Aquinas Plays Its Final Game With Clyde Team

The Aquinas baseball team will play its last game of the season tomorrow, Saturday afternoon, at Clyde, with the Clyde High School team. The Aquinas boys are all set to win. Due to a late start, the Aquinas team had a short season. It played two games with the St. Andrew Seminary boys, and won both. It tied the U. of R. Fresh team, which defeated all the public high schools. This game was called on account of darkness, and the Fresh boys had no date open for a play-off. So it will remain a historic tie. The Clyde game was set for a previous date, but the heavens rained on the date and the game was postponed until Saturday. A game had been arranged with the Albion High team for Decoration Day, but the Albion team was forced to cancel. And that was that. Most Leahy's boys give a good account of themselves in the game they did play, and there are high hopes that next year will see the team get an early start, and a triumphant finish.

Brill, Conley Both Have Jobs Football Coaches

Thomas Conley, captain of last year's Notre Dame football team, and Marty Brill, famous backfield star, were in Rochester this week, calling upon Joseph P. "Stubby" Flynn, John A. Doyle, and other friends. They stopped over while driving from Notre Dame to their homes in Philadelphia, and they enjoyed their stay here. Both men have jobs as football coaches for next fall. Brill will be assistant backfield coach at Columbia University, under Lou Little, and Conley will be head coach at LaSalle College, Philadelphia. LaSalle has never played football before, so Conley will have to work from the ground up. "Good old Rock" was the way the boys spoke of Knute Rockne, the coach who made them, and whom they loved as devoted sons love a good father. "Good old Rock" he will be to them all the days of their lives, his memory treasured in their hearts, his spirit enlivening their souls.

Niagara Coach To Be Honored On 11th of June

A formal dinner-dance will be held in the ballroom of the Powers Hotel next Thursday evening, June 11th, in honor of William E. McCarthy, retiring coach of athletics at Niagara University, and former Aquinas coach. All friends of "Bill" are cordially invited to attend. Joseph A. Smith, manager of the Powers Hotel, is chairman of arrangements. The dinner is set for 7:30 o'clock, with dancing to follow until 1 o'clock. Tickets may be obtained at the desk at Powers Hotel or from anyone of the committee. Assisting Mr. Smith are Charles E. Welch, Jr., J. Gordon Farrell, Frank G. Gerrish, Thomas H. Farrell, Thomas J. Gibbons, Carl F. DeSando, John G. Kammer, Charles J. Welch, William B. Callinan and Richard W. Curran.

Telephone Us

Players or rooters—call The Catholic Courier & Journal on the telephone if your team record is not correct in our paper. Call us every time your team plays a game, whether you win or lose. Give us the names of boys who make home runs, or any other features you would like to see in print. We want to boost the boys, the teams, the league. Help us do it. Use our phone—Main 1567.

St. Augustine's Wins Four Games In Succession

The St. Augustine baseball team won four games in succession—the St. Mary's Church, St. Boniface, Blessed Sacrament and Corpus Christi teams falling to the prowess of the boys from the Oull Avenue section. The game with the Blessed Sacrament team was played on Thursday last week, 14 to 1, and the one with Corpus Christi was played on Friday, resulting in a score of 6 to 2 for St. Augustine's.

Tie Game Played Off; Sacred Heart Is The Winner

Some days ago the Sacred Heart and St. Anthony teams played a tie game—10 to 10, with lots of pep to it, and thrills that stirred the hearts of the boys. On Tuesday last week they played off this season. Sacred Heart won, 8 to 5. Lynch of Sacred Heart hit a home run, and his team got five runs in the first inning. The game was well played, and the St. Anthony boys put up a game fight, even though they did lose. There were rooters in abundance for both teams.

Catholic Club Business Group Sausage Roast

The Business Women's Group of the Catholic Club will open its summer activities with a sausage roast on Wednesday evening, June 10th, at Eillon Park. Members are to meet and leave the clubhouse at 5:45 P. M. Reservations will be received up to Monday, June 8th, at the clubhouse. Plans are being made for members of the group to play golf weekly during the summer, and a house party will be held by them at Camp Mendonza over the week-end of June 27. Cordial invitation is extended to business or professional women actively engaged in business to join their group in their summer activities by calling the clubhouse.

Celtics To Play Buffalo Hispano Here On Sunday

Sunday afternoon the Celtics of Rochester will play the Hispano of Buffalo in the final game in the Northwestern New York state Challenge Cup Competition, at the German Athletic Field, Lexington Avenue. The winner will hold the Dunbar Trophy, emblematic of the championship, which was won last year by K. Osk Park. Indications point to a fast game. The Celtics have not answered the little since the war days of 1911. This is the first time that the team has been within striking distance of the title in several years. P. O'Connor, of Pittsburgh, Pa., will referee the game, which will be open to the public.

Rochester K. C. Elects Its Officers For Coming Year

The annual election of officers for Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, was held on Thursday this week, with voting in progress from 2 P. M. to 9 P. M., in the Columbus Civic Center. The following candidates have been placed in nomination previously by the Council, and were voted for at the election: John A. Doyle, grand knight; Dr. Walter B. O'Neill, deputy grand knight; James E. O'Connell, chancellor; Frederick J. Mly, advocate; George W. Heiser, treasurer; Thomas E. O'Connor, recorder; Leo F. Rembert, warden; William A. Kuss, inside guard; Angelo L. D'Amico, outside guard; William J. Hauser, trustee for three years; John A. Doyle and Charles H. Barnes, delegates to the State convention; Daniel F. Prister and John J. Mellesner, alternates. Tellers for the election were Cornelius Moynihan, Timothy Donovan and Wilbur Quinn.

If our heart be stripped of the world it will be full of God, but if it be empty of God it will be full of the world. Those who trust in Divine Providence, and who never be abandoned, but shall experience a special help.
