office in the national headquarters of the Knights of Columbus in this city and devoted years to research in connection with the order. In 1910 he led a pilgrimage of Knights to the home of Christopher Columbus in Genoa, Italy. The pilgrims received the papal blessing in Rome. Mr. Geary had been secretary of St. Lawrence and St. Bernard Cemeteries of this city for more than forty years. His wife who was Miss Mary Kent, died in 1911. He leaves six children.
